24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” - Mk 8:34b

Pastor's Corner

Happy Sunday!

Somehow, we made it to the middle of September. I have no idea where summer went, and the school year is well on its way. For the rest of Ordinary Time, we continue to read the Gospel of Mark.

Today's second reading is a thought-provoking passage from the Letter of James. Among Christian denominations, there is great misunderstanding and debate about this passage. Does our faith or do our works save us? It has been long debated, and people have misunderstood this passage. Let me try to provide an answer to the debate on faith vs. works.

Some will say that today's passage proves that our work is what saves us. That is not what the passage is saying because we must understand it with the letters of Paul who says several times that our faith in Jesus Christ is what saves us and not our works. In the passage for today, James agrees with Paul while explaining it a little more. James agrees that faith saves you, as shown in the end passage, saying that he will show his faith. James adds that if you have true, genuine faith in Jesus Christ, your faith compels you to do good works for the glory of God.

The works do not save us, but if we truly have faith that Jesus Christ is our savior and our redemption, we will desire to do work to build up the kingdom of God. True faith does not lead to selfishness, but to a genuine gift of self to others as Christ gives his life to God for us.

I hope this helps in the debate of faith vs works. Have a great week!

God Bless,

Fr. Joseph

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love.

The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, September 16.

For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577 x114.

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic - Liam Callanan and Jon Sweeney

- Fr. Stephen Bevans

Our first night will be Wednesday, September 25, starting at 7:00pm. Author and creative writing professor, Liam Callanan, will join author and publisher, Jon Sweeney, to introduce this year's theme "The Catholic Imagination." Join us as we explore how we are invited to experience God's grace in the beauty of novels, music, visual arts, and poetry. Drinks and appetizers are provided.

Sharing the Gospel with the Youngest at Mass!

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLW) will be resuming soon in October. CLW is offered every Sunday during the 8:30am Mass at Three Holy Women Parish – St. Hedwig Church and 9:30am Mass at Saints Peter and Paul.

We are currently looking for more volunteers to help with this rewarding ministry. Please prayerfully consider offering your time and talents for this ministry of prayer. All training and resources are provided for this once or twice a month commitment.

During CLW, Kindergarteners through second graders are dismissed before the First Reading. The leader proclaims the readings from the Children's Lectionary and leads a discussion and reflection. Children then offer prayer intentions together before returning to their pews during the Offertory Collection.

If you have any questions or would like to join the CLW team, please contact Mamie Riyeff, Family Ministry Coordinator, at mriyeff@ffpmke.org or 962-2443 ext. 307.
