FEAST OF
the Annunciation of the Lord

Pastor's Corner

Dear friends,

This is now the third Sunday in Lent and a beautiful passage from the Gospel of John is presented to us at Mass, the one about the encounter between Jesus and the Samaritan woman.

I have only viewed a couple of episodes of the series, The Chosen, but the one episode on this encounter brought me to tears.

The Samaritan woman's self-esteem was at its lowest. She had been through five romantic relationships. Perhaps she fell in love those five times or maybe was forced into one of those five relationships. She had been disappointed, hurt and covered in shame. Why was she not drawing water from the well in the morning, like other women would do to avoid the heat of midday? She only dared to go to the well around noon because no one would be there to shame her and call her names.

One day, however, Jesus meets her at the well. The water her heart was thirsting for, the love she had been looking unsuccessfully in those five husbands had gone out of his way to meet her and tell her, "I am as thirsty for your love as you have been for mine".

Jesus, in fact, longs to love each of us wherever we are at. He longs to give us the water that will satiate our deepest longings. I bet it has been tiring to go around looking for love in wells that have only provided us with momentary relief. Now, Jesus is the one going out of his way to look for us and say to our face, "I thirst for you".

May this Lent and Easter be a time for us to quench the Lord's thirst for our hearts. Why not give our hearts to Jesus? We have given them to others in the past, and many times we have been left thirstier than ever before. Jesus, on the other hand, has given us in the cross a proof of his love for us.

With love,

Fr. Carlos

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic continues on Wednesday, April 9 at 7:00pm. As we continue to explore "The Catholic Imagination," we will be joined by Sr. Julia Walsh, author of For Love of the Broken Body and leader of last year's Lenten Mission. Sr. Julia will present "A Theology of Creativity."

Eat, Drink and Be Catholic offers women and men of all ages a casual opportunity to explore the Catholic faith. The hope is that at the end of each evening, individuals not only know more but are inspired and empowered to live out the faith we celebrate on Sundays more fully. To RSVP or to learn more, contact Chad Griesel, cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577 x1014.

Nutritious Meals Help Children Grow Healthy In Guatemala

In Santa María Chiquimula, Guatemala, over half the community is affected by malnutrition. Amid rising food prices and job loss, Ana Belén and her husband were struggling to provide for their growing family. But they saw a ray of hope through their participation in a Catholic Relief Services' program that helps them ensure their children are healthy and have the nutrition they need to thrive and play.

Lenten 2025 Door of Mercy

Matthew 25:36... in Prison and you visited me.

This year, our Lenten Almsgiving will focus on prison ministry, families of the incarcerated, and re-entry programs locally and worldwide. In this Jubilee Year 2025, "Pilgrims in Hope," Pope Francis has designated a set of Holy Doors at Rome's Rebibbia Prison. Pope Francis invites us to contemplate the belief of a Holy Door, a "Door of Mercy," in which anyone who enters will experience the love of God who consoles, pardons, and instills hope.

Deacon Tom and the Prison Ministry Team

Doing Time Together Ministry Team Reflections

I have been a member of the support team "Doing Time Together" for over 15 years. It is a wonderful group for anyone with an incarcerated family member or loved one. In the group, family members can share their stories in complete confidence and trust. Over the years, following the progress of the incarcerated when and if they return to society has been an enlightening experience; the success stories make my heart sing with joy. How do I know that one day, I may be the person with the stories to tell and not the listener?
- Carol Pellegrini

I appreciate my part in the Doing Time ministry. I have learned a lot by listening to parents talk of their shame and hurt caused by the trauma endured when a child or loved one is in prison. I hope to bring them some kindness and hope of the Savior. We share stories and give hope and love to each other. Please keep us in your prayers.
- Mary Norman

For most of us, this is not an easy corporal work of mercy to carry out. Unfortunately, it is also difficult for families to accomplish as well. Obstacles for families are long drives, pre-approvals, confusing rules and regulations, clothing restrictions, limited physical contact, and meals from only vending machines. So, what can we do to improve the lives of the incarcerated and their families?

- Pray: Include in your daily prayers a petition that all who are imprisoned and their families know God's healing love.
- Support: Financial support for Cathedral Prison ministries and local re-entry programs. Consider giving a gift as part of your Lenten almsgiving.
- Volunteer: Extend yourself and volunteer with any of the Family of Five outreach programs. All of our outreach ministries serve people struggling to re-enter our community and their families.

Offer your support and compassion to people who are incarcerated, and all will be blessed.
- Mary Ann Delzer

Over the last six months, I have been attending Deacon Tom's "Doing Time Together" group, which is a place for those who have loved ones incarcerated. When someone is arrested, we often think about the prisoners themselves, how they might be getting what they deserved, or how unjustly they were prosecuted. What goes unnoticed is the impact on those whose loved ones are taken from their daily lives. By attending these group meetings, I've come to a much better understanding of this perspective and the hardships involved. Some participants, especially parents, are often blamed for their loved ones going to prison and cut off from friends. Having a loved one being sent to jail is in itself an isolating experience, but it is made worse by social exclusion. This group helps give those struggling with the imprisonment of someone they love a place to be able to talk about their unique daily struggles with others who understand what it's like. It is a place for community and unity where outside may be divisive and judgmental. Being a listener in this community has helped me become more empathetic and broadened my perspective of the brokenness of the world we live in and the grace God offers us all, even in difficult moments.

Adult Volunteers Needed for Good News Adventure (GNA)

GOOD NEWS ADVENTURE 2025: TRUE NORTH, JULY 21 – 25, 9:00am – 12:00pm Catholic East Elementary (2461 N. Murray Ave.)

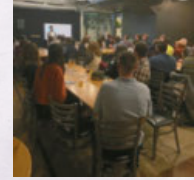

Family Faith Formation for the Family of Five Parishes is in real need of adult volunteers who are willing to help serve young families and kids for this fun, faith-filled summer Catholic Bible camp. Volunteers would become safe environment-trained, help prepare materials in advance, and/or help to serve during the week of GNA in July. We are praying for laborers in the vineyard who have some time, energy, and the joy of the Gospel to serve (even if simply through prayers).

For more information or questions, please contact Brianna Moreland: 414-962-2443 ext. 302, bmoreland@ffpmke.org.

Thank you so much for your consideration and also to the wonderful volunteers who stepped up the past two weekends at our First Communion Retreats!

Brewing the Faith April 1

All young adults in your 20s and 30s are welcome to come to Brewing the Faith on April 1 from 7:00 – 9:00pm at Broken Bat Brewery (135 E Pittsburgh Ave, Milwaukee, WI 53204). Invite your friends as we all “Grab a beer, hear a message, and meet your neighbor”. Email Nino Rebholz at nrebholz@ffpmke.org for more information.

The Shepherd And The Lost Sheep

Representatives from Bethlehem will be at Old St. Mary and the Cathedral, March 22-23, and at Three Holy Women (all sites) March 29-30, selling religious articles and other crafts from the region after all Masses. The last few years have been very tough for the Christian families. Sixty years ago, they made up 18% of the population but now are less than 2% of the population in the Holy Land due to events in the Middle East. The families are facing devastating economic strain since they relied on tourists to purchase their religious, hand-cared olive wood items as their only source of income. Wafa AISahouri has come to the US and is trying to help support these families by bringing their artifacts here to sell. All proceeds from sales are sent back to the families of the Holy Land so that they may be able to keep their homes and provide for their families. Please stop by after the Masses and look at the beautiful items being offered. Your support is a blessing for the native people of the Holy Land in Bethlehem.

Safe Environment Free Training Session April 1

For all interested in volunteering, leading, or serving in a liturgical ministry at our Family of Five Parishes, we are offering a free Safe Environment Live session on Tuesday, April 1 at 6:00pm in the Cathedral Atrium (812 N Jackson St.) enter through the Garden Gate to the left of the Cathedral's main entrance). For information or questions, please reach out to Trevor Beach at 414-238-2702 or tbeach@ffpmke.org.

Did You Know?

The Safe Environment Program in the Catholic Church is not only making our parishes and schools safe places for our children, youth, and vulnerable adults. We hope that all clergy, employees, and volunteers' task themselves with protecting the young and vulnerable in their workplaces, neighborhoods, communities, and even their own homes. Our goal is greater than just safe environments within the four walls of our parishes and schools, but safer communities for all God's children to live, learn and grow.

Uganda Needs Rosaries, T-shirts, and Tote Bags

Deacon Gary Nosacek and his wife, Dr. Cindy, will be returning to Padibe at the end of the month. The catechists there would like them to bring rosaries. They do 20 to 40 baptisms per week, ranging in age from infants to the elderly. Each person baptized receives a rosary.

Sr. Caroline, administrator of Ss. Peter & Paul Medical Clinic, has requested infant t-shirts, size 3-6 mo. and tote bags. T-shirts (not onesies) are needed because most mothers cannot afford plastic pants. Along with a blanket, a 3 foot bar of soap (in Uganda soap is 3 feet long and cut as needed) and a basin to bathe the baby are given to the mothers who give birth to their babies at the clinic.

Please off these items at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist office, 831 N. Van Buren St., in care of Idalia Nieves-Reyes, by Thursday March 26. Prayers for their mission trip are appreciated as well!

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St.). Our next meeting is Monday, April 7. For further information contact our Pastoral Associate, Chad Griesel, at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577 x114.
