Dear parishioners,

On behalf of the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, I want to congratulate Erika Pyzik on receiving the Vatican II Award for Missionary Leadership. The award describes her as "a leader who demonstrates innovation, collaboration, pastoral sensitivity, and exemplary service beyond our walls on a local, national, global, or ecumenical level, making a positive impact in the world through evangelization, service, charity, and love." I could not agree more. Erika is a leader! In my brief time at the Cathedral, I have seen her lead with kindness and generosity, demonstrate faithfulness to God through her presence at Mass, show commitment to her family and friends, and show not only compassion but also a commitment to serving those in need.

Her presence truly makes this Cathedral a better place, and her witness calls all of us to greater awareness and action for the most vulnerable, and to remember that the vulnerable we are called to serve may not be the most visible or convenient, but require intentionality, planning, and the ability to cross geographical, cultural, and socio-economic boundaries.

As the award Erika received is named in honor of Pope Francis, I offer this quote from his 2015 Lenten Message: "Dear brothers and sisters, how greatly I desire that all those places where the Church is present, especially our parishes and our communities, may become islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference!". Her presence and witness are helping to form La Sagrada Familia and the Dominican Republic as "an island of mercy," and are helping this Cathedral community to be an island of mercy as well.

May God bless all of you, and our sincere congratulations to Erika on an award well earned!

Fr. Edward

Queridos parroquianos y parroquianas,

En nombre de la Catedral de San Juan Evangelista, quiero felicitar a Erika Pyzik por haber recibido el Premio Concilio Vaticano II al Liderazgo Misionero. El premio la describe como "una líder que demuestra innovación, colaboración, sensibilidad pastoral y un servicio ejemplar más allá de nuestros muros, ya sea a nivel local, nacional, mundial o ecuménico, generando un impacto positivo en el mundo a través de la evangelización, el servicio, la caridad y el amor". No podría estar más de acuerdo. ¡Erika es una verdadera líder! En el breve tiempo que llevo en la Catedral, la he visto liderar con amabilidad y generosidad, demostrar su fidelidad a Dios mediante su asistencia a Misa, mostrar compromiso con su familia y amigos, y manifestar no solo compasión, sino también una firme voluntad de servir a los necesitados.

Su presencia realmente hace de esta Catedral un lugar mejor; su testimonio nos invita a todos a tomar mayor conciencia y a actuar en favor de los más vulnerables, recordándonos que aquellos a quienes estamos llamados a servir, quizás no sean los más visibles o accesibles, pero requieren intencionalidad, planificación y la capacidad de trascender las barreras geográficas, culturales y socioeconómicas.

Dado que el premio que recibió Erika lleva el nombre del Papa Francisco, comparto esta cita de su Mensaje de Cuaresma de 2015: "Queridos hermanos y hermanas, ¡cuánto deseo que todos aquellos lugares donde la Iglesia está presente, especialmente nuestras parroquias y nuestras comunidades, se conviertan en islas de misericordia en medio del mar de la indiferencia!". Su presencia y su testimonio están contribuyendo a que la Sagrada Familia y la República Dominicana se conviertan en "una isla de misericordia", y están ayudando a que esta comunidad de la Catedral también lo sea.

¡Que Dios los bendiga a todos y todas, y nuestras más sinceras felicitaciones a Erika por este merecido premio!

P. Edward
