Gospel Reflections... What is the kingdom of heaven?

Jesus does not bother to explain it. He states it from the beginning of his Gospel: "The kingdom of heaven is near"; He is also close to us today, hey, but he never makes him see directly, but always by reflection, narrating the actions of an owner, a king, ten virgins ... He prefers to let him intuit, with parables and similarities, manifesting above all the effects: the kingdom of heaven is capable of changing the world, like the leaven hidden in the dough; it is small and humble like a mustard seed, which nevertheless will become as big as a tree. The two parables on which we want to reflect make us understand that the kingdom of God is present in the person of Jesus himself. He is the hidden treasure and the pearl of great value. The joy of the peasant and the merchant is understood: they have found it! It is the joy of each of us when we discover the closeness and presence of Jesus in our lives. A presence that transforms the existence and opens us to the demands of the brothers; a presence that invites us to welcome all other presence, also that of the foreigner and the immigrant. It is a welcoming, joyful, fruitful presence, this is the kingdom of God within us. From: Catholic.net
