18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But God said to him, ‘You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?’ Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.”
- Lk 12:20-21

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 31, 2022
18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What makes us feel secure? Many people look to tangible forms of security that will safeguard their livelihood and prepare for their future. We tend to associate security with things: the accumulation of goods and possessions, retirement funds, savings accounts, and substantial incomes. While acquiring these promises a life with less anxiety and worry, we actually find ourselves more preoccupied and consumed with their growth and preservation. We worry more! We can easily become quasi-hoarders, consumed with obtaining more tangible crutches. Our minds and hearts are always restless, and we never seem to be at peace.

Why do we so easily give our self-worth, value, and sense of security over to things? God certainly does not deny us the pursuit of a productive and enjoyable life but where do we draw the line? A sense of well-being and happiness can easily get deferred to sometime “in the future” while we continue to wrestle with the toils of today. There is no guarantee that there will be an earthly tomorrow and all of the frenzy we bring to securing our state in life will be for naught. When we are called from this world, will we even know where to begin to look for the tranquility and repose our souls so desperately need?

We cannot be hoarders, pursuers of vanity, or greedy. They just don't work as they are too dependent on things that can fall apart. Rather than always feeling the need for more, we need to learn how to be grateful for what we have. By learning to look inward we can learn how to live lives of faithful service to others. “Happiness can only be achieved by looking inward and learning to enjoy whatever life has, and this requires transforming greed into gratitude (St. John Chrysostom).” We all need to be good stewards of what has been entrusted to our care. Grateful hearts recognize the true source of what we have and realize that our true treasure lies not in what matters to us but to God.

RCIA Announcement

Have you been thinking about joining the Catholic Church? Are you a baptized Catholic but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation? Would you like to know more about Catholicism but you're not sure where to start? If you answered “yes” to any of these questions then maybe RCIA is for you.

RCIA (the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process for those interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and considering membership in the Catholic Church. Classes will be held Sunday mornings in the rectory classroom of St. John's from 9am—10am, starting August 21st.

Please contact Laura Stout at 260-466-1976 or email her at Laura.Stout05@gmail.com to register.

Religious Education @ ICCE

Religious Education classes will begin Sunday, September 18th after the 8:30am Mass and end at 10:30am. Classes are offered for preschool (age 4 by end of December) thru High School. Please fill out an enrollment form if your child is new to our program or you have a change of address/phone number from last year. Enrollment forms are on the bulletin board.

Contact Judy Egolf, DRE, at 260-705-4577 or judylegolf@yahoo.com if you have any questions.

Religious Education @ SJB

This year we will be registering for Religious Education online. All students will need to register. You can find the link at the bottom of the church website's home page or use the QR code to access the form. Registration deadline is August 15.

WE ARE NEEDING TEACHERS FOR GRADES 3 AND 5.

If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Jill Brososky at 260-466-3442.
