Dear friends,

“Peace be with you,” are the words that the risen Jesus tells his disciples when he appears to them after his resurrection.

These words also make me think of the sacrament of Reconciliation. When the priest absolves the penitent, he says, “may God grant you Pardon and Peace.”

This means that the gift of God’s peace is given in the same measure as the gift of his forgiveness when we celebrate this Sacrament. It is easier for us to accept God’s forgiveness, for we know ourselves to have been forgiven after a good confession, the absolution and the fulfillment of the penance, but, what does it mean to have been given the gift of God’s peace? What does it look like to welcome the gift of God’s peace into my life?

On a different note, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your prayers during my time in Colombia. It was not easy to get my last visa approved, but thanks to God and your prayers the visa was approved in the end, and I was able to come back to the parishes.

Also, I have news to share. Back in January, I had shared that I was leaving the Family of Five this June. This news is that I will be staying for another year! This extra year will allow me to enjoy the gift of being at the parishes longer and, at the same time, work on some immigration related paperwork.

May God bless you, and I pray you have a great, blessed week!

With love,

Fr. Carlos

Your Grief Journey Is Uniquely Yours

A person cuts you off in traffic, you clench your fists and yell things you don’t mean. You try to sleep at night, but snowballing worry keeps your mind from shutting off. Lately you’ve been riding a roller coaster of emotions, and you just want to get off. I can’t go on like this, you think. You don’t feel like yourself, and you worry you’re will never be the same.

Support group – Small group discussion about the weekly video content.

Workbook – Journaling and personal study exercises that reinforce the weekly session topics.

$20.00 for the workbook. Scholarships are available.

If you have questions or wish to register for the next grief support group, please contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at 469-6173 or tbalash@ffpmke.org.

Registration is required so we can plan accordingly.

Adult Formation

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings Monday, April 15

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.) Our next meeting is on Monday, April 15.

For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577.

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic Wednesday, April 17

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic offers men and women of all ages a casual opportunity to explore the Catholic faith. The format ranges from speakers and group discussion to movies and music. Drinks and appetizers are provided. This year's theme is, "Do This in Memory of Me."

Our next session will be on Wednesday, April 17, in the Cathedral Atrium beginning at 7:00pm. We will continue watching Bishop Robert Barron's series, The Mass.

If you would like to learn more about Eat, Drink and Be Catholic or RSVP for our next session, see our parish website or email Chad Griesel at cgriesel@ffpmke.org.

First Communion

God bless the children who prepared for and received their First Holy Communion this past weekend at our parishes! May the gift of the Eucharist transform them and all of us to be living Tabernacles, sent out into the world to shine Christ's love.

Marquette University Presents: On the Issues with Sr. Helen Prejean

Lubar Center Director, Derek Mosley, will be hosting a conversation with Sister Helen Prejean about her ministry, working against the death penalty, counseling individual death-row prisoners, and working with murder victims' family members. It has been 31 years since her book, Dead Man Walking: The Eyewitness Account of the Death Penalty in the United States That Sparked a National Debate, was published. She continues to educate the public, advocate for ending the death penalty, and counsel both prisoners' and victims' families.

The program will begin promptly at 12:15pm in Eckstein Hall (1215 W. Michigan St.) on Friday, April 19. This program is in partnership with Marquette Law School's Andrew Center for Restorative Justice. A light lunch will be available. Questions? Contact hilary.deblois@marquette.edu.

“ Please join me for our annual Mass of Atonement. This Mass is a faith-filled, heartfelt and visible action step as we continue our path of reconciliation and resolution. While no single statement or event can make up for the painful abuse of our most vulnerable brothers and sisters, as believers we know that in Christ's suffering, death and resurrection, we find hope beyond measure as we move toward a brighter future. ”
