ENTRANCE: # 308 ALL THE EARTH

REFRAIN: All the earth, proclaim the Lord; sing your praise to God.

- 1. Serve you the Lord, heart filled with gladness. Come into God's presence singing for joy!
- 2. Know that the Lord, is our Creator. Yes, God is our Father, we are his own.
- 3. We are the sheep of the green pasture; for we are God's people chosen by God.

FIRST READING: from the Book of Joshua

Jos 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges, and their officers. When they stood in ranks before God, Joshua addressed all the people: "If it does not please you to serve the Lord, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

But the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods. For it was the Lord, our God, who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He performed those great miracles before our very eyes and protected us along our entire journey and among the peoples through whom we passed. Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God."

The word of the Lord.

THANKS BE TO GOD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

SECOND READING: from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians

Ephesians 5:2a, 25-32

Brothers and sisters: Live in love, as Christ loved us. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish.

So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church.

The word of the Lord.

THANKS BE TO GOD.

GOSPEL: from the holy Gospel according to St. John

John 6: 60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this, he said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are the Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe."

Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father."

As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

PRAISE TO YOU, LORD JESUS CHRIST.

OFFERTORY: # 216 THE SUMMONS

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know And never be the same? Will you let my love be shown, Will you let my name be known, Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind If I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare Should your life attract or scare? Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see If I but call your name? Will you set the pris'ners free And never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean, And do such as this unseen, And admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

COMMUNION SONG: #320 SHEPHERD OF SOULS, REFRESH & BLESS

1. Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless Your chosen pilgrim flock With manna in the wilderness With water from the rock.
2. We would not live by bread alone, But by your word of grace, In strength of which we travel on To our abiding place.
3. Be known to us in breaking bread, But do not then depart; Savior, abide with us, and spread Your table in our heart.
4. Lord, sup with us in love divine; Your body and your blood, That living bread that heav'nly wine, Be our immortal food.

RECESSIONAL: # 272 TAKE UP YOUR CROSS

1. Take up your cross, the Savior said, If you would my disciple be; Take up your cross with willing heart, And humbly follow after me.
2. Take up your cross, let not its weight Fill your weak spirit with alarm; My strength shall bear your spirit up, And brace your heart, and nerve your arm.
3. Take up your cross, heed not the shame, And let your foolish heart be still; The Lord for you accepted death Upon a cross on Calv'ry's hill.

PRAYER to ST. MICHAEL

Holy Michael the archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host,

By the divine power thrust into hell satan and all the other evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.

AMEN.

Do you feel Jesus calling you to learn more about your Catholic faith?

Are you someone who was baptized Catholic as a child, but have not yet celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation & Eucharist?

Have you fallen away from practicing the faith, but now have a strong desire to return?

You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, insights and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting. To inquire about the RCIA program, please call the Parish Office: 715-344-6115

As Disciples, should we be unworthy servants?

One of the teachings of Jesus advises:

"So you also, when you have done all that is commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty'" (Luke 17:10).

Why does Jesus advise his disciple to call himself/herself as "Unworthy servant"? This certainly affects one's self-esteem. Having done one's duty, is it fair to consider oneself unworthy? When a person's self-esteem is disturbed or damaged in one way or other, the person would certainly be distressed. Self-image and self-prestige are very important for anyone. How does, then, Jesus justify his statement?

During the time of Jesus on earth, servants were always kept in the bottom layer of the social-hierarchy. Their duty was to obey what was commanded. Thus, they had very little respect in the society. Jesus would not desire to keep his disciples in the bottom level; rather he wants to raise their status to become adopted sons and daughters of his heavenly Father. Moreover, being created in the image of God, everyone is considered precious and valuable in the mind of Jesus. Hence he says: "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God? Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows" (Luke 12:6-7).

The reason why Jesus asks his disciples to consider themselves "unworthy servants" is that in fulfilling our duty, we should not fulfill it for getting just the approval and appreciation of the master; rather Jesus wants us to fulfill our tasks, in order to be true to our conscience and to God. Of course, in the expectation of our modern mind-set every achievement or victory deserves recognition and applause. Nonetheless, it must be noted that human appreciation may change from time to time depending on the emotional condition of the master and so the servant may try to render his duty not honestly but just to get the appreciation of his/her master. In the mind of Jesus, it is more important to get a real appreciation from God, the divine Master, whose reward is permanent and ever-lasting, than trying to get the appreciation of the human master.

Thus, Jesus says that an unworthy servant is not a worthless human person; on the contrary, he is the one who serves worthily; being a worthless servant is the path to being a worthy disciple.

God bless you
Fr. Arul Joseph V.
