4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

HE DIED THAT WE MAY LIVE

Pastor's Corner

Happy Lent!

Today's Gospel has what may be the most quoted bible passage ever:

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish, but might have eternal life." (John 3:16)

These profound words are the source of hope for us today. We are past the halfway point of Lent. It may sometimes feel that Lent lasts forever, and we can easily lose hope. Today, the Gospel of John reminds us of why we participate in Lent — because God gave his only Son.

I hope that you are having the best Lent ever! If you aren't, that's okay. Today is a great day to commit to finishing strong. A good coach will tell an athlete who is struggling to make sure they finish strong. It may not be their best performance, but it is important to not give up. As a spiritual coach, I encourage you to finish Lent strong.

We are two weeks from Holy Week, so it is a good time to think about what you can do to prepare to celebrate Holy Week well. Today is a great day to make a resolution to finish strong.

The Father gave his Son so that we can have eternal life; what is the Father asking you to sacrifice to join with Christ's sacrifice?

God Bless,
Fr. Joseph

Young Adult Ministry

Two Become One Newlywed Ministry Tuesday, March 12

Our first few evenings for newlywed married couples, called "Two Become One," have been great! Our couples have heard some great talks on utilizing the Gifts of the Holy Spirit in marriage, as well as some practical steps for the first few years of marriage. Recently, our speakers presented on the joys and challenges of children in the early years of marriage.

It has been great to have Newlyweds meet in similar stages in life! Our next evening is on Tuesday, March 12, at the Cathedral of St. John from 7:00pm – 8:30pm.

To register and RSVP, you can go to tinyurl.com/newlywedministry. Email Nino Rebholz, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministries, at nrebholz@ffpmke.org with any questions or call the office at 271-6577.

Pastoral Care

Never Underestimate the Ministry of Presence

By Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care

One of the most basic concepts that I learned in pastoral care is the ministry of presence. When faced with an individual in crisis, ministers are often tempted to fill the aching silence with answers, sympathy, or assurances that things will turn out all right. Yet, many times, the best thing one can do is simply be with the person. Show up. Sit there. Be in the room with that individual. Listen. Use less words. Give silent affirmation that they are not alone. This is the ministry of presence.

Several years ago, a dear friend of mine lost her son unexpectedly. We hadn't seen each other in many years, and we were now separated by ten states. The funeral was scheduled, and I paused. Should I book a flight, take off work, and put other obligations on hold to attend this funeral? The answer was "yes," but the distance and life stage I was in made me question it, embarrassed as I am to admit it.

I made the right decision; I went to the funeral. Seeing the familiar faces of her family and friends instantly proved to me that it was the right decision. We wept together, reflected together, and in our grief, we didn't feel so alone. This was the net result of showing up with my body, not a condolence card.

Funeral Ministry of Hospitality

"A welcoming community is the heart of our parish."

The role of a Funeral Minister of Hospitality is to assist with funerals before, during and after the liturgy. We offer support to the family and welcome guests who are in attendance. Good hospitality is welcoming! Ministers of Hospitality are essential to our community, and those who serve in this capacity have the potential to add greatly to the experience of worship for all who gather. Your warm smile or word of sympathy says, "I care..."

The ministry of presence is something we all desire, isn't it? The caring and full attention of another person. Let us pray that we might be able and willing to give it to others so that we too can experience it ourselves.

Please contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at tbalash@ffpmke.org or 469-6173 if you wish to get involved. God bless you!

Lenten Almsgiving - Open Door Cafe

The tale of the Open Door Café is deeply intertwined with its guests and volunteers. Their needs, participation, and support have sculpted it into its current form. The guests were instrumental in naming this service of the Cathedral of St. John. It became the "Open Door Café" because it mirrors its policy of openness and service. They also contributed to creating the murals you see in this article on the side staircase, which is more than mere art; they narrate the story of the café.

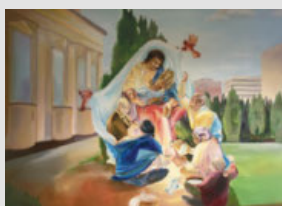

Throughout my professional and personal journey, I've come to understand that the act of serving the poor and homeless is a universal value, transcending all faiths and beliefs. Serving those in need without expecting anything in return forms a significant part of my own belief system. This dedication is my modest step toward the "Grace of God," which draws me back to Open Door year after year.

This program is blessed with numerous dedicated volunteers and supporters, instilling in me a renewed hope for humanity. The unwavering commitment and devotion of these volunteers have fortified the program's foundation.

The generosity of many parishioners and external members is vital to our daily operations. Without their support, Open Door could not persist. In addition to offering midday meals six days a week, services extend to hosting Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners with gifts, providing hygiene kits, clothing, bus tickets, and more.

For volunteers, Open Door is not merely about lending a hand; it is a place to connect with others who share our values, regardless of origin or faith. This program deeply impacts lives by uniting people for a common cause.

Nimmi Arora, a volunteer for the Open Door-Café, wrote this article. If you want to learn more about our Ministry and the ways you can support us, please contact Idalia Nieves-Reyes at inievesreyes@ffpmke.org.

Social Justice and Outreach

Love Thy Neighbor

In recognition of Women's History Month in March, we recall the history of women voting rights in the U.S. The 19th Constitutional Amendment granted women the right to vote in 1920. What did this mean for Black women? It depended – some could vote, but many states passed laws that discriminated against Blacks and denied them the vote. It was not until the Voting Rights Act of 1965 that racial discrimination in voting practices was banned.

Almost 60 years later, voting rights of women within the Catholic Church also underwent an historic change within the "Synod on Synodality" (2021-24), when the 364 voting members included 54 women for the first time. This group included lay and religious women, two of whom were appointed to leadership positions, and some were women of color. A "synod" is a Vatican advisory assembly of church leaders from all over the world. It had previously been exclusively attended by religious men. The inclusion of women more fully embodies the Greek roots of the word "synod," which are "journeying together."

"What unites us is greater than what divides us. For in common we have 'one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, among all and in all.' (Eph. 4:5-6)" – USCCB, A Synodal Church in Mission, Synthesis Report, 2023

Irene Witt, a member of the Racial Justice and Healing Committee, wrote this article. To learn more about the Racial Justice and Healing Committee that sponsors these Love Thy Neighbor articles, contact Director of Social Justice and Outreach, Idalia Nieves-Reyes, at inievesreyes@ffpmke.org or 276-9814, ext. 110.

Adult Formation and Evangelization

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic offers men and women of all ages a casual opportunity to explore the Catholic faith. The format ranges from speakers and group discussion to movies and music. Drinks and appetizers are provided.

This year's theme is, "Do This in Memory of Me."

Our next session will be on Wednesday, March 20, when we will continue watching Bishop Robert Barron's series, The Mass. If you would like to learn more about Eat, Drink and Be Catholic or RSVP for our March 20 session at Mo's A Place for Steaks (720 N Plankinton Ave.) beginning at 7:00pm, see our parish website or email Chad Griesel (cgriesel@ffpmke.org).

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.)

Our next meeting is Monday, March 18.

For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577.

The Gospel of Mark Scripture Study

All are invited to the Cathedral Parish Office (831 N Van Buren St.) for a Scripture study on The Gospel of Mark on March 6, March 13, and March 20 from 9:30am -10:30am.

Bring your own Bible. Contact Trevor for information at 238-2702 or trevorbeach@stjohnncathedral.org.

Missionary Discipleship Groups

There are a few spots left in our Missionary Discipleship Groups at the Family of Five. All are invited! These small groups are a great way to follow Jesus Christ and grow in your Catholic faith. If interested, please contact Trevor Beach at 238-2702 or trevorbeach@stjohnncathedral.org.

Mind of Christ Holy Week Scriptural Formation

Come to Messianic Prophecies and Holy Week on Thursday, March 21, from 7:00pm-8:15pm in the Cathedral Atrium. For questions or prep reading, contact Trevor Beach at 238-2702 or trevorbeach@stjohnncathedral.org.

Miscellaneous

La Tavolata di San Giuseppe

The Saint Joseph Table
Sunday, March 17, 2024

Table Blessing follows the 10:30am Mass.
Table continues until the raffle at 1:30pm.
Saint Rita Church & Hall, 1617 N Cass St.

The Christian Women Society invites you to experience this Italian tradition through which Three Holy Women Parish honors St. Joseph. The intent of this communal celebration is to help those in need.

Legend tells us that during a time of drought and famine in Sicily, people prayed to St. Joseph for his intercession. When the rains came, crops were planted, and people were able to rise up and thrive again. From their crops, they prepared a grand fest and with their neighbors in need, they feasted together in thanksgiving to St. Joseph.

In keeping with this Italian tradition, the parish prepares a table, a display of food and faith, celebrating St. Joseph near his feast day. Occurring during Lent, this beautifully adorned table is filled with donated meatless dishes, traditional foods, sculpted breads, and sweets. After a blessing, the food is sold to attendees.

Participants receive a complimentary bread roll and a bowl of pasta con sarde, a favorite Lenten pasta with fish sauce (also served without the fish sauce.) A specially prepared cake is cut and shared with those present.

There will also be a raffle, with a wonderful variety of prizes, including restaurant certificates, tickets to events, gift baskets, and cash prizes! Proceeds from the food sales, raffle, and free will offerings are donated to the parish's social justice ministry and other organizations or projects in the community that provide services to people needing help. Admission is free.

If you wish to donate...

Food items can be dropped off at St Rita's Church on Saturday, March 16, before noon or Sunday morning before the 10:30am Mass.
