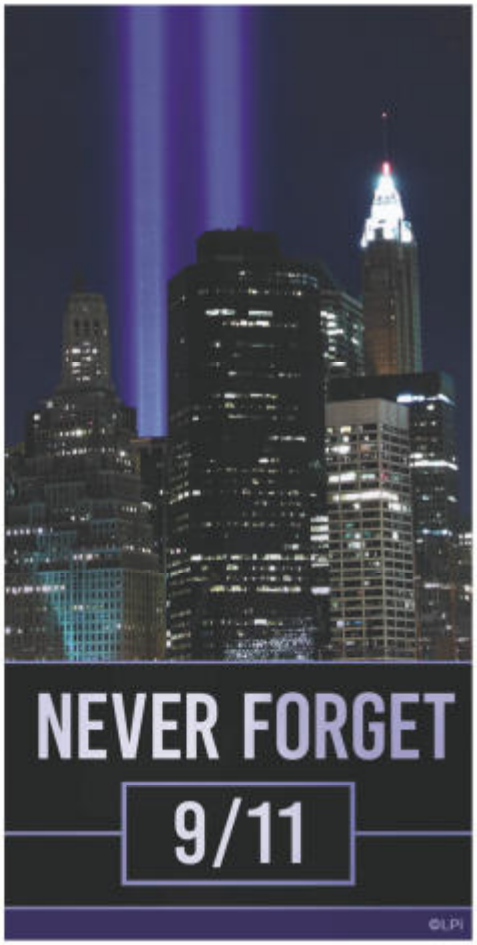
LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life can be challenging and frightening. Sometimes, it really hurts to be a human being. We face brokenness of all kinds: physical, emotional, and spiritual. For no apparent reason, life can quickly fall apart. What we knew to be familiar is gone and something we relied upon is taken away. We are left sitting with our incompleteness and swimming in the pools of our sadness. Be strong! Fear not! These admonitions flow from the mouths of prophets and are echoed by Jesus. It is difficult to trust that restoration, healing, and rejuvenation will one day come, and remain steadfast in our faith. But we are here because of a God who loves us, not as the result of a random occurrence. When we reach for that truth about who we are and who God is, life changes for us. We are healed from our old distorted way of seeing things. Our eyes, heart, and soul are opened to the beauty and magnificence of life. The pulse of our loving Creator is felt in all things and we can't wait for God to come and touch us again. God made us, God loves us, and God keeps us. He has done all things well.



FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A new year of Religious Education at All Saints is just around the corner. I thought it would be a good time to give some highlights of what we are planning for this year's program.

Starting in October, our students and catechists will be returning to the Religious Education Center for in-person classroom catechesis on Wednesday evenings from 6:30 to 7:30 PM. First through fifth grades will have their own classes as always. This year, one of the improvements we'll be making involves the sixth and seventh grades. We'll be combining these two classes and having them instructed by a team of adults (like we do with the eighth through eleventh grades). Our Parish Director of Religious Education, Chris Olesak, and longtime Catechist and teacher, Mary Knock, have worked together for quite a while, constructing a new curriculum for this combined class, geared more to our children and their experience. And we have a great team in place to guide these children.

The combined eighth and ninth grade class this year will be studying Sacred Scripture. We'll spend the year going through the Gospel of Mark, leaning how to study and understand the Bible from a Catholic perspective. Our Confirmation class, the combined tenth and eleventh grades, will be using the "Chosen" video and text book series. These high school classes will continue to meet one Wednesday per month. Gratefully, we have several experienced catechists returning to help us, and I'll continue to serve as the lead catechist for these two very important levels.

Finally, we're planning something new for our high school seniors: some excellent continuing education sessions to be offered to the seniors on Sunday evenings. Right now, we're looking at several different options for content. But regardless of what we pick, I can promise you it will be engaging, interactive, and worthwhile.

I'm most excited to share some great news about our facility. Most people know that the work was completed on our new multipurpose room, constructed onto the back of the Religious Education Center. What you might not know, is that once work was completed on the new room, it made the rest of the center look pretty shabby. So the Parish Finance Council encouraged me to move ahead with renovating the whole building. Over the past several weeks, all the decaying window blinds were removed and tossed out, and the walls were repaired. New window treatments are already here and ready to be installed. The carpet was stripped and the asbestos under the floor tile was removed. This week, the floors were leveled. Painting will commence very soon, and the carpet is set to be installed throughout the whole building the week of September 27th.

Because all this work is in process, we decided to give our program a safety buffer, so we won't be starting Religious Education classes until October this year. There will be a Kick Off event on October 13th for 1st through 7th grades. Our High School kick off for 8th through 12th grades will be on October 27th. Full schedules and registrations will be available soon.

We've planned some pretty exciting changes for this year. Please join me in praying for the success of our efforts. Passing on our Catholic Faith is one of the most important things we do as a parish. The Church is depending on us to bring our best efforts to this task. The children of our parish are counting on us!
