Gospel Reflections... Prayer after Communion

Lord Jesus, you are the Bread of Life.
I believe you are who you say you are,
and I trust you to feed and satisfy me for eternity
with the riches of salvation.

Only you, my Lord, can give me the bread
that satisfies the hunger of my heart.

Fill me this day, Lord,
with the taste of your endless abundance.

Transform my life through your Word,
and through your Body and Blood,
and let me recognize your presence in my brothers and sisters.

Jesus, you are my bread of eternal life
and my cup of salvation;
you bring healing and forgiveness
because you cleanse and take away my sin.
You grace me with strength and courage
as I continue on my daily journey to the heavenly Kingdom.

Remove from my life every burden
and destroy every thing
that keeps me from following You.

And now, while I celebrate the sacrament of your Love,
I receive your blessing.
I receive your cleansing.
I receive your healing.

Help me to reach out to my brothers and sisters
with compassion and love.

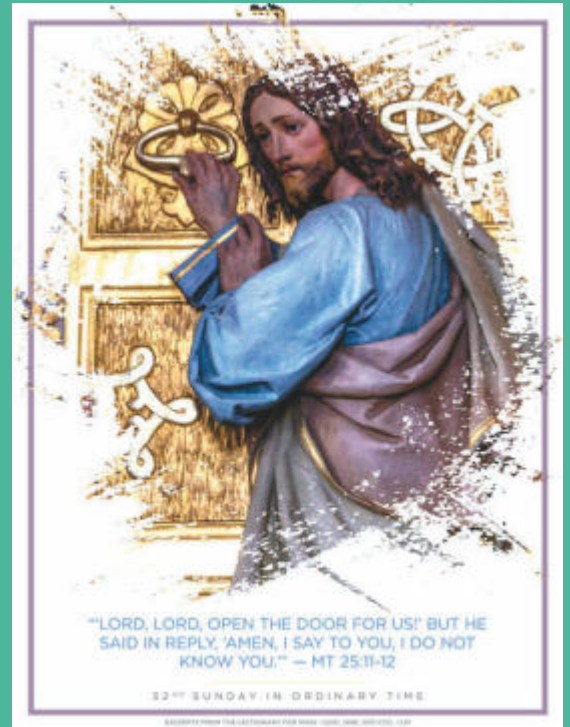

Thank you, Lord, for everything.

Bless me, bless my family and bless my brothers and sisters in faith.

Thank you for this gift, the sacrament of the Eucharist.

I praise you and thank you for your love. Amen.
