16th Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. - Lk 10:38-39

Pastor's Corner

“All things were created through him and for him”
(Col 1:16)

In the Gospel proclaimed this Sunday, we hear about Jesus' visit to the home of his friends Martha and Mary in Bethany. Martha, a dedicated host, embodies the importance of hospitality in the Ancient Near East, while Mary places herself at the feet of Jesus so that she can take in all that Jesus is teaching. Both women were being attentive to the presence of Jesus, each in her own way.

As we reflect on this story, we might think of what it has to say to us about life today. After all, this passage from Luke's Gospel isn't simply a story about Jesus dropping in for a weekend away from the crowds. Instead, this story is a lesson in discipleship, inviting us to reflect on how we recognize and welcome Jesus as he comes to us today. There are many ways Jesus is present to us. This obviously includes how he comes to us in the proclaimed Word and in the Eucharist, as well as how we experience his divine presence in prayer. But we also encounter Jesus in those whom we are called to serve, as well as in the poor, the sick, the imprisoned, refugees, and all those who need our love.

The question before us—posed by the figures of Mary and Martha—is this: Are you creating a space for Jesus, paying attention to him and serving his needs, here and now, in whatever way he comes to you?

In the Divine Savior,
Fr. Silas, SDS

St. Vincent de Paul Society of Milwaukee

"Home Visits" are always made in pairs.

SVDP was founded with Blessed Frederic Ozanam's simple principle, and the first activity was an act in imitation of Jesus Christ. "We will do what is most agreeable to God," he said. "Therefore, we must do what our Lord Jesus Christ did when preaching the Gospel. Let us go to the poor." Our model of visitation, then, follows the model Christ gave to his disciples, first the twelve, and later the seventy-two, whom He sent out not alone, but in pairs.

St. Vincent gives us keen insight into Christ's reason for this, explaining that by traveling in pairs, we can practice charity towards one another. We show we are Christians by our love for one another, extended to the neighbor in need.

There are also very practical reasons for visiting in pairs, primarily the ability to see the neighbor, and the situation, from two different perspectives. Most of us have observed that we grow closer to friends when we share activities like conversation, travel or sharing a meal. Blessed Frederic explains, "If two or three come together to do good, their union will be perfect."

Coming together among ourselves, and then extending ourselves to our neighbor, is at the heart of the home visit. We always are surprised how much of their story they will share with us and in conversations. We see how alike we are in many things; family is important, safety, a good home, and education are what they want for their children too.

Reflecting on the Sunday Readings

We invite individuals to share and reflect on the upcoming Sunday readings on the first and third Mondays of each month. In a small group setting, we break open God's Word, allowing it to speak to our lives and to challenge us to grow in our understanding of who God is, who we are, and how God is calling us to love. The group meets in person in the parish center at Old St. Mary beginning at 7:00pm (835 N Milwaukee St).

Our next meeting is Monday, July 21.
