Pastor's Corner by Fr. Joe Noonan

The Gospel of Luke recounts an incident when Jesus read from scripture and commented on it during Sabbath worship in the Jewish synagogue. “He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the Sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.” Rolling up the scroll, he handed it back to the attendant and sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, “Today this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” (LK 4:16-21)

Today, many elements of those ancient synagogue services live within the Liturgy of the Word section of our Catholic Mass. When we sing hymns and psalms, listen to Scripture and homilies, and offer our petitions, we worship as Jesus did each Sabbath in the synagogue. He pursued hearing the word of God proclaimed and being taught by Rabbis and then taught it himself. God still speaks to us in the proclamation of scripture. Are we listening?

What hinders our hearing the Word of God? Many things. A closed or distracted heart, mind and soul limits us from hearing God speak to us in scripture. This can happen from being overwhelmed by concerns, fears or other distractions. Try to ignore these for the one hour you are in Mass. Try to set aside distractions and invite the Holy Spirit to inspire you. Allow a word, phrase or teaching to resonate within you from the prayers, scripture readings or homily. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you what this word, phrase or teaching means for you.

Also, serious sin affects our ability to hear God, but this can be remedied through the Sacrament of Penance. The grace from a good confession can help us hear God's voice.

Lastly, try cutting back on technological stimulation that overloads our brains. Our societal addiction to dopamine, a powerful neurotransmitter that controls the brain's pleasure center, makes it hard to sit still and listen. Dopamine is released by flashing movements on backlit electronic screens and by loud music. When the biochemical high of dopamine fades a person craves for more of it. For this reason, kids become addicted to video games. Teens and adults are addicted to their cell phones or laptops or view hours of TV. Try fasting from dopamine during the week by severely limiting cell phone, computer, TV and other visual technology use. This can free your mind and increase your attention span. Spend time playing cards or board games, read printed books or articles, enjoy the outdoors and use your phone to engage in conversations instead of staring at it.

Our ability to focus on our worship can be strengthened. Pray to the Holy Spirit to help you hear God's word. Later, after Mass read the scriptures again from our bulletin or online. Over time, by God's grace, you will develop your openness and reception of the Spirit's inspiration through the Word of God. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, the living word of God can inspire, guide and teach you how to be more like Jesus Christ in your thoughts, motivations, words and actions. Let us remember the purpose of the Liturgy of the Word is to deepen our intimate relationship with Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord and by His grace form us to become more like Him.

“Lord, please bring my loved ones back to the Church.”

Has this been your prayer? You are not alone! One third of the Millennial generation claim no religious affiliation and only 16% identify as Catholic. This is discouraging - but we cannot accept defeat. The salvation of our loved ones is at stake.

Brandon Vogt has been working with Bishop Robert Barron and Word on Fire for years. His new book Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church offers a fresh approach to understanding the “whys” and making faith attractive again.

Matthew Kelly of Dynamic Catholic offers this review: “Everywhere I go I meet parents who are troubled because their children no longer practice the faith. Finally, here is a practical guide to doing something about that. It’s time we took the problem seriously, and Return can help with that.”

St. Damian is offering small groups based on Return. Groups will meet for 6 sessions. Days and times available are:

- Mondays at 9:45AM in Damian A beginning October 18
- Saturdays at 9:45AM in the Faith Formation Room in the School
- Thursdays at 7:00PM virtually using Google Meet

Sign up for a group on our parish website www.stdamianchurch.org or calling Frieda at 708-342-8529.

This information is different than last week’s bulletin; changes were made. Books are available at the Pastoral Center for $7. You do not have to be in a group to buy the book! Return can also be ordered directly from WordonFire.org.

LITURGY OF THE WORD - 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading Is 53:10-11

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.

If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 33: 1, 4-5, 12, 18-19, 20, 22

R. Let your mercy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

Your words, O God, are truth indeed, and all your works are ever faithful; you love justice and right, your compassion fills all creation.

R. Let your mercy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

See how the eye of God is watching, ever guarding all who wait in hope, to deliver them from death and sustain them in time of famine.

R. Let your mercy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

Exult, you just, in the Lord, for praise is the song of the righteous! How happy the people of God, the ones whom God has chosen!

R. Let your mercy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

Our soul is waiting for God, for God is our help and our shield. May your kindness, O God, be upon us who place our hope in you.

Second Reading

Brothers and sisters:

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Alleluia Mk 10:45

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can." Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Gathering Song: Gathered as One

Verse 1

Many faces, the young and old, gathered as one in our God! Throughout hist'ry the story's retold, gathered as one in our God! Like those come before us, we listen and learn. We remember the promise and await your return. So without hesitation a new generation proclaims the salvation of God!

Refrain

Gathered as one in Jesus your Son, lifting our voices in praise, we know and believe and long to receive the bread that is strength for our days, gathered as one!

Verse 2

Many pilgrims, sharing a feast, gathered as one in our God! All are welcome the greatest and least, gathered as one in our God! Like those come before us, we listen and learn. We remember the promise and await your return. So without hesitation a new generation proclaims the salvation of God!

Presentation Song: The Servant Song

Verse 1

Will you let me be your servant,
Let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I may have the grace to
Let you be my servant, too.

Verse 2

We are pilgrims on a journey,
We are trav'lers on the road;
We are here to help each other
Walk the mile and bear the load.

Verse 3

I will hold the Christ-light for you
In the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
Speak the peace you long to hear.

Verse 4

I will weep when you are weeping;
When you laugh I'll laugh with you.
I will share your joy and sorrow
'Til we've seen this journey through.

Verse 5

When we sing to God in heaven
We shall find such harmony,
Born of all we've known together
Of Christ's love and agony.

Verse 6

Will you let me be your servant,
Let me be as Christ to you;
Pray that I may have the grace to
Let you be my servant, too.

Estate Planning?

We don't have to be Bill Gates or Jeff Bezos to think about estate planning. Most of us are ordinary people with a mortgage and maybe some savings and perhaps some stock. We work hard and hope to retire and live out a quiet, happy life.

As the seasons begin to change, it can remind us that change is inevitable. It can be a good time to begin thinking about our own future. Most financial planners and investors believe that everyone should have an estate plan in place. Why? The purpose is to protect what we've worked so hard for and for us to document the legacy we wish to leave behind for our family, our friends, and the charities that are important to us.

There was a woman living in Oak Forest who lived alone and had no family. When she passed on and her estate went into probate because she had no will or estate plan. It was a modest home; but proceeds from the sale of her house was given to the state. Instead, it could have been given to our church, the family of St. Damian.

We just celebrated our 60th anniversary. A handful of people envisioned a future church and began to contribute to its foundation. Perhaps you can include St. Damian in your own future planning. "Every little bit helps", as the saying goes.

You can be a Confident Catholic!

Are you hesitant to share your Catholic faith because you might not have the right answer? Do you feel you don't know enough about your faith? Do you wonder where to look for information you can trust?

St. Damian's parish website has a menu called "Catholic Resources." Here you will find links to trusted books, authors, radio programs, and videos. You can also see how to access Formed.org, and where you can watch and share the series The Chosen.

Use these resources yourself or share them with others. Be bold! Spread the Good News!!

We know connection is paramount to mental health and well-being. These virtual meetings will cover relevant topics and be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month. To register or for information please call Deacon Tom Lambert at tlambert@ourlmc.org.

Hometown Missionaries - Sabrina Swidergal

Tell us about your Mission – what is the focus?

We invite inner-city teens into a relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church, through contact work, discipleship and solidarity with the poor. Teens in the inner-city face a cycle of neglect, violence and broken family life. This destructive environment has dire consequences for them and society. Vagabond Missions intervenes during this time of crisis by inviting them into a relationship with God and others. Through prayer, outreach, and mentorship teens experience hope for their lives and a place to call home. When teens tangibly experience Jesus, lives are transformed.

What life experiences prepared you most for the work you are now doing?

Watching my family and the way they love people has prepared me most for mission. I watched my dad work so closely with St. Vincent de Paul at St. Damian. I watch my mom spiritually lead her peers and high school students. I watch my siblings time and time again tend to their friends in times of need. I watch my grandparents pray unceasingly and give unselfishly to the Church and her needs. My family members were the first people to teach me the love of Christ and how to boldly show it to others.

How has your own relationship with God changed through your service?

By going out to the streets and meeting teens and other people in the community, the Scriptures come to life. When we read about Jesus's ministry, we read that He did not shy from those who were different from Him. He spent time with and showed love to those that were considered outcasts to society. There is no room in a mission like Vagabond, like Christianity really, to overlook those who have been forgotten. I have seen and experienced God through young faces who have seen so much pain and experienced so much hurt, but still desire to know that God loves them and calls them by name. I've had to consistently grow my capacity to love and to trust God as well as others. Through the love that I have experienced from my teens, I have been shown the personal and undivided love the Lord has for me.

What advice would you give parents on how best to pass on the Catholic faith?

Live out the Gospel daily, show love to all your neighbors, believe in the True Presence of the Eucharist, and show that mission starts in your own backyard. What you make a priority in your family's life together will have a lasting impact.

They say service is its own reward. Can you give an example of how that has been true for you?

It is truly a privilege whenever the Lord shows me the fruits of this ministry and it doesn't always happen in big flashy ways. This past Easter we were absolutely thrilled to have three of our teens fully initiated into the Church. One of those teens and another former teen are now first year missionaries with Vagabond Missions. There have been many instances when a car ride to Wendy's offers the opportunity to answer questions about God, mercy, heaven, Saints etc. There are nights when the teens text prayers to our group chat and express just how thankful they are for our mission. It is all of these moments that make this ministry the absolute light of my life and show me the great care God took in placing me here.

What kind of things do you do as a missionary?

As a full time inner-city missionary, I have the "funnest" job in the world! I get to live and pray in a community with my fellow missionaries. I get to plan the most bizarre games, youth nights, and cookouts every week. I get to walk around the neighborhood I serve and invite new people to our programs. I get to be a part of some of the craziest things just because I said "yes" to giving a teen a ride. I get to tell my teens stories about Jesus and the Saints and take them to Mass where they can see it all come together.

What I enjoy most is becoming their family. In all the time we spend together, I've become someone important to them that knows Jesus and can help them know Him better.

The most challenging part of ministry is watching teens come and go. There are teens I see every day, some that I go for months without seeing, and some I never see again. There is both beauty and hardship walking with someone on their faith journey.

St. Damian School News

Fourth grade has been very busy learning about the Civil War in Social Studies. The children are researching the unsung heroes of the Civil War and making trading cards to present to their classmates.

With fall upon us, the fourth grade created beautiful decor to adorn our classroom and hallway.

Prayer is an important element to our day as we pray a decade of the rosary every morning with our special intentions.
