Gospel Reflections... The Meaning of Easter

Easter is the greatest mystery of our faith. Christ has risen and His Resurrection killed Death. St. Augustine tells us: "Through His Passion, Christ passed from death to life, Passover is the Lord's passage."

Now in Easter, we have left behind the days of Passion and Death. We will continue to venerate the cross that was the means that made us cross to the shore of eternal life. Without a cross, that shore, cannot be reached.

Can we say that our Passover has been "inward," that we have felt that the Lord has passed and left some trace of His resurrection in our life? Jesus performs Easter. Jesus passes to the Father. Do we, also, pass to the Father?

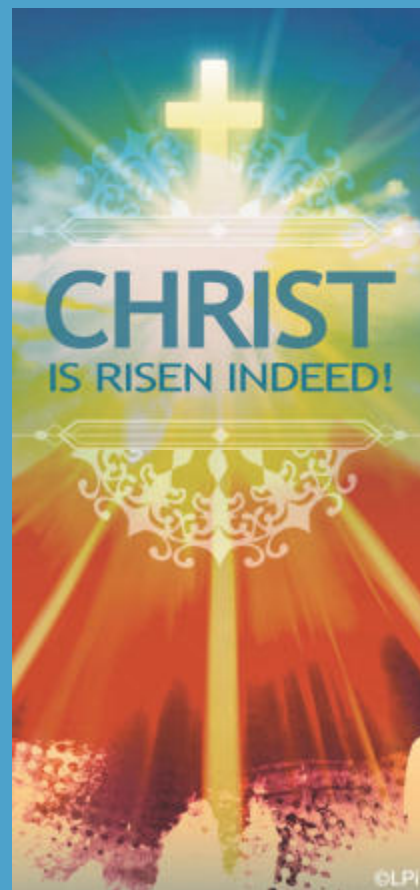

God is Omnipotent and can do everything, but He cannot force us to have a repentant heart. He leaves us free to love Him or to offend Him, to want to be united to Him or to forget Him. That freedom is so treacherous, because it means He can give us or take away the right to our own glorious resurrection based on what is in our hearts. To regain our own resurrection, we say so and believe in the Creed - I believe in the resurrection of the dead.

Christ rose again and the apostles, one by one, gave their lives for this dazzling TRUTH. Peter ate and drank with Jesus after his Resurrection, Thomas put his fingers in the wounds of the risen Christ, and Paul reminds us that if we have risen with Christ through Baptism, we must live the new life awaiting his return and we have the commitment to carry the word of God throughout the world.

What we have experienced days of Lent cannot happen without leaving us something, without leaving a mark on the soul, now that we continue the path of our usual business.

Construction Update from St. Katharine Drexel Church:

From 4/29 until completion all liturgies will be in the parish center mission hall. Parishioners are being encouraged to consider Tri Parishes as an alternative location.

If you see someone new, please welcome them to our Tri Parishes.!

Pastoral Care is part of the mission and ministry of the church. The ministry of our pastoral care team is to bring the Eucharist to any parishioner who requests it because he/she is unable to attend Mass. Besides bringing the Eucharist, they bring the message that the homebound person is still considered part of the parish community and that the rest of the community is one with them. Due to the large area covered by the boundaries of St. Katharine Drexel and the Tri-parishes, and the total number of parishioners, it is extremely difficult for the priests to visit all the people who are ill or otherwise confined to home on a regular basis. The pastoral care team ministers to assisted living facilities, nursing homes, hospitals, and to the homebound and sick, conducting weekly prayer services, communion services, and in-room visits. In addition, there are homebound parishioners who receive communion and a visit from our pastoral care team ministers. Our parish also offers spiritual direction to those desiring a sacred conversation or to deepen their personal relationship with God. If you or a loved one needs emergency pastoral care or anointing of the sick, please contact Father Mike directly at 262.206.6987. If you'd like to make a non-urgent request for pastoral care, contact the Tri Parishes Office (920) 927-3102 or click on the link to complete a request form: <http://www.triparishwi.com/Sac>
