THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." - Jn 6:51

Pastor's Corner

"Bring Him all the praise you know,
He is more than you bestow.
Never can you reach His due."

(Corpus Christi sequence Lauda Sion)

On this beautiful Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we are reminded of God's everlasting and overabundant generosity. The Eucharist reminds us so simply, as small as a little host, that the Eternal is really present to feed us, to support us, to unite us, to strengthen us, to comfort us, to challenge us!

Eternity present in the Now! And all we can say is WOW! We are loved by God who just wants to be part of our Now, with all its ambiguity and inconsistency, to remind us that Love is here, and love is possible, and love will last till we reach the Eternal Now, Heaven!

Sincerely,
Fr. Tim

We are so blessed to welcome our two new priests, associate pastors with Fr. Brian Mason, for the Family of Five:

Fr. Silas Henderson, SDS and Fr. Ariel Orozco

The four of us are so blessed to be your parish priests as we all work to bring Christ's presence to our parishes!

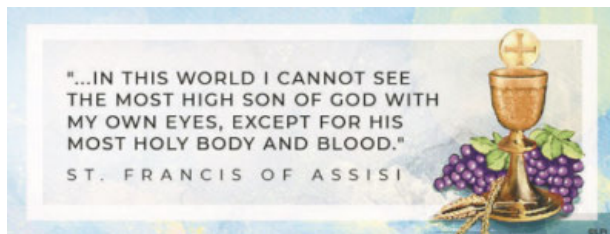

Thank You!

Hello Family of Five Parishes,

For two years it has been a privilege to be able to serve these parishes. I am thankful that God called me here for my first assignment as a priest. The great people of these parishes helped form me as a priest and I am forever thankful for your part in my formation. Thank you for everything. Many people have been generous by welcoming me into their homes, sending me cards and gifts, and spend countless hours praying for me. Again, I am forever grateful. Please know of my prayers during this time of transition for the parish and my final ask for everyone is to continue to pray for me.

God Bless,
Fr. Joseph

Creation Care Corner

Our Creation Care Team recently distributed 400 flower seed packets after Mass as a small but meaningful way to care for the earth. Planting flowers supports God's call to be stewards of creation. Beyond their beauty, flowers provide food and habitat for birds, bees, and other pollinators—creatures vital to our environment and food supply. About one-third of what we eat depends on pollinators. Planting flower seeds can be a spiritual act of faith and hope, showing how even small actions can bring beauty and purpose.

As your flowers bloom, let them remind you of our shared responsibility to protect creation. Interested in joining us? Contact Nick Wagner at nickwagner100@gmail.com.

Door of Gratitude

Lenten Way 2025 – Door of Mercy – Door of Gratitude

My team and I want to express our deepest gratitude for your prayers and financial contributions. Your gifts enable the Cathedral ministries to continue one of our Corporal Works of Mercy for the imprisoned, their families, and our broader community. Through your generosity, we were able to raise over $26,000. Please continue to pray for victims of crime and those who harm others. Pray for all to be healed, including all their families.

As always, your continued support is vital to keep this ministry alive and thriving. You can make a financial contribution using the green envelopes at each church entrance or by logging on to the Cathedral website. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to me directly at thunt51@sbcglobal.net or by phone/text 414-961-0332. May God continue to shower His blessings upon all here at the Family of Five Parishes.

Hospitality Center Meals at the Open Door Café

We are looking for a couple of families who would be willing to help us provide one meal a month for guests of our Friday Hospitality Center at the Open Door Café. Every Friday morning, from 8:30-10:00am, we serve between 25-40 meals. Additionally, we open our clothing closet and provide toiletry items, bus passes and other essentials to our guests in need. Most importantly, we offer a space of welcome, community and connection. If you would like to learn more about the Hospitality Center or about providing meals, contact Chad Griesel at cgriesel@ffpmke.org or 414-271-6577.
