APRIL 4, 2021 | THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Donate items for Honduras

We are preparing to send a container to Honduras and are collecting donations of gently-used items. We especially need household items, such as towels, bedding, and kitchen items. Donations should be clearly marked for Honduras, and left in the lobby entrance at OLGH or in the lobby at StB or may be brought to either parish office. If you are bringing your items to the parish office, we encourage you to call ahead to be sure someone is available to receive them. Items received before April 19 will be included in the container. Thank you for your generosity.

Annual Mass of Atonement

The annual Mass of Atonement will be held on April 15, at 6:00PM, at St. Monica Parish (5681 North Santa Monica Boulevard, Whitefish Bay). This Mass is one of the ways that the current leadership of the Archdiocese publicly atones for the clergy abuse crisis and scandal. Mass will be available for in-person attendance and will be livestreamed. We invite you to join us in support of the survivors, family members, and communities who have spoken or unspoken stories of survival and pain. If you are unable to attend, we would ask that you please remember in your prayers all those who suffer from the wounds of abuse that they receive peace, healing, and justice. Please visit www.archmil.org for more information.

Spring Scripture Study

Senior fraud & scams presentations

Eras Senior Network provides virtual presentations on the many scams targeting seniors. They run from thirty to sixty minutes and cover the following topics:

grandparent scams	telemarketing scams
funeral scams	sweepstakes scams
online/e-mail scams	investment scams
charity scams	Power of Attorney scams
COVID-19 scams

We would like to assess your interest in virtually attending one or more of these presentations. Please contact Dawn Truitt at 262-253-0380 by April 16 to let her know which topic(s) you are interested in. If there is enough interest, we will work with Eras to set up Zoom presentations.

Catholic Q&A

Question: Do we need to fast for one hour before Mass, or one hour before Communion?

Answer: The practice of fasting before receiving the Eucharist is a centuries-old act of devotion that was once very different than it is today. In the 1917 Code of Canon Law, for example, anyone who wanted to receive the Eucharist had to fast from midnight until the time of Communion (even water and medications were forbidden). Over the following decades, the rules for the Eucharistic fast were relaxed, first by Pope Pius XII and, later, by Pope Saint Paul VI.

The current Code of Canon Law (1983) states very clearly: "A person who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain for at least one hour before Holy Communion from any food and drink, except for only water and medicine" (Canon 919, §1). And, in the case of those who are ill and the elderly, the rules are even more accommodating, "The elderly, the infirm, and those who care for them can receive the Most Holy Eucharist even if they have eaten something within the preceding hour" (Canon 919, §3).

So, if we strictly follow the "letter of the law," the fast is calculated from the time of Holy Communion and not the start of Mass. However, when we remember why we fast—it is a reminder of the deeper hungers of the spirit that our physical thirst or hunger symbolizes—we see that the issue is much bigger than simply fulfilling what is called for by Church law and tradition. Joining fasting to our prayers and reflection before Mass is an opportunity to really center ourselves and to prepare our minds, hearts, and bodies to welcome the One we receive in the Eucharist.

EASTER

NWMCP men's retreat: April 30-May 2

Revel in the liberating silence maintained through this weekend retreat at the Redemptorist Retreat Center in Oconomowoc with other men from our tri-parish cluster. This prayerful solitude allows a deeper communion with God and more fervent focus on prayer. Reflect upon the prayerful thought-provoking talks and conferences given by religious priests, brothers, and sisters. For reservations and information, please contact George Zagel at stcathmen@protonmail.com or 414-736-2688.

Fiscal Riddles

Q. Who was the greatest financier in the Bible?

A. Noah. He was floating his stock while everyone else was in liquidation.

Q. Who was the greatest female financier in the Bible?

A. Pharaoh's daughter. She went down to the bank of the Nile and drew out a little prophet.

The Right Answer

During his children's sermon, our assistant pastor asked the kids, "What is gray, has a bushy tail, and gathers nuts in the fall?"

One five-year-old raised his hand. "I know the answer should be Jesus," he began, "but it sounds like a squirrel to me."

A Good Sermon

The secret of a good sermon is to have a good beginning and a good ending, and to have the two as close together as possible.
