FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Pastor's Corner

"God made humans because He loves stories." (Elie Wiesel)

Dear Friends,

These three middle weeks of Lent have stories that are like good family stories we tell around a family dinner table. The Woman at the well, the Man born blind, and Lazarus are like old relatives whose stories inspire and amuse and help us believe we belong to a great tradition of characters whose experience of Jesus changed their lives for the better and holds out the hope that even in our crazy, at times confusing lives, life can get better.

Life can get better! What more be said? We are all the stuff of stories; we are all characters, irreplaceable in our unique incarnation of God's great imagination.

So cherish your story, wherever it is leading you. Lent reminds us that is where Easter starts. Whatever is going on, for good or bad, is leading us to Jesus and the greatest story ever told!

For the believer in Jesus, there is always a happy ending!

Sincerely, with love,

Fr. Tim

Staff Lenten Reflection

Open the Eyes of My Heart, Lord

We sing about it often. We ask for it in prayer. "...I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see." "Open the eyes of my heart, Lord, ... I want to see You; I want to see you." What is this about blindness? The man in today's Gospel was physically blind, but nearly as obviously, Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for their spiritual blindness. What does that look like in our world today? How are we called to "Awake, O sleeper" as St. Paul startles the Ephesians in today's second reading?

Every time these readings occur; I think of Agnes. She was a woman I met on one of my communion calls, years ago. Agnes was blind, but incredibly independent! Yes, her physical blindness affected some of her choices, but none let it become an obstacle to living a full life and seeing the beauty of the world. Agnes loved everyone! Her gentle touch, her blessing on my forehead, helped me see.

What I learned from Agnes and fully believe is that spiritual blindness is more of an obstacle and burden in one's life. Sometimes we inherit some of these blind spots and don't even realize it: prejudices, grievances, fears, negativity, etc. Sometimes we hold onto them and hide in the darkness, at least for a while. But, when God's amazing grace stirs our hearts, watch out! We desire light. We long to see. We ask Jesus to be healed. With God's help and our efforts, we see more clearly. We are freed to live as children of light.

O God, Source of all light and beauty, remove my blindness and help me to see you more clearly.

by Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care

Lenten Almsgiving

St. Vincent de Paul

In Today's Gospel, Jesus gives sight to the blind man. Similarly, through grace, we are also transformed from not seeing to seeing, and then Jesus sends us to help others see and to believe. Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul brings joy, peace, forgiveness, mercy and kindness to the hurting hearts of the poor.

Pastoral Care

Grief Support Group

Week One

Tuesday, March 21

Weekly Seminar Topic:

Is This Normal?

Location:

Old St. Mary Parish Office (835 N Milwaukee St)

Time: 6:00-8:00 pm

Cost: $20.00 for workbook. Scholarships are available.

Why our grief experience is harder than we imagine.

Why the intensity and duration of our emotions are normal and appropriate.

Despite how we feel right now, there is reason for hope.

You are welcome to begin attending our Grief Support Group at any point. Each session is "self-contained," so you do not have to attend in sequence. You will be able to pick up any sessions you missed in our next 13-week cycle. Registration is encouraged so we can plan accordingly. Please contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at 469-6173 or tbalash@ffpmke.org.

Pastoral Care Embodies the Heart of Jesus

Please notify Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at tbalash@ffpmke.org or

469-6173 if you or a loved one is currently homebound or live in a health care facility. We understand when older adults begin having medical problems and choose to bring medical care into their home or decide to move into assisted living, memory care or skilled nursing care, that they sometimes overlook the need for spiritual support. We truly care about our older adults and want them to feel connected to their faith community. I look forward to hearing from you! May the dear Lord continue to bless you and keep you close to his loving heart.

Taizé Prayer Service

Join us on Wednesday, March 22 at 6:30 pm at St. Casimir Church for our monthly Taizé Prayer Service. Taizé Prayer is an intimate time of prayer using simple songs, silence and scripture in a beautiful, prayerful environment, using icons written by one of our parishioners. Music is provided by music ministers from our family of four parishes. Come and join us. For more information, contact Mary Robertson at mrobertson@ffpmke.org.

Catechism in a Year Discussion

Started the Catechism in a Year podcast with Fr. Mike Schmitz and not sure what comes next or what it means for your life? The Family of Four Parishes will be offering a year-long discussion group, meeting once a week to discuss what we have read/heard in the Catechism in a Year podcast and how it applies to our everyday lives. We are meeting Tuesdays at Old St. Mary from 8:30-9:30 am and Thursdays from 5:30-6:30 pm via Teams. To register, please fill out this form:

<https://forms.office.com/r/y7cXKAXgXG>. If you have any questions or need help registering, please contact our Director of Human Concerns, Sarah Haus, at shaus@ffpmke.org.

SVDP Love Story

My partner and I recently visited Melissa and her sister. Melissa is a mother, a former caregiver at a nursing home and a widow whose husband died a few months ago. Without her husband's income, Melissa was unable to keep up payments on her home. Eviction caused her to lose everything. She and her daughter, Elise, who both have chronic health conditions, are now living with her sister's family. The stove in her sister's home stopped working, and Melissa called SVdP to request help. Six Saints Conference provided a voucher for the family to purchase a refurbished stove. We also learned that Melissa was sleeping on the floor at her sister's home. We were able to provide a bed for her, along with other household items such as dishes, pots, pans and towels from our donation supply. Melissa plans to use these items now and then take them with her when she is able to get her own place. Thank you to those who contribute to the dignity and well-being of neighbors-in-need like Melissa, her sister and Elise. If you would like to donate to, learn more about or join Six Saints St. Vincent de Paul in our mission, please contact Laurie Jacobs at 815-861-4645 or ljacobs9073@gmail.com.

Thank you for your support!

Come and Sing Sunday at Old St. Mary

Please join us on Sunday, March 26 at 10:30 am at Old St. Mary for our informal choir "Come and Sing Sunday"! Everyone who loves to sing (high school age and up) is welcome to attend. Meggie will lead rehearsal in the choir loft, and we will sing for the 11:30 am Mass together. No prior experience is necessary, and there is no long-term commitment. Contact Meggie Moyer at mmoyer@ffpmke.org if you have any questions, or just show up on Sunday at 10:30 am ready to sing!

Baptism Preparation Class

Parents & expecting parents: Congratulations! We would like to help you celebrate the new life in your family as we welcome your child into our family of faith through the Sacrament of Baptism. First time parents are invited to register for our next Baptism Preparation session, which will be held on Sunday, March 26 from 10:00-11:15 am at the Old St. Mary Parish Center. Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00 pm. For further information, contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577.

How is Lent Going?

"How do I make Lent work for me? It's something I've wondered for a long time. But perhaps I haven't yet found an answer, because it's a question that's better answered by another question, one that goes beyond the forty days of the season: how do I let God work through me?"

Kerry Weber

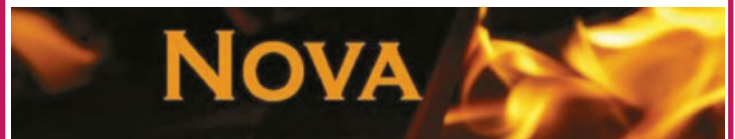

"How to talk to people at the grocery store"

All young adults in their 20s and 30s are welcome to join our next UPLIFT Young Adults on March 19. At UPLIFT Young Adults, we gather for a time of reflection and prayer, and then listen to a speaker to take a deep dive into a topic. We will hear from Sam Vosters from Kinship Community Center to give a presentation deepening our faith in this time of Lent, "How to talk to people at the grocery store". Join us at 2:30 pm at Old St Mary for a chance to pray, connect and learn. You may sign up at tinyurl.com/upliftyoungadults2022 or reach out to Nino Rebholz at nrebholz@ffpmke.org.

High School Mission Trip Promotions Going Great

Ten students from UPLIFT Teens are going on a mission trip to Kentucky in June, and our coffee and doughnut promotions have been going great! We have been to St Casimir, SS Peter & Paul, St Hedwig and Old St Mary. Stay tuned for additional opportunities to support our High School Mission Trips. Until then, If you would like to support our High School students on their mission trip, scan the QR code above, or reach out to Nino Rebholz at nrebholz@ffpmke.org for more details. It costs $75 per student per day, so you can sponsor a student for a day, or any amount is helpful!

Our middle school youth group, Nova Night, has been going very well! In February, we talked about the four Greek definitions of Love from John's Gospel and how it applies to us. We also played an awesome Valentines themed game called cupid tag! Our group has been awesome this year, and we've been having so much fun! Our next Nova Night is Sunday, March 19 from 5:30-7:00 pm at SS Peter & Paul. If you'd like to sign up, go to tinyurl.com/novanight2022 or reach out to Nino with any questions at nrebholz@ffpmke.org
