St. Teresa

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for "love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self." Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person's story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God's work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

The Parishes' School of Religion

does meet on Sunday, October 10 and Wednesday, October 13. Last year, the Serra Club gave us a special cross that we could use and pray for vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. This year we will be moving the Serra Cross each month to a different classroom. We have asked the teachers to pray the Vocation prayer written by Bishop McGovern each time they meet. The schedule for the Serra Club Cross is as follows: September / Ann Bach, Grade 8, October / Deacon Gerry Bach, Grade 7, November, Jane Stock, Grade 6, December, Helen York & Joe Stock, Grade 5, January, Madi Breunig & Connie Goyda, Grade 4, February, Julie Neill & Lee and Rachel Strong, Grade 3, March, Ann Stock, Grade 2, April, Melinda Kinder & Pat Ives, Grade 1, May, Melanie Gniewek & Pat Ives, Kindergarten. Hopefully, praying the Vocation prayer each week will help the students to see the urgent need for priests and religious in our diocese.

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wisdom 7:7-11. Psalm 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17.
Hebrews 4:12-13. Mark 10:17-30.

Living for Eternal Life. Let us put ourselves into the gospel story today. All of us want to "inherit eternal life." All of us strive to do what God commands, to do what is right and just. All of us strive to not let the things we have possess us. But it is hard going – impossible without reliance on God. This eternal life for which we long, this Kingdom of God in which we live now, is begun already in us and is fulfilled in completeness when we see God face-to-face for ever.

- ♦ What gets in my way of gaining eternal life – things, attitudes, behaviors?
- ♦ What mercy work will I do that lets me share what I have with someone in need?
- ♦ How will I follow Jesus more closely this week?

If Heaven were like Harvard

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

You just don't get it, Jesus . . .

"So what must I do to inherit eternal life?" the rich young man asks Jesus.

Jesus' reply: "Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor."

"And the young man walked away sad," Mark writes, "for he had many possessions."

No doubt.

"I knew it," he muttered as he walked away, "another bleeding-heart, sunshine-and-lollipops do-gooder. Sell what you have and give to the poor. Sure. Easy for him. He has nothing. Easy to suggest giving away other people's money.

It's always the same spiel.

And even if I did — like it's really going to make a difference? If I sell everything, I might make a few people less poor for a while, but what really changes? Nothing. Treasure in the next life is one thing — but what about this life, now? Jesus, you don't have a business, a mortgage or students loans to pay off. How can I just walk away from those responsibilities?

Being poor is better than rich? Trust me. It's not.

Who pays the taxes that supports programs for the poor? Who pays workers so they can feed their families? Who supports the temple and the schools and academies?

Sell what you have and give to the poor?

Sorry I asked, Jesus.

Just another one of those traveling religious medicine shows. He talks a great line — but that's not the way life is.

Jesus, you just don't get it."

Or is it the rich young man who doesn't get it? Listen carefully to what Jesus says in today's Gospel: Jesus doesn't condemn wealth and possessions as evil in themselves — what is evil is when the pursuit of wealth and riches displaces God as the center of our lives, when material wealth becomes the focus of our existence, when what we own owns us. Given the choice between the life of God and the life of materialism, the young man opts for the latter. May we possess the faith to center our lives on the things of God, to embrace the "wisdom and prudence" (Reading 1) to realize that the things we have are not an end in themselves but the means for living lives of meaning and purpose and re-creating our world in the justice and peace of God.
