Pastor's Letter / Carta del Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

The 2018 movie A Quiet Place portrays a family in hiding, trying to avoid the apocalyptic destruction brought by extra-terrestrial creatures. The creatures hunt by sound – the slightest noise attracts them, and they soon destroy whatever made the sound. The young boy, Marcus, grows up in this family, hiding from the creatures, afraid to make any noise and paralyzed in fear. His father (played by John Krasinski) sees this and, one day, he leads Marcus up to the river, and from the river to a waterfall. Hidden in a crevice behind the waterfall, the father yells out at the top of his lungs. Marcus is terrified. He flinches, looking with horror at his dad, his eyes wide with fear. “Hey,” his dad says, “you’re all right. You’re all right, I promise.” He knows that the sound of the waterfall drowns out their voices from being heard by the monsters. He looks at the waterfall, and Marcus too yells out. He is free, crying out in his own voice, protected and secure by the water flowing around him.

I find this scene a beautiful image of baptism, of fatherhood, and of freedom. “Fear no one!” Jesus says today. In a world that tries to stir up so many fears – fear of rejection, fear of failure, fear of poverty – Jesus says, “fear no one.” Jesus can say this because he himself lives not in fear but in freedom, a freedom based in his absolute confidence in the presence and care of his heavenly Father.

What is the task of a father? To teach their sons and daughters the freedom of Baptism. To show their children, by word and example, that under the waterfall of God’s delight and protection, you can live free from fear. The father says to his children “You’re all right – do not be afraid.” The father calls us to authenticity and boldness: “Speak in the light...proclaim on the housetops...do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul!”

Fathers, may we give our sons and daughters this confidence. “Fear no one!” And may we root ourselves in the faith that gives that confidence – the fact that God has called us his beloved sons, that we live under the power and direction of Christ’s Holy Spirit, that we can live boldly because of the waterfall of God’s grace that surrounds us.

Fr. Edward

Queridos feligreses,

La película de 2018 “A Quiet Place” (“Un lugar en silencio”, en Español) retrata a una familia que vive escondida, tratando de evitar la destrucción apocalíptica causada por criaturas extraterrestres. Estas criaturas cazan guiándose por el sonido: el más mínimo ruido las atrae y pronto destruyen aquello que lo produjo. El joven Marcus crece en esta familia ocultándose de las criaturas, temeroso de hacer cualquier ruido y paralizado por el miedo. Su padre (interpretado por John Krasinski) se da cuenta de esto y, un día, lleva a Marcus hasta el río y, desde allí, a una cascada. Escondido en una grieta detrás de la cascada, el padre grita con todas sus fuerzas. Marcus está aterrorizado. Se estremece y mira a su padre con horror, con los ojos muy abiertos por el miedo. “Oye”, le dice su padre, “estás bien. Estás bien, te lo prometo”. Él sabe que el sonido de la cascada ahoga sus voces, impidiendo que los monstruos las escuchen. Mira la cascada y Marcus también grita. Se siente libre, gritando con su propia voz, protegido y seguro gracias al agua que fluye a su alrededor.

Considero que esta escena es una hermosa imagen del bautismo, de la paternidad y de la libertad. “¡No teman a nadie!”, dice hoy Jesús. En un mundo que intenta despertar tantos temores —miedo al rechazo, miedo al fracaso, miedo a la pobreza—, Jesús dice: “No teman a nadie”. Jesús puede decir esto porque él mismo no vive con miedo, sino en libertad; una libertad basada en su confianza absoluta en la presencia y el cuidado de su Padre celestial.

¿Cuál es la tarea de un padre? Enseñar a sus hijos e hijas la libertad del Bautismo. Mostrarles, con palabras y con el ejemplo, que bajo la cascada del deleite y la protección de Dios, se puede vivir libre de miedo. El padre les dice a sus hijos: “Están bien; no tengan miedo”. El padre nos llama a la autenticidad y a la valentía: “Hablen a plena luz... proclamen desde las azoteas... ¡no teman a los que matan el cuerpo pero no pueden matar el alma!”.

Padres, que podamos transmitir esta confianza a nuestros hijos e hijas. “¡No teman a nadie!”. Y que podamos arraigarnos en la fe que nos da esa confianza: el hecho de que Dios nos ha llamado sus hijos amados, de que vivimos bajo el poder y la guía del Espíritu Santo de Cristo, y de que podemos vivir con valentía gracias al torrente de la gracia de Dios que nos rodea.

P. Edward
