31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"As for you, do not be called 'Rabbi.' You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called 'Master'; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant." - Mt 23:8-11

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME • NOVEMBER 5, 2023

From Father Drew

Dear Brother and Sisters in Christ,

“Rabbi” means: “Teacher” or “Master.”

Let’s take a moment this week to think about the different major influences we have had in our lives. We are formed in so many ways, consciously and unconsciously.

Today, may we invite Jesus, who is alive in His Church, to be our main Teacher and Master. It is not so much that we need to master the faith as much as we need to allow Jesus to master us and mold us by His wisdom and love into “another Christ.”

May Jesus Christ and His teaching be our main principle that we live by and by which we purify the thought world in and around us.

May people see in us people who know the teachings of Christ and have been shaped by them to live in His power and love, a love and power that the world does not know.

Peace and Joy,
Fr. Drew
