Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

John's Gospel tells us that after Jesus died "one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water." The evangelist reflects on this in light of Zechariah 12:10, "I will pour out a spirit of compassion and supplication... and they shall look on him whom they have pierced."

It is here that we see the beginnings of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, pierced on the cross. The pierced side of Jesus – portrayed dramatically in our Cathedral crucifix – opens his heart to us and reveals God's commitment in love for us.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus did not become widespread until 1673, when Christ appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a Visitation nun. Margaret Mary had three visions of Jesus inviting her and the Church to this Sacred Heart devotion. In the first of these visions, Christ invited her to rest her head on his chest and listen to the beating of his heart. The date was December 27, the Feast of St. John the Evangelist.

It is to this Sacred Heart of Jesus, the heart of the Pierced One, the heart that beats with love for his people, that the Bishops of the United States consecrated our nation this past Thursday, the Eve of the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart. In this, the bishops invite us to give thanks for our country, in all its human goodness and imperfection. They ask us to seek forgiveness and healing for all those hearts pierced by injustice in this country. And they call us to "justice, fraternity and solidarity," for "God has a special place in his heart for those who are discriminated against and oppressed, and he asks us, his Church, to make a decisive and radical choice in favor of the weakest" (Pope Leo XIV, Dilexi Te #16).

In these days between June 11 and July 4, I invite you to pray for our country, invoking the Sacred Heart of Jesus. May his Sacred Heart be known and loved in all the hearts of our nation.

In Christ,

Fr. Edward

Estimados hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

El Evangelio de San Juan nos dice que, después de que Jesús murió, "uno de los soldados le atravesó el costado con una lanza y al instante brotó sangre y agua". El evangelista reflexiona sobre esto a la luz de Zacarías 12:10, "Derramaré un espíritu de compasión y súplica... y mirarán a aquel a quien traspasaron".

Es aquí donde vemos los inicios de la devoción al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, traspasado en la cruz. El costado traspasado de Jesús — representado de manera dramática en el crucifijo de nuestra Catedral — nos abre su corazón y nos revela el compromiso de amor de Dios hacia nosotros.

La devoción al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús no se difundió ampliamente hasta 1673, cuando Cristo se apareció a Santa Margarita María de Alacoque, religiosa de la Orden de la Visitación. Margarita María tuvo tres visiones en las que Jesús la invitaba a ella y a la Iglesia a esta devoción al Sagrado Corazón. En la primera de estas visiones, Cristo la invitó a recostar la cabeza sobre su pecho y a escuchar el latido de su corazón. Era el 27 de diciembre, fiesta de San Juan Evangelista.

A este Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, el corazón del Traspasado, el corazón que late de amor por su pueblo, consagraron a nuestra nación los Obispos de los Estados Unidos el pasado jueves, víspera de la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón. Con este gesto, los obispos nos invitan a dar gracias por nuestro país, con toda su bondad humana y sus imperfecciones. Nos piden buscar el perdón y la sanación para todos aquellos corazones traspasados por la injusticia en este país. Y nos llaman a la "justicia, la fraternidad y la solidaridad", pues "Dios se preocupa particularmente de aquellos que son discriminados y oprimidos, pidiéndonos también a nosotros, su Iglesia, una opción firme y radical en favor de los más débiles" (Papa León XIV, Dilexi Te #16).

Entre el 11 de junio y el 4 de julio, les invito a rezar por nuestro país invocando al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Que su Sagrado Corazón sea conocido y amado en todos los corazones de nuestra nación.

En Cristo,

P. Edward
