Looking to Easter and Beyond

Lent is a very important season. It is important that each year we take a more intentional effort at examining our spiritual life. However, the challenges or penitential practices of Lent are not meant just to do something hard; they are meant to prepare us for what lies ahead.

Interestingly enough, we can lose sight of the big picture. Most people correctly group Lent and Easter together, as Easter happens right after the end of Lent. Sometimes we celebrate briefly, “Jesus is risen! Praise God! Jesus has conquered death!” Then, we have our Easter celebrations—we gather together, maybe hunt some Easter eggs, and finally eat some sweets and desserts that we gave up for Lent. Once the weekend or the Easter Octave is over, we go back to normal life. However, even Easter is not the final goal. Yes, Jesus conquered death and showed his love for us in an extraordinary way, but Jesus did not die only to show us an example of love or his power over death. Jesus became man, walked among us, suffered, died, rose from the dead, and ascended into heaven so he could give us his very Spirit, the Holy Spirit. The deeper fulfillment of everything Jesus does actually happens on Pentecost. Jesus wanted us to be filled with his very Life, the Love between the Father and Son. When we have the Holy Spirit we can experience true love, joy, and peace. We become temples of God. God’s love is not something we have to muster up, but it is actually a gift; the Holy Spirit is the love of God poured into our hearts.

You might be thinking, “This all sounds great, but I think I am covered. I have been baptized, received Communion, and been confirmed. I have the Holy Spirit.” However, if we look around, we don’t always see those who have received their sacraments living like the early disciples did after they received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. We have received the Holy Spirit in the sacraments, but we have to stir up the gift we have received. The common analogy you may have heard is chocolate syrup being poured into milk. You have to stir the syrup in order for it to become chocolate milk. Many people have received the sacraments, but never “stirred up” the Holy Spirit.

How do we stir up the Holy Spirit that lives inside of us? That is the key question. Whenever we make more of an effort to pray, engage our faith, and share our faith, we are stirring up the Holy Spirit within us. However, many of us do try to pray, be engaged in our faith, and share our faith, but our experience is still far different from the early apostles and disciples and saints of history. The early Church exploded with new converts and believers, yet in our time we see our numbers dwindling slowly with each coming year. What is the answer to renewal in the Church? The answer to renewal in the beginning is the same answer now—more of the Holy Spirit.

One of the most powerful ways to stir up the Holy Spirit in our lives is by attending some form of a Life in the Spirit Seminar. The Life in the Spirit Seminar is not a silver bullet to fix all the problems in the Church, but it does provide an opportunity to learn more about the Holy Spirit, gather together with other believers, and provide an opportunity to pray for a deeper Baptism in the Holy Spirit. We can receive more of the Spirit anywhere, but the principal way we receive more is by coming together in faith and vulnerability, praying for more of the Holy Spirit. I think the single most important thing we can do to bring life and renewal to the Church is for all of us to be baptized in the Spirit. Baptism in the Spirit is not a new sacrament. It is a deeper outpouring of the Holy Spirit and a stirring up of the Spirit we have already received in the sacraments. I cannot fathom where I would be as a believer (and priest!) without the grace of Baptism in the Spirit. I encourage you to attend our upcoming Life in the Spirit seminar starting Thursday, April 21st at 7pm. More info is here in the bulletin! There is also the Upper Cenacle Prayer Group which meets a couple Tuesdays a month as well!

ALL ARE WELCOME!

"he suffered death and was buried,"

Nihilism is defined by Merriam Webster as "a viewpoint that traditional values and beliefs are unfounded and that existence is senseless and useless." For a nihilist, the majority, if not all, of this life lacks real purpose. One of the primary reasons people try to hold this worldview is the reality of death. Someone could ask, "What is the point of growing in virtue, building a civilized world, or even being good, if at any point I could die and lose it all?" Questions like these, if unanswered, can drive people mad and lead them to see the world through the lens of nihilism.

This threatening worldview should not enter into the experience of a Christian. For many believers, however, different forms of it find hold in their hearts and minds. Why is this? There are many reasons, to be sure, but one is that it can be a temptation to lose sight of what Jesus did on earth, and the significance of his death. Not only do we lose sight intellectually of what Jesus did for us, and the meaning of his life and death, but in small ways we cease to live as though his death had meaning for us.

St. Athanasius, an early Father of the Church, wrote of Christ's defeat of death, and the hope it brings to the Christian. He states, "For of old, before the divine sojourn of the Saviour took place, even to the saints death was terrible, and all wept for the dead as though they perished. But now that the Saviour has raised His body, death is no longer terrible; for all who believe in Christ tread [death] under as nought, and choose rather to die than to deny their faith in Christ. For they verily know that when they die they are not destroyed, but actually [begin to] live, and become incorruptible through the Resurrection" (On the Incarnation 27.2).

Death will not separate us from the love of Christ (Romans 8). By his death, Jesus has redeemed the world. For this reason, we proudly profess faith in his death, and unite every suffering, or seemingly meaningless part of our lives, to his death, firmly believing that he will raise us up on the last day. He will turn our sorrow to joy.

Passion Narratives in the Gospel of Luke Thursday April 7th from 7-8:00pm Enrichment Center at Our Lady of Lourdes

As we journey into Lent, join Fr. Friedel for a three-part presentation and discussion on St. Luke's account of Jesus' Passion and Death. It will be a wonderful opportunity to aid your prayer as we enter into the Church's celebration of Passiontide and Holy Week! All are welcome -- bring your Bible and a friend.

On Saturday, April 9th at 6:30pm, we are hosting another healing service. Such an important part of Jesus' ministry was healing the sick. We often pray for healing privately or at a distance for someone, but there is a power when we gather together and pray for healing.

The Night of Healing is a healing service that provides a much more powerful and intentional way to pray for healing. Prayer for healing will be prayed for in a large group, and there will also be an opportunity for prayer teams to pray over anyone wanting prayer for healing. If you or anyone needs prayers for healing, please feel free to come. There is no official end time, as prayer teams will stay as long as needed for individuals to receive prayer.

Any questions can be emailed to Fr. Michael Trummer: mtrummer@dio.org

OLOL Book Club - A new book club is being formed. We will start with the book "Imitation of Mary" by Kempis. Please bring it to our first meeting. In the future, we may do a fiction book. Please bring a list of any Catholic books you really enjoy.

Any questions, call Laura at 217-521-7948.

Our first meeting will last for one hour (we'll try). First meeting will just be a get acquainted meeting with refreshments.

This Easter Season, Fr. Trummer is hosting a Life in the Spirit Seminar, which focuses on deepening our relationship with the Holy Spirit. The seminar will talk about the essential truths of God's love, discipleship, and charisms and gifts of the Holy Spirit. If you want your faith reignited, and to experience the more God has to offer, then come to the Life in the Spirit Seminar. It will take place in the Enrichment Center at

Our Lady of Lourdes from 7-8pm. There will be optional time for continued socializing and discussion after 8pm. The seminar will be hosted on the following Thursdays: 4/21, 4/28, 5/5, (no meeting on 5/12), 5/19, 5/26, and 6/2. 5th Sunday of Lent

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another?

Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love.

When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational.

The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy.

There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow.

Lord, please grant eternal rest to the soul of GERONIMO MAGLAYA, father to Mireille Luces.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE NEWS

Flowing from the teaching of the Catholic Church

Last week I wrote about Melissa Lucio of Texas who is scheduled to be executed on April 27, 2022 for a crime she did not commit. She was convicted and sentenced to be executed for killing her two year old daughter who accidentally fell down steps in her home and died. That means that all who are working to stop her execution have only 30 days to share Melissa's story, take action, and push Gov. Greg Abbott and the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles to stop her execution. The Death Penalty Action members have been in Texas for weeks protesting the execution and promoting Melissa Lucio's innocence.

Melissa Lucio was convicted of murder in 2008 for the death of her 2 yr. old daughter, Mariah, which she and her family claim was instead a tragic accident. Her defense team has filed motions to withdraw Melissa's execution date based on claims of innocence as well as other grounds, including the prosecution's use of a false confession made the night her daughter died. After hours of maintaining her innocence in the face of aggressive and leading questioning, she finally acquiesced and said, "I'm responsible for it." Her statement was said to have been made under duress. The state prosecutors provided no physical evidence, eyewitnesses or prior history of violence. The Child Protective Services records show that Melissa was not violent, but struggling to provide for her children.

What can we do? Pray for justice for Melissa that her execution be withdrawn; watch the documentary - "The State of Texas vs. Melissa" on Hulu or go to the "Death Penalty Action" website to view it and sign the petition there to stop Melissa Lucio's execution. Thank you for taking action.

Inspiration of the Week

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

Interested parties should send a cover letter and resume with the application to Fr. Michael Friedel at mfriedel@dio.org.
