There is so much to celebrate this weekend!
 First, we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord—the day our Savior returned to the Father, completing his ministry on earth. He did not leave us alone, but promised us an advocate—the Holy Spirit. We eagerly look forward to the celebration of the descent of the Holy Spirit next weekend at Pentecost.

Secondly, we celebrate Mother's Day. Motherhood is a special vocation that helps build up the kingdom. Please know of our prayers and support for all mothers—both those who are biological mothers and those who fulfill the motherly role to others.

Third, this is a special weekend for me as my first Mass after ordination last year was celebrating the Ascension of the Lord. I am deeply grateful for your unwavering support and prayers throughout this journey. I cannot believe it has been almost a year since my ordination. It has been a great adventure and I thank each and every one of you for your prayers and support.

My actual anniversary of ordination is May 20. This year, it falls on a Monday, which is my day off. I do not typically celebrate a public Mass on my day off. However, because it is my anniversary as a priest, I would like to make an exception and celebrate a public Mass. You are invited to join me for Mass on the anniversary of my ordination on Monday, May 20, at 7:00 pm at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist.

Celebrate well this weekend and thank you again for your prayers and support.

God Bless,
Fr. Joseph

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic

Wednesday, May 15

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic offers men and women of all ages a casual opportunity to explore the Catholic faith. The format ranges from speakers and group discussion to movies and music. Drinks and appetizers are provided.

This year's theme is, "Do This in Memory of Me." Our next session will be on Wednesday, May 15, beginning at 7:00pm in the Illinois Room at Mo's A Place for Steaks (720 N Plankinton Ave.) We will finish watching Bishop Robert Barron's video series, The Mass.

If you would like to learn more about Eat, Drink and Be Catholic or RSVP for our May 1 session, see our parish website or email Chad Griesel at cgriesel@ffpmke.org.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

Monday, May 20

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love.

The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.) Our next meeting is Monday, May 20. For more information, contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at 271-6577 ext 114 or cgriesel@ffpmke.org.

Summer Course on Faith, Science and Scripture Update

The Director of Evangelization will offer the following course:

Jesus and the Book of Genesis: Creation, Covenant, and Contemporary Science.

Tentative times and dates would be 6:15pm-8:15pm on (mostly) Thursdays: May 30, June 6, 13, 20, 27, 29 (Sat, 2pm-4pm), and July 11. The course will invite participants to actively pray and reflect Eucharistically upon the Book of Genesis and interrelated Gospel passages so as to:

- 1) discover the central meaning and on-going relevance of Creation and Covenant in the Scriptures and
- 2) engage modern scientific and philosophical thought to share the Gospel more effectively in deeper faith.

The first meeting will be in the Cathedral Atrium. Please join us! For questions or to register, please contact Trevor Beach at 238-2702 or trevorbeach@stjohncathedral.org.

Habitat for Humanity

"Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit organization that helps families build and improve places to call home. We believe affordable housing plays a critical role in strong and stable communities."

The Family of Five Parishes is cosponsoring a house in 2024. Please consider volunteering your time and labor to help our neighbors in need of decent housing. Our next Habitat work date is Saturday, June 1, 8:00am – 3:00pm. For more information or to get notified about upcoming volunteer dates, please contact Tim Logman, our Family of Five Parishes coordinator, at logs56@earthlink.net. Please pray for those in need of housing and support within our communities!

Laudate Deum Reading & Discussion

In October 2023, Pope Francis released a second teaching document on the environment – Laudate Deum. This document builds on the Pope's 2015 encyclical on the environment entitled Laudate Si. As noted in America Magazine, Laudate Deum is a "precisely focused call to action, urging all people of good will to make greater efforts in relation to the climate crisis."

Please join us for reading this important teaching by Pope Francis on the environment and reflecting on its meaning in our lives and on our response to this call to action. The good news is that the document is short and can be obtained on the Vatican's website or purchased on Amazon. We will tackle it over the course of two evenings on Wednesday, May 22, and Wednesday, May 29, at 7:00pm in the parish center at Old St. Mary's. If you are interested in joining us, please contact Stacy Ward at stacyward@outlook.com. We hope to see you there!

Prison Ministry - Pen Pal

One Corporal Work of Mercy is visiting the imprisoned. While many of us will find it hard, or almost impossible, to even think of doing this, we are called as a people of God to reach out to those who are incarcerated. Our God and Church remind us that they are, as we are, people who are created in the image and likeness of God.

Over the past twenty-some years, I have been involved in jail / prison ministry. I have witnessed loneliness and heartbreak on the part of the person affected by a crime and those who have caused harm to someone. It is our God-given respect to assist those who are incarcerated to find their way back to God and society through us.

Though entering a jail or prison is not on everyone's want-to-do list, through letter writing, we may be able to let those who are incarcerated know that there is a world out there that cares about them.

If you want to be part of this Pen Pal ministry, please contact Deacon Tom Hunt at thunt51@sbcglobal.net.
