14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'" - Lk 10:8-9

Pastor's Corner

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

July 15, 2012, is a day that is burned into my memory. That year, the Sunday gospel readings were from the Gospel of Mark, and on July 15, Mark's version of the sending of the disciples was proclaimed. (At Mass this weekend, we hear Luke's version proclaimed.)

As Jesus sends the disciples out to proclaim, "The kingdom of God is at hand for you," he tells them what they must leave behind. They were to leave behind their money bags, sacks, and even sandals for this journey. I wonder if that directive was confusing for those first disciples. How would they be able to do their work without these seemingly necessary items? Whatever their thoughts were at the beginning of their journey, they returned to Jesus full of excitement and rejoicing at what they had accomplished with the power he had given them. The power of the Lord enabled them to leave behind what they thought they needed, and their mission flourished.

This past June 27th, I celebrated thirteen years of sobriety from alcohol. When I proclaimed this gospel on July 15, 2012, it had been nineteen days since I had had a drink. I was not happy. I could not imagine what my life would be like if I could not drink alcohol. I had little optimism, little hope, and certainly no idea how God's power could work in me if I would only surrender to it. Yet, when I read this passage in 2012, it was as if the Lord was speaking directly to me. At that point in my life, the Lord invited me to trust in his power in a way I never had before.

The Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous has a listing of changes that will become apparent if we work the simple program of the 12 steps. One of those changes is, "We will suddenly realize that God is doing for us what we could not do for ourselves." I can honestly say that I have experienced God's power in countless ways over the past thirteen years. Leaving behind the alcohol was the first step. Similarly, those first disciples also experienced God's power working through them, and it began with leaving behind what they did not need.

What is God asking you to leave behind today? It may or may not be an addictive substance or behavior. Perhaps it is hardness of heart, intolerance, self-centeredness, doubt, or an inflated ego. If you're not sure, ask the Lord what he is inviting you to leave behind. When we decide to let go of what we think we cannot do without and surrender to God's power, we will suddenly realize that God is doing for us what we could not do for ourselves.

I am more than grateful for the love and support I have received from all of you in the Family of Five Parishes.

With my love,
Fr. Brian

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St).

Our next meeting is Monday, July 7.

Love Story

"All we have are five loaves of bread and two fish," they said.

Jesus said, "Bring them here."

Matthew 14: 17- 18

Randy and I were on our way to the store. "Look at that furniture at the curb! Do you see the four dining chairs? We need chairs. Let's check them out."

The chairs were sturdy and in excellent condition. We also saw the matching table and a smaller kitchen table nearby. Tables are rarely donated and difficult to find, but the car was full of chairs, so we had to leave the tables behind.

After dinner, we checked our SVDP request list and found Zena and her family. A call confirmed that Zena needed a table and chairs and other household items. When Randy and I delivered the four chairs to Zena's duplex apartment on 4th and North Avenue, we met Zena and her husband Jake. What a treat to meet such fine young people! We told them about the tables.

Jake has a truck, so we asked if he could pick up the tables. We gave him the address. Our plan was to meet him and help with the lifting. We arrived at the address before Jake. We started looking at a beautiful quilted red floral loveseat at the same curb. It was not torn, worn or soiled. Lifting the bottom cushion and seeing the label revealed its value. I called Zena and asked if she could use a loveseat. "Yes!" She was thrilled.

When Jake arrived with his brother, the owner of the home came outside to greet us all. He told us that he was moving and was getting rid of everything in his house. We found out later that he invited Jake and his brother into his house where he offered them a leather recliner. Jake's truck was full on the way home with a dining room table, a kitchen table, a recliner and a loveseat – all in excellent condition.

The story gets even better. Zena is expecting a child next month. She needs a crib. I told Zena we might not be able to help with a crib as we rarely have cribs donated. However, when Randy and I visited the storeroom at St. Hedwig the next day, there it was, standing against the wall – a beautiful new crib with a brand-new mattress, just waiting for Zena, Jake and their new baby.

I have thought many times, "That's how Saint Vincent de Paul works, just like the story of 'The Loaves and the Fishes.'"

Did you know?

St. Maria Goretti preferred death rather than offend God as she refused Alessandro Serenelli's advances and he stabbed her multiple times. Before dying from the assault, she forgave Alessandro and prayed he would repent and go to heaven. Alessandro not only repented of his sin, but grew in holiness and was present at St. Maria Goretti's canonization. He sat next to Maria's mother, Assunta, who also forgave him.

Pope's July Intention For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.
