Dear friends,

Last Tuesday, October 1, we celebrated the memorial of Thérèse of the Child Jesus.

Saint Thérèse is also known as the "Little Flower" and the teacher of the Little Way. In a world that promotes visibility, influence, and power as the meters of success and a "good life," we celebrate a little one who did not spare words to speak about her own "littleness". She once said, "BECAUSE I was little and weak, Jesus stooped down to me and tenderly instructed me in the secrets of His Love."

What, then, led saint Thérèse to holiness? The grace of God, of course, and her great trust and faith in the Lord who casts down the mighty from thrones and lifts up the lowly (cf. Luke 1:52).

In the Gospels, we often hear the Lord speak about the little ones. The Lord once equated himself with them when he said, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40) and elsewhere he actually asked of his disciples: "Amen, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 18:3.)

The Little Way is by no means the way of childishness. Rather, it is a concrete way of taking up one's own cross to follow the Lord. In ancient Israel children were "invisible," with very few rights if any at all. When the Lord invites his disciples to become like little children, his invitation is to be willing to become invisible, the opposite of the power and influence that characterize the aspirations of many in our society today.

Saint Thérèse knows that the Little Way is narrow and it needs to be paved by the offering up of the daily sacrifices that so often come our way. As she herself says, "Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love."

May Thérèse's intercession obtain for us the grace to know how to walk the Little Way that leads to salvation.

With love,

Fr. Carlos

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, October 7.

For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577 x114.

Practical Skills and Knowledge Talks in Spanish & English at the Cathedral

Trevor Beach, Director of Evangelization, will offer his talk, "Coming to Know the Gospel: Sharing our Catholic Faith in Jesus", in Spanish on Oct 12 at 11am in the Cathedral Atrium after a 10am talk in Spanish by Luisa Rivera, "Managing Finances without Stress and Finding Joy in the Process."

Luisa Rivera

There will be summarized translations in English. There will be refreshments.

Questions? Write or call Trevor Beach at tbeach@ffpmke.org or 238-2702.

Becoming Catholic

Are you or is someone you know interested in becoming Catholic?

Do you know someone who is baptized but has never received their First Communion?

Do you simply want to grow in an understanding of your faith?

OCIA, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a place where adults of any or no faith can explore questions of faith and prepare to join the Catholic Church. Our sessions have started and we meet at 7:00pm in the parish center at Old St. Mary Parish (835 N Milwaukee St).

See the parish website for more details and contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, to get started: cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577.

Outreach

St. Vincent DePaul Love Story

Dave and I went to visit Steve in his new home. Steve fell on hard times and had been homeless for over a year. He lived in a park across the street from Repairers of the Breach on Vliet Street. Dave stayed in that area because he could go to Repairers for daytime refuge and use their resource center.

Repairers helped him with food, clothing, showers, and haircuts. They also helped him feel better about himself. Repairers eventually helped him out of homelessness and into a new place of his own.

Dave and I entered this new empty space with kitchen needs, curtains, towels and bedding. We had a full-size bed delivered. We made a safe, warm space into a home for Steve. Dave, Steve and I joined hands in prayer and thanksgiving at the end of our visit. I could feel the joy and hope for better times in the room. Steve is most grateful for his new home and for our help.

Steve has severe arthritis. He cannot work because of his diagnosis. Please keep Steve in your prayers.
