THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

WITH HEARTFELT
SYMPATHY

Please remember in prayer Paul Schneider who passed away recently. Please also hold in prayer Marlene (Paul's wife) and all of Paul's family during this difficult time.

Giving FIVE More as Missionary Disciples

Here at St. Matthew we started a process in December 2015 called FIVE More. It is an invitation to follow the Lord intentionally as missionary disciples; it's a process, a journey, that each of us is on. To do so will require discipline on our part. It is that discipline we call FIVE More in our parish.

Over the past five years our parish has distributed copies of books by Matthew Kelly as a tool to energize and evangelize parishioners. The common theme of these books is how to become a more active and dynamic catholic. From Matthew Kelly's book, The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic, the four themes of being an active, dynamic catholic are: praying, studying, giving generously, and evangelizing.

If each one of us as a family, couple and individual can give FIVE More of themselves to be an active, dynamic catholic then we can all make a difference in our parish and within the community.

YOUTH MINISTRY - SUMMER SERVICE WEEK

Summer service trips have long been a tradition at St. Matthew. Since the year 2000 St. Matt's has been participating in a summer service trip with our parish teens through the organization Young Neighbors in Action.

This year's version of our summer service opportunity will be local and parish based. We'll be teaming up with local service agencies for the volunteer opportunities, and do some prayer and reflection on the faith-based reasons behind serving our brothers and sisters.

Our summer service week will be held August 2 - 6.

Our service camp will be a Monday - Friday experience. Each day we'll gather at 8 am for prayer and team building before heading out to serve. We'll plan to put in a full work day, and at the end of the day we'll do some reflection on the experiences we've had and how our faith speaks to what we have been doing. Plan to be done by 5 pm most days.

While we are still working on the details, the service camp experience would be a day-time experience; though we may add an evening session onto one of the days.

Since the experience would be based out of St. Matt's it should allow a greater degree of flexibility for those with jobs and other summer commitments.

Our service week will include both middle school and high school students. Depending on numbers, the middle and high school groups would be involved in separate service experiences.

Please contact the parish office for a registration form.

ST. JOHN'S

The St. John's Model is simple.

Regardless of where you have come from, regardless of the choices you have made, and regardless of what led you to this position, you have dignity and worth. You are loved. We welcome individuals to come right as they are. There's no expectation that someone "clean up" prior to seeking out services. We love them just as they are but then also love them too much to desire that they stay in the position they are in.

All are Welcome

"If you truly want to help the soul of your neighbor, you should approach God first with all your heart. Ask him simply to fill you with charity, the greatest of all virtues; with it you can accomplish what you desire."
— St. Vincent Ferrer
