GOSPEL MEDITATION

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please pray for the healing of Beau Norris. For the parishioners of St. Catherine of Genoa Church who are homebound or in nursing homes. And for the intentions of those on our parish prayer chain.

For the repose of the soul of Francisco Beltran

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen

RETURNING TO MASS

We have resumed our usual Mass times with attendance limited to 30% of the church's seating capacity (74 parishioners in our church).

Bishop J. Malloy has recommended that all Mass attendees sign in before entering the church.

Anyone is welcome to come to Mass without a reservation as long as we have not exceeded our seating capacity.

If you would like to register for Mass please call the parish office and leave a voicemail with your name, telephone number, Mass time and date, and the number of attendees. You may also use the link on our website, stcatherinegenoa.org, to register electronically.

Phone and electronic reservations for the coming weekend Masses will end at noon on Thursday.

Volunteers are still needed to usher, greet and sanitize following Mass. Please contact the parish office if you are able to help.

Everyone is invited to come to church regardless of their age. If you or a family member is experiencing symptoms of illness please wait until you have fully recovered before returning to Mass.

Please visit the diocesan website: <https://www.rockforddiocese.org/> to read Bishop David J. Malloy's instructions on returning to public Mass and worship.

FORMED RECOMMENDATIONS

Freedom (PG-13)

Directed by Peter Cousins

Studio: Heritage Films International

Two men separated by 100 years are united in their search for freedom. In 1856 a slave, Samuel Woodward, and his family escape from the Monroe Plantation near Richmond, Virginia. A secret network of ordinary people known as the Underground Railroad guide the family on their journey north to Canada. They are relentlessly pursued by the notorious slave hunter Plimpton. Hunted like a dog and haunted by the unthinkable suffering he and his forbears have endured, Samuel is forced to decide between revenge or freedom. A hundred years earlier in 1748, John Newton, the captain of a slave trader, sails from Africa with a cargo of slaves bound for America. On board is Samuel's great grandfather, whose survival is tied to the fate of Captain Newton. The voyage changes Newton's life forever and he creates a legacy that will inspire Samuel and the lives of millions for generations to come.

A Shorter Summa: The Essential Philosophical Passages of St. Thomas Aquinas Summa Theologica by Peter Kreeft

A shortened version of Kreeft's much larger Summa of the Summa, which in turn was a shortened version of the Summa Theologica. The reason for the double shortening is pretty obvious: the original runs some 4000 pages! The Summa is certainly the greatest, most ambitious, most rational book of theology ever written.

REGRESANDO LA MISA

Hemos reanudado nuestros horarios de misa habituales con una asistencia limitada al 30% de la capacidad de asientos de la iglesia (74 feligreses en nuestra iglesia).

El obispo J. Malloy ha recomendado que todos los asistentes a la misa se registren antes de entrar a la iglesia.

Cualquiera puede venir a misa sin reserva siempre que No hemos excedido nuestra capacidad de asientos. Si desea registrarse para la misa, llame a la oficina de la parroquia y deje un mensaje de voz con su nombre, número de teléfono, hora y fecha de la misa y el número de asistentes. También puede usar el enlace en nuestro sitio web, stcatherinegenoa.org, para registrarse electrónicamente.

Las reservas telefónicas y electrónicas para el próximo fin de semana. Las Misas finalizarán al mediodía del jueves.

Todavía se necesitan voluntarios para acompañar, saludar y desinfectar después de la misa. Comuníquese con la oficina de la parroquia si puede ayudar.

Todos están invitados a venir a la iglesia sin importar su edad. Si usted o un miembro de su familia experimenta síntomas de enfermedad, espere hasta que se haya recuperado completamente antes de regresar a misa.

Visite el sitio web diocesano: <https://www.rockforddiocese.org/> para leer las instrucciones del Obispo David J. Malloy sobre el regreso a la misa pública y la adoración.

13° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Por experiencia sabemos que dar un regalo siempre implica alguien que lo recibe. Dar y recibir está relacionado, están a la par, al dar se extienden los brazos y al recibir el regalo es lo mismo, implica una acción de movimiento. Cuando Jesús es el centro de nuestra vida, el dar y recibir no se queda ahí, tiene por ejemplo, la gracia de Dios no es para uno mismo, hay que darla a los que nos rodean. En este Evangelio existe una regla a seguir para comprender el juego de palabras. Hay palabras claves en el mensaje para obtener la respuesta que nos ayude a perseverar en la vida cristiana. Amar, cargar, vivir, recibir, recompensa, dar, discípulo, agua fresca, por mencionar algunas.

Sin embargo, ¿Qué es lo que te pide Jesús que hagas? ¿Al cumplirlo cuál es la promesa de Jesús? Cargar con su cruz y seguirlo para ser dignos de él. Recibir a Jesús como centro de nuestra vida implica de inmediato recibir a los que nos rodean. Es decir, en otras palabras, conversión radical, dar agua de vida que lleve a vivir mejor. El Papa Francisco nos da una pauta para reflexionar mejor en las lecturas de este domingo. “Es tanto el amor de Dios, es tan feo el pecado, que Él nos salva así, con esta identidad en la Cruz. No se puede entender a Jesucristo Redentor sin la Cruz. ¡No se puede entender! Podemos llegar a pensar que es un gran profeta, hace cosas buenas, es un santo, pero el Cristo Redentor sin la cruz no se puede entender”. (Radio Vaticano | Septiembre 26, 2014).
