OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Pastor's Corner

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the 2024 liturgical year. We will begin a new Church year next weekend when we enter the Season of Advent.

Because I am still relatively new to the Family of Five Parishes, you may not know what I do aside from celebrating Mass. So, let me share with you some of the projects I will be working on in the new Church year:

- I am already working with Fr. Tim, Chad Griesel, and the Archdiocese of Milwaukee to renew our parish pastoral councils. Many of the structures and norms for pastoral councils have changed in recent years. This renewal will ensure that our councils are up to date and in line with archdiocesan expectations. This will take some formation for all our parishioners before we get these off the ground. We are looking to discern new members this spring, with the councils set to meet in August. Stay tuned.
- Trevor Beach, our FFP Director of Evangelization, and I will pilot the ALPHA Series in the new year. We will begin the first week of February and conclude early in Holy Week. ALPHA brings people together and helps them grow in their desire to know and follow Jesus more deeply through a meal, presentation, and small-group conversation. ALPHA is used around the world in both Catholic and other Christian communities, and I have seen the fruit it can produce. Our first task will be to form a prayer team that will pray for the participants and leaders before the series begins and while it takes place. You will be hearing more about this soon.
- Over the past few months, I have also been invited to speak at other parishes about addiction and recovery. It is time for me to do that for our five parishes, and I will do so in the year ahead.

On behalf of Fathers Tim, Carlos, and Joseph and our entire Family of Five Pastoral Staff, I would like to extend to you and your families our prayers and best wishes for a happy, blessed, and safe Thanksgiving celebration. All of us are most grateful for each and every one of you.

With my love,

Fr. Brian

Adult Formation

Over the past several months, about a dozen individuals have come forward to explore the Catholic faith and to discern whether they are being called to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church. In just a couple of weeks, they will celebrate their first public step in this process: The Rite of Entrance/Welcome.

As we prepare to enter into a new Church year next week, we are all invited to:

- ◇ pray for and welcome these individuals when we see them at Mass
- ◇ renew our own commitment to this community and to our relationship with God
- ◇ strive to be a witness of the love of God and neighbor that is at the heart of our faith

If you or someone you know would like to learn more about this process, please contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577 x114.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, December 2.

For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 271-6577 x114.

Bringing Joy and Smiles

Holiday Plant Delivery to our Homebound

Love Came Down at Christmas!

The story of Christmas is all about love, and how Jesus came down from the heavens above. We are delivering poinsettia plants to our parishioners who are homebound or living in health facilities. If you are interested, please join us on Saturday, December 14. We will deliver plants to and visit with our 200 parishioners who continue to be a vital part of our parish community.

Volunteers Welcomed!!!

Volunteers will meet for instructions in the Old St. Mary Parish Center, at 8:30am. With the plants we are asking volunteers to also bring the Eucharist to the parishioners who are homebound and living in health facilities. If you have never done this before—do not fear!!! A short formational training will be done before you depart for your visits. Pyx cases and prayer cards will also be provided for you.

To volunteer and/or verify that a parishioner is on shut-in delivery list, please call Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care at 469-6173 or email me at tbalash@ffpmke.org.

Help Need: Christmas Masses

If you are willing to help hand out a special gift and greet those coming to Mass at one of our parishes on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, please reach out to Trevor Beach at tbeach@ffpmke.org or 238-2702.

Healing Thoughts

*Grief is like a snowflake, because we all grieve
in our own unique way*

The Holidays are here and for those who are experiencing grief during the holidays for the first time, this will be a new experience for you.

Anyone who has experienced the death of a special person has “special days” that are harder to live through than others. Some of these days would be meaningless to someone else, but special to you and your family. I want to share information that I hope will be helpful and give each of us a new perspective on how to prepare ourselves and our families to experience this festive time of the year under new conditions.

Yes, your loved one died, but your love for him/her continues to live on. What can you or your family do to continue to make the loved one a part of your holiday? If the family can discuss this option and decided to do something special in memory of the person who died, it can be very comforting. Perhaps including a certain food item into the meal may help all to remember the person in a special way, especially if it is something non-traditional.

Can you even think of having fun, smiling or laughing without feeling guilty? Think back on the fun times you shared together. A smile and tear may come, but a sense of gratitude will come along with it. Something that is mentioned often is getting back to normal. What is the new normal? The old normal will not be able to be recreated, but the new normal may have its advantage. I am sure that if people are honest with themselves that they can admit some of the things in the old normal are worth letting go of. It takes a lot of energy to be on the grief journey. A lot of time is spent wondering how you are going to get through the holidays. Maybe spending time recreating the old holidays and doing things you always wanted to do will give you energy to try something new and enjoy it more. Whatever you decide to do, remember there are no “should” in grieving. Do whatever feels right. Include family and friends in on the planning and remain open to changing your plans as you go along.

I do not claim to have all the answers; but hopefully some of these suggestions will be helpful in planning for the days ahead. Praying for you in a special way. Please reach out if you need assistance. Terri Balash, Director of Pastoral Care tbalash@ffpmke.org.

Underneath, it says "presented by the Choir of the Cathedral and Sacra Nova Chorale" in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. The date and time are listed as "Sunday, Dec. 15, 2024 | 4PM". At the bottom, the address "Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist 812 N. Jackson St. Milwaukee, WI 53202" is provided. To the right of the address is a QR code.
