Dear friends in Christ,

The Cathedral plays an essential role in the city of Milwaukee: a place where the community can come to encounter the living God. As we begin our fiscal year on July 1st, I want to be open with you about the financial status of the Cathedral and commit to providing you with regular updates as the year progresses. We are budgeting a deficit of about $117,000. The reasons for this are varied but straightforward; we need the Cathedral in today's world to be financially sound.

The Cathedral is a historic building and campus, and the team here must work tirelessly to maintain its lighting, HVAC systems, plumbing and more. The Cathedral Mass is renowned for its beauty, giving people an experience of the glory of God and a moment of transcendent music, peace, and connection every single week. The Cathedral offers formation and teaching, bringing people together to learn from God those principles that make for peace in a world spinning between war, loneliness, new technological frontiers, and the perennial questions of how to live a good life. And finally, the Cathedral staff and volunteers serve a loving meal to those in need every week, Sunday through Friday, in the Open Door Café.

This is a picture of what the Church is meant to be. It's a picture of what humanity is meant to be. The world needs these places of connection and transcendence more than ever. In the last six months, with the Cathedral as its own parish again, the sense of family and the sense of mission have grown tremendously. If you are a supporter of the Cathedral, I ask you to please prayerfully consider increasing your support. If you have not yet supported the Cathedral, please prayerfully consider giving. Know that I am here for you as your pastor, and however I can serve you and your spiritual needs, I am available.

May God bless all of our offerings – we entrust to him all of our needs, all of our poverty, and all of our generosity. In the end, the work is the Lord's. With him, and with all who are blessed by the Cathedral, I ask for your help.

May God bless you,

Fr. Edward

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

La Catedral desempeña un papel esencial en la ciudad de Milwaukee: es un lugar donde la comunidad puede acudir para encontrarse con el Dios vivo. Al comenzar nuestro año fiscal el 1 de julio, deseo ser franco con ustedes sobre la situación financiera de la Catedral y me comprometo a mantenerlos informados periódicamente a medida que avance el año. Hemos presupuestado un déficit de aproximadamente $117,000. Las razones de esto son variadas pero claras; necesitamos que la Catedral tenga solidez financiera en el mundo actual.

La Catedral es un edificio y un complejo histórico, y el equipo se esfuerza incansablemente por mantener la iluminación, los sistemas de climatización, la plomería y más. Las misas en la Catedral son reconocidas por su belleza, brindando a los fieles una experiencia de la gloria de Dios y un momento de música trascendental, paz y conexión, cada semana. La Catedral ofrece formación y educación, reuniendo a las personas para aprender de Dios aquellos principios que fomentan la paz en un mundo que oscila entre la guerra, la soledad, las nuevas fronteras tecnológicas y las preguntas perennes sobre cómo vivir una vida plena. Por último, el personal y los voluntarios de la Catedral sirven una comida llena de amor a los necesitados cada semana, de domingo a viernes, en el Open Door Café.

Esta es una imagen de lo que la Iglesia está destinada a ser. Es una imagen de lo que la humanidad está destinada a ser. El mundo necesita estos lugares de conexión y transcendencia más que nunca. En los últimos seis meses, con la Catedral nuevamente como su propia parroquia, el sentido de familia y el sentido de misión han crecido enormemente. Si eres un seguidor de la Catedral, te pido que por favor consideres, en oración, aumentar tu apoyo. Si aún no has apoyado a la Catedral, por favor considera, en oración, hacer una donación. Sepan que estoy aquí para ustedes como su pastor, y que puedo servirles en lo que necesiten espiritual o personalmente.

Que Dios bendiga todas nuestras ofrendas: le encomendamos todas nuestras necesidades, toda nuestra pobreza y toda nuestra generosidad. Al final, el trabajo es del Señor. Con él, y con todos los que son bendecidos por la Catedral, les pido su ayuda.

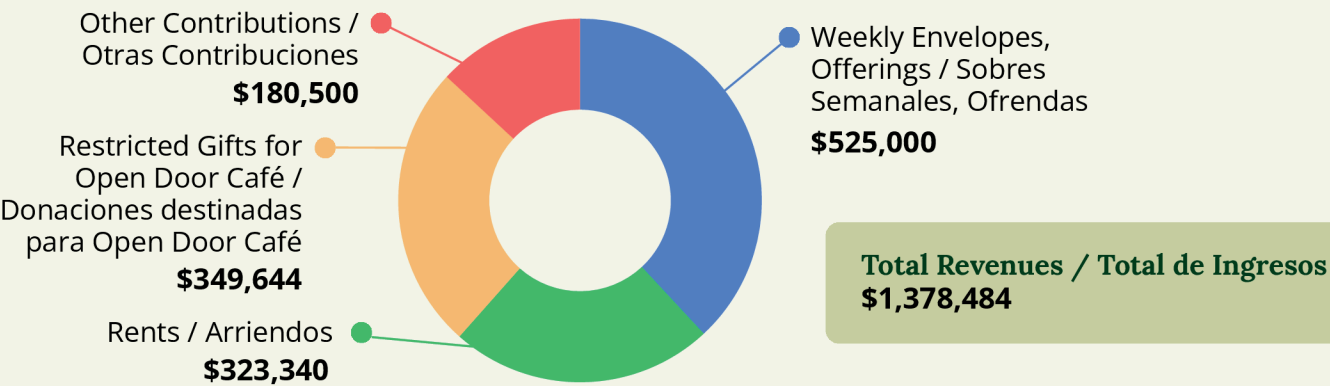

Que Dios los bendiga,

P. Edward
