JOHN 15:4

Pastor's Corner

“Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything.”
(1 John, Ch. 3)

Dear Friends,

The Risen Lord bless you! As I prayed over our second reading this Sunday, I am amazed at how small-hearted and judgmental I can be at times. Absorbing the culture we live in can lead to such division. Anyone who is different from our way of seeing or doing things becomes the enemy. Anyone who might have hurt us becomes an unreachable other from whom we must maintain as much distance as possible. The judgment we make is immediate and long-enduring.

Then we celebrate Easter where through the Resurrection, God introduces a logic and praxis that shatters what seems absolutely final. Life, mercy, hope, unity, encounter, redemption, and forgiveness become a litany to help us in the new way of Jesus to face the old ways of human living.

God is greater than our hearts, and moves us through love to new possibilities of facing the same old problems with others in a new and radically different way. It is possible to live in Truth and Mercy, the dynamic tension we all have to face, of loving others even when we don't agree with them, or even like them.

Resurrection to new Life in Jesus is hard, but oh, how the results produce Joy! And how the world needs joy these days!

Sincerely, with love, and always seeking mercy,

Fr. Tim

The crowning of our Blessed Mother, Mary, will take place next Sunday, May 5, at the 10:30am Mass at St. Rita Church.

Pastoral Care

Caregivers Support Group

Our Family of Five parishes has a Caregivers Support Group that meets once a month. Our next meeting is on Saturday, May 4, from 8:00am – 10:00am, in the Old St. Mary Parish Center at 835 N. Milwaukee St. Breakfast will be served.

Caregivers need care too! When we allow others to support us, we will find we can do so much more in supporting and encouraging those who are in our care. Please join us! Contact Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care, at 414-469-6173 or tbalash@ffpmke.org, if you plan to attend or need any further information.

Evangelization

Missionary Discipleship Groups

Our Director of Evangelization, Trevor Beach, is excited to announce that our initial missionary discipleship group of five disciples is finishing their third Faith Study and will plan to actively reach out to lead their own discipleship groups over the next month or two.

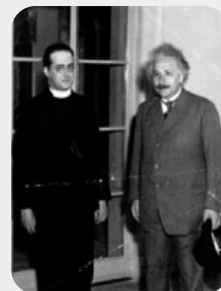

A second missionary discipleship group for leaders will also start meeting in mid - May. These groups are spiritual accompaniment groups that help us to grow and commit ourselves to the Lord in our Catholic Faith, pray together, and become hospitable missionaries of the good news of Jesus and of the Father's merciful love for us.

Scriptural and Intellectual Study Courses

One or two study courses are being organized for the summer and fall so that we might be formed by the Holy Spirit. There are two goals:

- 1) discovering more deeply God's Word in the Old and New Testaments and
- 2) understanding how Scripture relates to philosophical and scientific trends as engaged Catholic evangelists.

Please pray for the Spirit's continued action of building the Kingdom of God here in real ways for the good of our parish families, our local community, and the world in which we live.

If you are moved to become involved in any of these or other upcoming Evangelization initiatives at the Family of Five Parishes, please call or email Trevor Beach, our Director of Evangelization, at 414-238-2702 or trevorbeach@stjohncathedral.org.

Social Justice and Outreach

Prison Ministry Pen Pal

One of the Corporal Works of Mercy is, visiting the imprisoned. While many of us will find this hard or impossible to even think of doing, we are called as a people of God to reach out to those who are incarcerated. Our God and our Church still remind us that they are, as we are, people and created in the image and likeness of God.

Over the past 20-some years, I have been involved in jail and prison ministry. I have seen, and still see, loneliness and heartbreak on the part of the person affected by a crime and those who have caused harm to someone. We are called to assist those who are incarcerated to find their way back to God and society. While I know that entering a jail or prison is not on everyone's want-to-do list, I believe that through letter writing, we may be able to let those who are incarcerated know that there is a world out there that cares about them.

If you are being called and want to be part of this Pen Pal ministry, please contact me directly by emailing me your name and phone number to hunt51@sbcglobal.net.

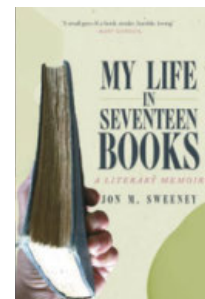

Gratefully to you in Christ's name,

Deacon Tom

“Please join me for our annual Mass of Atonement. This Mass is a faith-filled, heartfelt and visible action step as we continue our path of reconciliation and resolution. While no single statement or event can make up for the painful abuse of our most vulnerable brothers and sisters, as believers we know that in Christ's suffering, death and resurrection, we find hope beyond measure as we move toward a brighter future.”
