18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.” - Jn 6:33

Dear Sisters and Brothers,
Last Sunday, the gospel readings for Mass departed from the Gospel of Mark for a five-week reading of sections of chapter 6 of the Gospel of John. This chapter is known as the Bread of Life Discourse. This discourse follows Jesus' miracle of feeding the five thousand with five barley loaves and two fish.

In today's reading, Jesus declares himself to be the "bread of life" and that no one who comes to him will ever be hungry or thirsty again. He also teaches,

Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life. (Jn 6:53-54)

Did you notice that Jesus uses the present tense in these two sentences? The life Jesus imparts is not only a pledge of everlasting life. He teaches that when we eat his body and drink his blood, we have his life within us now. It is this share in his life that enables us to continue Jesus' mission of proclaiming the gospel in our world, bringing healing, forgiveness, justice, and love into the world around us. Thus, the Eucharist is not primarily an object for adoration; it is the food Christ gives us so that we can share his divine life today.

Remember this every time you receive the Eucharist. Christ himself is feeding us to strengthen and sustain us as we depart from Mass to live his life and mission in our everyday lives.

With my love,
Fr. Brian

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month.

In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love.

The group meets in person in the Parish Center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.) Our next meeting is Monday, August 5. For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577 x114.

Becoming Catholic

Are you or is someone you know interested in becoming Catholic? Do you know someone who is baptized but has never received their First Communion? Do you simply want to grow in an understanding of your faith?

OCIA, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a place where adults of any or no faith can explore questions of faith and prepare to join the Catholic Church.

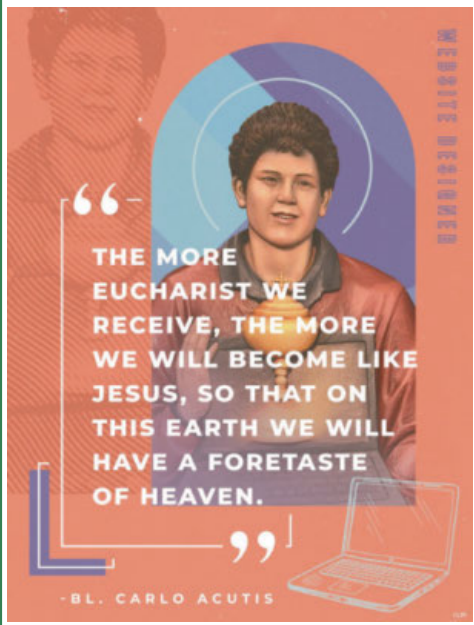

See the parish website for more details and contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, to get started: cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577.

House of Peace School Supply Drive

Capuchin Community Services is collecting school supplies from now until Friday, August 16 to help families send their children back to school with everything they need to be successful. Whether it be a new backpack, folders, pencils, or crayons, please consider visiting the link below and donating to this School Supplies Drive. On the website you will find a shopping list of school supplies: <https://www.capuchincommunityservices.org/en/drives/school-supplies/>.

You can drop these items off at the House of Peace at 1702 W Walnut Street, Milwaukee, WI 53205 before Friday, August 16. You may use the donation door on the 17 Street side of the building. There are also online registries; this is a great way to donate without needing to drop off the supplies yourself. The registries are with Target and Amazon. The links are on the website along with a way to make a direct gift in support of the School Supplies Drive. Thank you for helping our children receive the supplies they need for a successful 2024-2025 school year!

Prison Ministry

One of the Corporal Works of Mercy is visiting the imprisoned. While many of us will find this hard or almost impossible to even think of doing, we are called as a people of God to reach out to those who are incarcerated. Our God and Church still remind us that they are, as we are, people and created in the image and likeness of God.

Over the past 20-some years, I have been involved in Jail / Prison ministry. I have seen, and still see loneliness and heartbreak on the part of the person affected by a crime and those who have caused harm to someone. I believe it is our God-given duty to respect and assist those who are incarcerated to find their way back to God and society through us. While I know that entering a Jail or Prison is not on everyone's want-to-do list, I believe that through letter writing we may be able to let those who are incarcerated know that there is a world out there that cares about them. If you are being called and want to be part of this Pen Pal ministry, please contact me directly by emailing your name and phone number to:
thunt51@sbcglobal.net

Gratefully to you in Christ's name,

Deacon Tom

"Whatever you did for these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40)

SPRED

What is SPRED?

SPRED (Special Religious Development) is a small faith community which includes children or young adults with intellectual and development disabilities (SPRED friends) and catechists.

What does the SPRED community do?

- * Offers faith and spiritual formation where SPRED friends develop a sense of the sacred, Church, and Christ through friendships, scripture, and song.
- * Provides volunteer parishioners (catechists) an inviting place and opportunity to connect with SPRED friends
- * Gives ways to integrate SPRED friends in the liturgy.

We need SPRED Catechists!

We have SPRED groups at Our Lady of Divine Providence and Three Holy Women. Both groups are in need of more individuals to serve as catechists for our SPRED friends. In addition to two training meetings, the approximate time commitment for catechists is two monthly meetings from October – May.

To learn more about this very joy-filled and rewarding ministry, please see www.spredmilwaukee.org or contact Barb Walker, spredpartners3@gmail.com.

Congratulations and Farewell!

Celebrating Anh Clausen

After eight years of faithful service to our parishes, Anh Clausen will be stepping down from her role as Director of Family Ministry and Religious Formation at the end of this week. We are so grateful for all the work and care she has offered to families through UPLIFT Families, Good News Adventure, Beacon Mom's and the many other initiatives she has led.

Anh has been a gift to our staff and to those she has served in our parishes. While we are sad to see her leave our staff, we are grateful that she and her family will remain involved in our family of five parishes, and we are excited for her new role in the Office of Evangelization and Catechesis at the Archdiocese!

We invite you to thank Anh personally and to wish her well in her new role at the archdiocese:

We in our family of parishes are looking to help reach the unchurched, invite others into a real encounter with Jesus Christ, and help form true disciples through the help and guidance of the Holy Spirit. We are grateful to have the help of Fr. Brian Mason to assist in this effort to bring the joy of the Gospel to our entire human family in this community.

Our second Family of Five Missionary Discipleship group has finished their first Faith Study and will begin their second study this upcoming week. We are planning to expand from two groups to six groups by October. If you are interested in becoming part of a missionary discipleship group or if you are interested in learning more about sharing the life and love of Jesus Christ with others, especially those who most need him, please call or email Trevor Beach at 238-2702 or trevorbeach@stjohncathedral.org.
