— JOHN 20:22 —

Divine Mercy Sunday

“Be kind to one another, compassionate, and mutually forgiving, just as God has forgiven you in Christ. Be imitators of God as his dear children. Follow the way of love, even as Christ loved you. He gave himself for us as an offering to God, a gift of pleasing fragrance.”
(Ephesians 4:32-5:2)

Happy Easter, everyone! Like a party that doesn't end for fifty days, we continue to marvel at the love of God which transforms death into life, despair into hope, limited into possibility.

The last line of this quote from St. Paul reminds us that the stench of violence and death, which summarizes Good Friday, can never defeat what our tradition calls “the odor of sanctity.” It is the pleasing fragrance of a life lived in virtue and the call to permeate the earth with the scent of kindness and mercy.

In our Liturgical rituals this past weekend, we smelled a lot of incense and the beeswax of the Easter Candle. We absorbed the scent of Chrism oil, newly minted by our Archbishop for our use, and then spread around in the baptism and confirmation of our newly-commissioned believers in Jesus. The scents send us to the invigorating fresh air of kindness and sacrificial service to others that far overpowers a stale culture and the staggered wheezes of wasted chances for peace and justice.

We all are called to this, and thanks be to God for new members, who took the chance, like many of us did so long ago, to breath a new air and let our breath be the breath of the Risen Christ, bringing a new fragrance to our world so in need of it!

Have a blessed, merciful week!

Fr. Tim

Emotions and Their Triggers

You've probably noticed that your emotions erupt at the oddest of times and places. Many times, memories pop up unexpectedly, perhaps triggered by something as simple as seeing a favorite breakfast cereal in your grocery store, driving past a particular highway exit, or being seated at the same restaurant table where you and your loved one once shared a meal.

Our Lord created and gifted all of us with emotions. Suppressing them or allowing them to overpower you can harm you physically, mentally, and spiritually. Try not to stifle those feelings. Embrace the joyful memories. Keep them alive and allow God to use them in your healing. Joining a Grief Support Group can help you learn why emotions are healthy. Our group is a safe place to share your feelings and learn ways to cope with all the different emotions.

Grief Support Group

Help and encouragement after the death of a spouse, child, family member or friend.

Our 13-week program goes from Wednesday, April 17. to Wednesday, July 17. (off on July 3) from 10:00am until 12:00pm in the Old St. Mary Parish Center (835 N. Milwaukee Street, will give you access to the parking lot.)

GriefShare is a special weekly seminar and support group designed to help you rebuild your life after losing a loved one. Our group is led by caring people who have experienced grief and want to help you through the difficult days ahead. We know it hurts, and we want to help.

Video Seminar – Encouraging, information-packed videos featuring leading grief recovery experts.

Support group – Small group discussion about the weekly video content.

Workbook – Journaling and personal study exercises that reinforce the weekly session topics.

Cost is $20 for the workbook; scholarships are available.

If you have questions or wish to register for the next grief support group, please contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at 414-469-6173 or tbalash@ffpmke.org. Registration is required so we can plan accordingly.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings Monday, April 15

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love.

The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.) Our next meeting is Monday, April 15. For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577 x114.

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic Wednesday, April 17

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic offers men and women of all ages a casual opportunity to explore the Catholic faith. The format ranges from speakers and group discussion to movies and music. Drinks and appetizers are provided.

Our next session will be on Wednesday, April 17, beginning at 7:00pm in the Atrium of the Cathedral of St. John. We will continue watching Bishop Robert Barron's series, The Mass.

If you would like to learn more about Eat, Drink and Be Catholic or RSVP for our April 17 session, see our parish website or email Chad Griesel (cgriesel@ffpmke.org).
