Today’s gospel passage challenges us to the total commitment to the will of God made by putting God first in our lives. It reminds us to count the cost of being a Christian, because the cost is high. Christian discipleship requires one to renounce both possessions of the earth and possessions of the heart (one’s relationships). Jesus lays out trip wires for true Christian discipleship: 1) renouncing the attachment to family; 2) severing the attachment to possessions; 3) accepting the hard consequences of discipleship which may involve even losing one’s life.

We need to accept the challenge with heroic commitment: Jesus’ challenge of true Christian discipleship can be accepted only if we practice the spirit of detachment and renunciation in our daily lives. Real discipleship demands true commitment to the duties entrusted to us and loving acts of selfless, humble and sacrificial love offered to all God’s children around us. This is possible only if we rely on the power of prayer and the guidance of the Holy Spirit by - daily prayer; devout participation in the Sunday Mass; service in and beyond the parish; and giving time, talents, and resources to the Lord’s work.
