4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[He said to them], "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" - Lk 4:21-22

Gospel Reflections...

Dear friends,

This time I want to remind you that on the third Sunday of ordinary time, (this year on January 23), the Church celebrates the Sunday of the Word of God. Pope Francis instituted this Day on September 30, 2019, in order to dedicate a Sunday completely to the Word of God.

On the Sunday dedicated to the reflection and celebration of the Word of God, Pope Francis underlines its value: alive and effective, it enlightens, comforts and orders our daily activities. But it is also a beacon that guides the synodal path begun in the Church.

The Pontiff proposes this Sunday dedicated to the celebration, reflection and dissemination of the Word of God:

To understand the richness that comes from that constant dialogue between God and his people.

For the Church to revive the gesture of the Risen One who also opens for us the treasure of his Word so that we can announce this inexhaustible richness throughout the world.

So that the decisive relationship with the living Word that the Lord never tires of directing to his Bride will never be lacking, so that he can grow in love and in the testimony of faith.

In addition, the celebration has been made to coincide with the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. A time “in which we are invited to strengthen the bonds of friendship with the Jews and to pray for the unity of Christians. It is not a mere coincidence of time: celebrating the Sunday of the Word of God expresses an ecumenical value, because Sacred Scripture indicates to those who are listening the path to follow to reach an authentic and solid unity».

Let us welcome Pope Francis' invitation to read a page of the Gospel every day and with time we will realize that those words are made for us, for our lives. They will help us to welcome each day with a better, more serene look, because when the Gospel enters our life, it fills it with God.

Fr. Orildo
