THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME • JANUARY 22, 2023

From Father's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Saints Andrew and John "Beheld" Jesus at the Jordan River and by spending time with Him where He was staying that day. In today's Gospel, we see them get out of their boats with their brothers to follow Jesus, to continue beholding Him, watching His ministry, and participating in it.

Beholding Jesus and following Him is called discipleship. Taking in His Presence, teachings, and ways. Pope Francis coined the phrase "missionary discipleship," which rightly captures today's Gospel. We take in Jesus and we participate in the spreading of His Kingdom as we go out into our day.

Beholding the Lamb-

Frequent attendance at Mass through the week, Eucharistic Adoration, making visits before the tabernacle.

Following Jesus everywhere- learning all the dimensions of our faith through discipleship friendships, reading the catechism and other good Catholic books and content, looking for Him in all beautiful, true, and good things.

Participating in Jesus' ministry- sharing the joy of Christ that we have found through developing relationships in His love, truth, joy, and power.

Let us Behold the Lamb as a Eucharistic Community, follow Him throughout the week, and share Him with joy.

Peace and Joy,
Fr. Drew
