Happy Easter!

A happy and joyous Easter to all of you! Alleluia! (Man, it's good to say that again!)

I want to offer my many thanks to all who have made our celebrations so beautiful during this Holy Week and Easter. The choirs, musicians, those who helped with decorating the Church, and all who volunteered for the various liturgical responsibilities—it takes a village, as they say, and it always fills my heart with joy to see the participation of so many in the life of discipleship in our parishes.

I want to share with you another beautiful and ancient homily that the Church meditates on during Holy Saturday. It speaks of dramatic silence and stillness that overcomes the earth at the death of the Savior, and then the hope that breaks forth in the moment of the Resurrection. I look forward to praying it every Holy Saturday, so I hope it aids your prayer as well during this Easter Season! ALLELUIA!

Something strange is happening—there is a great silence on earth today, a great silence and stillness. The whole earth keeps silence because the King is asleep. The earth trembled and is still because God has fallen asleep in the flesh and he has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began. God has died in the flesh and hell trembles with fear.

He has gone to search for our first parent, as for a lost sheep. Greatly desiring to visit those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, he has gone to free from sorrow the captives Adam and Eve, he who is both God and the son of Eve. The Lord approached them bearing the cross, the weapon that had won him the victory. At the sight of him Adam, the first man he had created, struck his breast in terror and cried out to everyone: "My Lord be with you all." Christ answered him: "And with your spirit." He took him by the hand and raised him up, saying: "Awake, O sleeper, and rise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

I am your God, who for your sake have become your son. Out of love for you and for your descendants I now by my own authority command all who are held in bondage to come forth, all who are in darkness to be enlightened, all who are sleeping to arise. I order you, O sleeper, to awake. I did not create you to be held a prisoner in hell. Rise from the dead, for I am the life of the dead. Rise up, work of my hands, you who were created in my image. Rise, let us leave this place, for you are in me and I am in you; together we form only one person and we cannot be separated.

For your sake I, your God, became your son; I, the Lord, took the form of a slave; I, whose home is above the heavens, descended to the earth and beneath the earth. For your sake, for the sake of man, I became like a man without help, free among the dead. For the sake of you, who left a garden, I was betrayed to the Jews in a garden, and I was crucified in a garden.

See on my face the spittle I received in order to restore to you the life I once breathed into you. See there the marks of the blows I received in order to refashion your warped nature in my image. On my back see the marks of the scourging I endured to remove the burden of sin that weighs upon your back. See my hands, nailed firmly to a tree, for you who once wickedly stretched out your hand to a tree.

I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side for you who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side has healed the pain in yours. My sleep will rouse you from your sleep in hell. The sword that pierced me has sheathed the sword that was turned against you.

Rise, let us leave this place. The enemy led you out of the earthly paradise. I will not restore you to that paradise, but I will enthrone you in heaven. I forbade you the tree that was only a symbol of life, but see, I who am life itself am now one with you. I appointed cherubim to guard you as slaves are guarded, but now I make them worship you as God. The throne formed by cherubim awaits you, its bearers swift and eager. The bridal chamber is adorned, the banquet is ready, the eternal dwelling places are prepared, the treasure houses of all good things lie open. The kingdom of heaven has been prepared for you from all eternity.

Keep spreading joy!

Fr. Friedel

“and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.”

Adam and Eve were created in a perfect relationship of life with God. Death came into the world, however, through their disobedience. Sin, death, and suffering were some of the consequences of their rejection of the plan of God for their lives, and this deprivation of life has been passed on to every one of their descendants down through the ages. At some point or other, everyone would die. This seems like a hopeless situation, but Jesus shines hope into the darkness of death.

What began through the sin of Adam is defeated by the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. He is revealed most powerfully as God by his resurrection because only God could escape death. St. Paul uses the words of the prophet Hosea, foretelling this victory over death:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.
O death, where is thy victory?
O death, where is thy sting?”

Thus, we see that the scriptures foretold that death would be destroyed. It was not clear how this would happen, but Jesus perfectly fulfills this prophecy. In many paintings of the resurrection, we see Christ depicted with a victory banner. This portrays him as a warrior, and rightly so. He has fought the battle for our redemption and for our eternal life. Death no longer has the victory; all those who die in Christ will rise with Christ. And like the winter is forgotten once summer comes, Jesus has left death behind never to return.

There can be no more joyful news than this. There can be no more energizing news than this. There cannot be a more powerful and convicting message than this. Jesus rose from the dead and now offers us a promise of rising with him. This was the proclamation of the first Christians and it remains ours today. He is risen! He is risen indeed! Happy Easter!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A trait of home mission dioceses is that many have a small Catholic population dispersed over a vast territory. The Melkite Eparchy of Newton, with about 35,000 members, covers the entire United States. Melkite Catholics are members of one of the Eastern Catholic Churches, with their own cultural and liturgical traditions in full communion with the Holy Father and Catholics from the Latin Rite. The nationwide reach of the eparchy means that its parishes and administrative offices are found in locations all around the country. Communications through the internet and the diocesan quarterly magazine are crucial ministries that keep members in touch with each other and their bishop despite the challenge of geographic distance.

With generous support from Catholic Home Missions, the eparchy's Sophia Press distributes its quarterly magazine to 12,000 members. It publishes liturgical books that the faithful need to participate fully in the liturgy. The eparchy's Office of Communication also maintains the eparchy's website and conducts the Annual Bishop's Appeal. When you contribute to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, you provide a lifeline that allows members of mission dioceses to remain in contact with each other, even if they live across the country.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please be generous to this appeal through the collection offertory envelope or your parish's e-offertory platform. #iGiveCatholicTogether (<https://usccb.igivecatholictogether.org/organizations/usccb-catholic-home-missions>) also accepts funds for the collection. To learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it, visit www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

There are many stones in our paths that keep us from truly living and being free. Some of these boulders have been there for a very long time. They have been there so long that they have even settled into the soil of our lives with other weeds, vines, and compacted soil keeping them firmly in place. We find them hard to move and trying to do so can be exhausting. What are these suffocating albatrosses that keep us so tethered and immobile? They are many things.

They are past childhood wounds and hurts that stem from disappointment, rejection, or abuse. People may have told us we were unwanted, that the world is frightening, that there are only some acceptable feelings you can have and others you cannot. We may have tried to love someone or struggled to figure out how and were met with rejection. Maybe we trusted someone completely and were betrayed. We come to life collecting barnacles that begin to attach to other barnacles and before you know it, we have a mass of solid matter blocking our vision and keeping us from moving. We live in fear. We are afraid of losing what we have, afraid that the future will be empty, afraid that we won't succeed and even more afraid that we will not be loved. There is so much fear. Didn't Jesus tell us not to worry and to not be afraid? Either we believe in the message of Easter, or we don't!

Go confidently into the night. Walking with God you will find the light and strength you need. Often without even knowing, God will move those boulders and stumbling blocks that bind us and, with putting one foot in front of the other and looking forward, we will move. The resurrection of Christ is really all about receiving the gifts of trust and faith and doing new things. The rocks that bind us keep us spinning the same wheels and doing the same things. When was the last time you threw caution to the wind and actually did something totally out of character and different? This is where we find God, in the spontaneous, the adventurous, the fun, and the creative choices we make! God is not boring and stuck. God is exciting and engaging. Jesus Christ is risen from the dead! Find a way to trust that this is true and live.

Lord, please grant eternal rest to the soul of DEBRA OLEKSY, mother of Amy Dent and TONI SKELLEy, sister of Martha McNamara.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE NEWS

Flowing from the teaching of the Catholic Church

We wish you Easter Blessings! "Just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life." (Romans 6: 4). Let us rejoice and be glad, Jesus is alive and with us! As we celebrate Easter, let's extend our celebration to Earth Day which is April 22. Let's pray Pope Francis's "A Prayer for Our Earth" during this Easter season and include the People and Nation of the Ukraine:

All powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love that we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with peace, that we may live as sisters and brothers, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives that we may protect the world and not prey on it that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction. Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth. Teach us to discover the worth of each person and thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature.

As we journey toward your infinite light, we thank you for being with us each day. Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for JUSTICE, LOVE AND PEACE.

Inspiration of the Week

Alleluia, Christ is risen! What a glorious and holy day. The resurrection of Christ speaks of freedom, new life, restored faith and enduring, unconditional love. The huge stone, separating death and life, has been moved, allowing God's radiant power to usher in eternal life. When we see the truth of Christ's resurrection through eyes of love, we see the fullness of timeless beauty, truth, and wonder revealed. The emptiness of the tomb is filled with the eternity of love. We have many stones and boulders blocking the path to freedom, love, and joy. They are often too big for us to move, and they cripple us. We can take a leap of faith today and believe with all our heart, mind, and soul that there is much more than can be seen by the naked eye. There is something very holy, sacred, and eternal stirring within us. We want to live forever! Christ's resurrection brings us joy and allows us to see ourselves as we are meant to be seen, as God's children destined for glory!

Interested parties should send a cover letter and resume with the application to Fr. Michael Friedel at mfriedel@dio.org.
