Gospel Reflections...

Thanksgiving for Christ the King

With Christ we are gifted with love, mercy and even holy order which chase away the hate, hurt and chaos that otherwise affects us.

At this time of the year we review all that Christ did through us over the past year. As tri-parishes we ministered to hurting people and proclaimed the good news to hundreds.

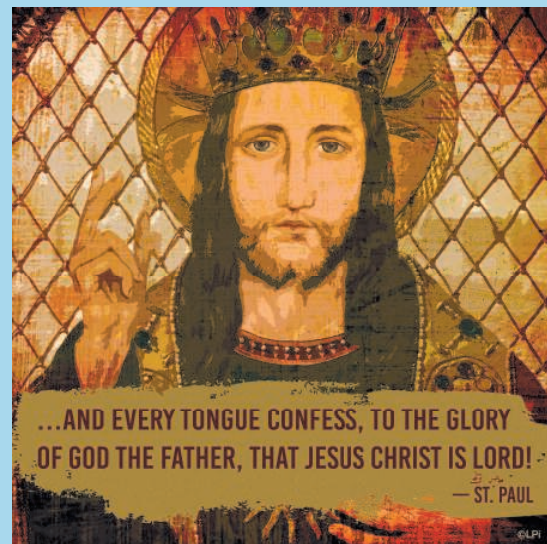

Beyond this mission, our main accomplishment as a church at the tri-parishes is joining in a call for justice regarding human trafficking. With other people of good will, our parishes have hosted planning meetings, and a major presentation with hundreds present. This has kept our local, state and federal leaders focused on our communities to rid them of lawlessness which especially harms the vulnerable.

God called us to add to our numerous groups for service, prayer, and study an additional effort to work with St. Katharine parish to build up adoration prayer. Over 500 people participated in the last 24 hour devotion! Another is being planned for December 11 and 12.

Our pastoral council with the encouragement of myself is bravely entering into a year or two of planning. You will soon see a survey of your joy, fears and hopes for your church so that we can have a plan that all will feel called to and will guide us in the years ahead.

With Christ as the center of our meetings, to the best of our abilities, He will continue guiding and feeding us into a life-giving direction.

Fr. Michael Erwin
