Spiritual Communion

For all who cannot attend Mass, here is an act of Spiritual Communion:

"My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Eucharist. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and I unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen."

O Sacrament most holy, O Sacrament divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment thine. (3 times)

-St. Alphonsus, modified

Spotlight on a Saint

Saint Isidore of Seville

St. Isidore was born in Cartagena, Spain, circa 560 to Severianus and Theodora. They belonged to notable Hispano Roman families of high social rank. The Catholic Church celebrates Isidore and all his siblings as saints: an elder brother, Leander of Seville, a younger brother, Fulgentius of Cartagena, and his sister, Florentina of Cartagena, was a nun who allegedly ruled over forty convents and one thousand consecrated religious.

St. Isidore was educated by his older brother, Leander, who was Archbishop of Seville. After Leander's death in 601, St. Isidore succeeded his brother as Archbishop. St. Isidore fought against Arianism. Arianism is a heresy that claims that Jesus Christ was not divine. St. Isidore succeeded in uniting Spain with the Second Synod of Seville, arguing for the divinity of Jesus Christ.

St. Isidore was a very studious individual and undertook compiling the knowledge of the world into an encyclopedia. He was the first Christian to do so, as previous such works were Greek or Roman. St. Isidore wrote many other books, including a history of the world! He completed the Mozarabic liturgy, which is still in use in Toledo, Spain.

St. Isidore died April 4, 636 in Seville. His feast day is April 4. He is the patron saint of computers and the internet.

From the Desk of Fr. Grant

Dear Parishioners and Friends of Saint Peter Catholic Church,

Happy Easter! May the Resurrection of Christ on that first Easter fill you with joy and peace today, and for at least the next 50 days, as we celebrate Christ's triumph over evil, sin and death. Through the ultimate act of love and sacrifice, our Lord gave his body and blood in reparation for our sins and opened the gates of heaven to us. May we rejoice with all the saints, angels, and members of the Catholic Church because the apostles found the tomb empty because Our Savior had risen from the dead, truly he has risen! Alleluia!

I truly pray this is a blessed Easter for you and your family, as we all are able to celebrate the hope and joy we have in Jesus Christ. After the 40 days of Lent in which we fasted, abstained from meat, and adopted on a Lenten penance or two, we now enter a time of celebration, rejoicing, and hosting a feast with those who are able to celebrate with us. In the midst of our Easter celebration may we continue to offer up prayers of gratitude for the many blessings we have received from the Lord, especially for the gift of His infinite love for us as demonstrated through his crucifixion and rising from the dead for our salvation.

Thank you to all who generously donated towards the purchase of our Easter flowers and our paschal candle this year. The flowers brought glory to God and brought beauty to our Easter celebration, which is truly right and just for our worship during this sacred time of the year.

May the Lord continue to guide and protect you during the first week of Easter, and please let the parish know if you need anything from us as you continue to grow in your relationship with the Lord. Please know of my prayers for each one of you at every celebration of the Mass, especially during the Easter season here at Saint Peter Catholic Church.

Peace,

Fr. Grant

A blessed and joyful Easter to all of our St. Peter Parish family from your staff:
