STATIONS of the CROSS

In lieu of the weekly message from the Priests, the staff of the Family of Four Parishes will be sharing personal reflections on the 14 Stations of the Cross throughout the six weeks of Lent. We hope that these reflections will be a prayerful way for our parish community to collectively walk alongside each other to follow Jesus during his last steps on earth. With each station, we challenge each other to respond to Christ's call to encounter Him and others in a different way this Lent and every day of our lives.

The First Station: Jesus is Condemned to Death

This is how it all begins, sentenced like a common criminal, accused of crimes he has not committed. Yet, our Savior humbly accepts the criminality of all of humanity placed on His shoulders as our Passover lamb. It shakes me to think that just a few days previous, people from all walks of life were praising His name as Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey. Now here they are, rejecting His name, casting blame on Him and sentencing Him to die.

Lent is always a time for reflection. Reflecting on ourselves, reflecting on our relationships with God, thinking of ways we have been strong in faith, and ways that we have fallen in faith. Specifically with this First Station of the Cross, I think about an aspect of living our faith that I think everyone has dealt with in positive and negative ways: going with the crowd.

How often do I put a child lock on opportunities for evangelization and Truth? Probably more than I'd care to admit. But, it is in these moments that I remember that Jesus willingly knows there will be times in my life where I let Him down, and yet, he will still go to the Cross for me, for us! Yet, we are constantly reminded that, even if we fall, there will be new opportunities in the future.

This Lent, let us call upon the Holy Spirit to provide boldness, strength and courage when opportunities come our way. The opportunities will come and, when they do, let us have the strength to stand up for what we believe in, because we never know what hangs in the balance of our decision to speak truth, even if the crowd is against us.

I pray that God will be ever-present in our interactions with 'the crowd' and to let His words be our words.

Blessings,

*Nino Rebholz,
Associate Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry*

Little Black Books

Because of the pandemic this year, we have a limited amount of Little Black Books for Lent that are available at the entrances of each church. There are also a small number at the parish offices available for pickup. We cannot mail books to you. We know these have been a valuable prayer tool for our parishioners over the years so, if you can't come to church or the office, you can order them directly from the website at LittleBooks.org. Individual books are around $4.00. They are available in both regular and large print and also as e-books. There is also a Little Books app for all seasonal books, or you may call the Little Books office at 989-797-6653 and tell them you want to order the Lent Little Black book. If you have questions, contact your Director of Music and Liturgy for help.

The Second Station: Jesus Carries His Cross

Our beloved Jesus is now bearing the heavy weight of the Cross on his body. He not only carries the burden of the Cross but all the heaviness and darkness of our sin and the sins of the whole world throughout time onto his shoulders. Jesus knew how hard this journey would be for him. The previous night in his distress in the Garden of Gethsamene, Jesus fervently prayed not once but three times, "My Father, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will" (Matthew 26: 39-44). Yet because of his surrender and obedience to his Father, Jesus willingly accepted what he knew will be a long and difficult road ahead, and he now takes up the Cross with quiet humility out of his love for all of us.

My dear mother was one of the most faith-filled people I will ever know. When my siblings and I were with her four years ago at the end of her life, she shared with us a message that I will never forget - she said that we should not be afraid of the cross and that the only way to be with Jesus is to walk towards the cross. I didn't know how that message would impact my life until this last year when I felt the burden of many crosses on my shoulders. We will all experience trials and tests in life, but the true test will be if it brings us closer to Christ. God will never give us a cross that is too heavy or a challenge too difficult for us if we remain close to him in prayer and reach out for help. He will always be there to comfort and give us hope on the journey, because it is through the Cross that we can have eternal life and happiness with our Lord - AMEN to that!

Blessings on your Lenten journey,

*Anh Clausen,
Director of Family Ministry and Religious Formation*

“Mother Teresa marked the history of our century with courage. She served all human beings by promoting their dignity and respect, and made those who had been defeated by life real.”

Loving and gracious God, Creator of all, we stand in faith and steadfast hope before you, mindful of our unity with our entire parish family. Renew in us as members of the one Body of Christ.

We pray for those who are unable to worship with us and remain attentive to the spiritual needs of those who are suffering physically and mentally. May our prayers rise up like incense and through the Intercession of Mary, our most Holy Mother, bring comfort and healing to all who suffer in our community.

We pray for the needs of:

The homebound in our community and all caregivers; and all parishioners who are grieving the loss of a loved one during this challenging time.

May our prayers strengthen you and bring you peace of heart. All this we pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Volunteers Needed to Provide Rides for COVID Vaccines

We are in great need of volunteers to provide rides to community members 60 and older to COVID vaccine and other medical appointments. Please consider helping us for the next few months during this time of high demand.

We help adults 60 and older remain independent in their own homes through offering free services such as transportation, companionship, shopping, light chores, minor home repairs, outdoor chores and more. All of this is done through the generosity of our volunteers. Our loan closet features items such as wheelchairs, walkers and shower chairs for those who need them, and we gladly accept gently used donated items.

For more information, please visit www.essmilw.org; like us on Facebook; or contact us at essmilw@gmail.com or 210-5881.

All young adults are invited to our new UPLIFT ("Uniting People Living in Faith and Truth") Young Adult sessions! If you're in your 20s and 30s and are looking to grow deeper in your faith and meet some new people, join us in our virtual ZOOM session! This Sunday, we will look at the various "Models of The Church", or the various identities or 'characters' the Church takes on. This is a great reflection as we kick off Lent to see where and how God pulls you closer in faith. To RSVP or see more details, go to tinyurl.com/upliftyoungadults! If you have questions, please contact Nino Rebholz at rebholzn@archmil.org.

UPLIFT Teen Confirmation Retreat

Please continue to pray and support our UPLIFT Teen program and our Confirmation candidates! We have just tackled our themes of the importance of being Catholic and the importance of going to Mass. This month, the Confirmation Retreat is finally upon us, so please offer continued prayers for our youth! If you have questions, please contact Nino Rebholz at rebholzn@archmil.org.

Nova Night

Greetings to any and all Middle Schoolers! Our Nova Nights have continued, and our sessions have been fantastic! Nova Night is a time for our middle schoolers to get together, to eat some snacks, play some games, win some prizes and learn more about our faith. Whether you've been to all Nova Nights or haven't been to one yet, all are welcome! To RSVP for our next

Nova Night on February 24 at 6:30 pm or see more details, go to <https://tinyurl.com/novanight2020!> If you have questions, please contact Nino Rebholz at rebholzn@archmil.org.

UPLIFT Families

During the month of February, UPLIFT Families are reflecting on Mary as the model of discipleship and intercessor for us before God:

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name. Luke 1:46-49

Community Ministry Connection: Franciscan Peacemakers!

The Human Concerns Committee hopes that you have enjoyed learning about this amazing organization throughout the month! You can find all the information shared this month on our parish websites on our Community Ministry Connection page. If you'd like to stay up-to-date with the Franciscan Peacemakers, please subscribe to their Blog and Podcast at <https://franciscanpeacemakers.org/blogs/friends-on-the-journey-blog>. You can also find Franciscan Peacemakers on both Instagram and Facebook. Remember, if you haven't already done so, please treat yourself or the guests of the Riverwest Food Pantry by purchasing products from the Franciscan Peacemakers, using code FAMILYOF4 at <https://franciscanpeacemakers.org/collections>. Lastly, please commit to praying for the women whose lives are so positively impacted through the ministry of Franciscan Peacemakers! Specifically, please pray for the women who live at Clare Community and the women who are served through Street Outreach. Thank you!

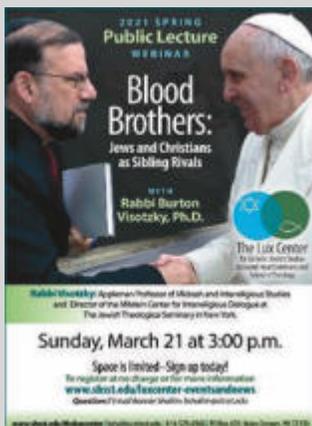

Global Solidarity – Padibe Update

The fruits of your generosity are literally growing in a Cassava Farm in Padibe, Uganda! We recently received this picture from Sr. Zipporah, who visited us in 2019, that clearly shows the growth of the cassava plants. Thank you for your ongoing support of our sister parish in Uganda! If you'd like to become more involved in this ministry, please consider joining our committee. We typically meet on the 3rd Wednesday of each month at 6:00 pm, although (due to Ash Wednesday) this month we will meet on Wednesday, February 24. Please email Laura Hancock at hancockl@archmil.org if you'd like to learn more!

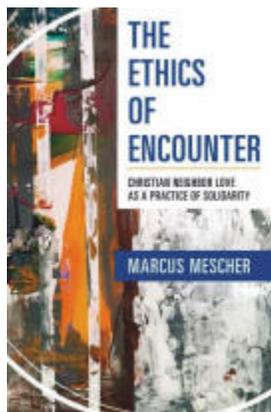

Catholic-Jewish Studies

There have been so many opportunities lately to grow in our understanding of interfaith relationships... and this week is no exception! On Sunday, February 21 at 3:00 pm, The Lux Center for Catholic-Jewish Studies will be hosting a lecture with Rabbi Burton Visotzky, PhD entitled, "Blood Brothers: Jews and Christians as Sibling Rivals." You can find more information and a link to register for this weekend's event on the Lux Center webpage: <https://www.shsst.edu/theluxcenter/>.

The Ethics of Encounter

Lenten Online Book Studies – LAST CALL

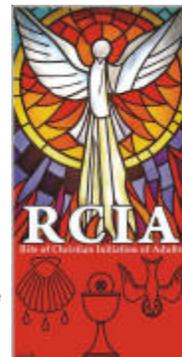

This Lent, our family of four parishes will be hosting two online book studies as we explore our theme, "Possibility of Encounter." Chad Giesel will be leading a group on Monday evenings at 7:00 pm, and Laura Hancock will lead a group on Wednesday afternoons at noon. Both groups will be on Zoom, and both will be reading and discussing Dr. Marcus Mescher's book, The Ethics of Encounter: Christian Neighbor Love as a Practice of Solidarity. You can still sign up by contacting Chad at grieselc@archmil.org or Laura at hancockl@archmil.org.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

On the first and third Mondays of each month, we invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are and who God is calling us to be. For further information, contact Chad Giesel, Pastoral Associate of Formation and Justice, at grieselc@archmil.org or 271-6180.

Becoming Catholic

Every year adults are welcomed into the Catholic Church through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). RCIA invites those who have never been baptized, those who may have been baptized in another Christian tradition, and those who were baptized Catholic but have not received the sacraments of first Holy Communion or Confirmation. This week, we are exploring the Nicene Creed:

"The Creed reminds us that our little lives are caught up into this much larger story. And we each have a significant role to play in this drama." Edward Sri

For further information, contact Chad Giesel, Pastoral Associate of Formation and Justice, at grieselc@archmil.org or 271-6180.

Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who participated in last month's Luba Lukova: Designing Justice workshop series with the Jewish Museum Milwaukee! What a fun time we had exploring Lukova's art and activism, while also learning about community agencies right here in Milwaukee. Take a look at the JMM website to see some of your artwork! <https://jewishmuseummilwaukee.org/education/designing-justice/designing-justice-mke/>

Almsgiving

Related to our Lenten theme of the “Possibility of Encounter,” we will be focusing this year’s almsgiving project on supporting the future Archdiocesan Ministry Center at All Saints! This ministry center will provide a variety of opportunities for building relationships with members of the All Saints neighborhoods. The Archdiocesan Ministry Center will provide a place of encounter, in the central city of Milwaukee, for the outreach and services of Catholic Charities. Other dreams for this space include offering a variety of family programming, as well as other opportunities that support overall individual and family wellness. To help attract neighbors to the center, our almsgiving campaign will focus on helping to create a positive and welcoming first impression of the ministry center. We will be raising funds to update the landscaping of the building, providing new signage to welcome visitors and neighbors, remove outdated barriers and hopefully provide a welcome desk. “We are helping to facilitate the possibility of encounter in the future.”

Fasting

Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. The norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding from age 14 onwards. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.
