Archbishop's Letter

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On this Respect Life Sunday, we are invited to reflect on the sacredness and dignity of every human life. This year, I want to draw your attention to an issue gaining momentum throughout the world and here in the United States: the legalization of assisted suicide. Legislation to make assisted suicide legal was passed in Illinois last year and has recently been proposed here in Wisconsin. It is an issue that deserves the attention of every Catholic.

The Catholic Church teaches that intentionally causing the death of an innocent person is always wrong, regardless of the circumstances or the person's condition. Our lives are gifts from God, and our worth does not depend upon our health, independence, productivity, or ability to avoid suffering. We remain beloved sons and daughters of God when we are seriously ill, disabled, elderly, or approaching death. For this reason, the Church cannot support assisted suicide. At the same time, our response must be about more than public policy. We must ask: How can we better accompany people who are suffering and support those who are caring for them?

When someone is facing serious or terminal illness, that person needs to know that he or she is not a burden. Families need support. Patients need compassionate medical care, including appropriate palliative and hospice care, that seeks to relieve suffering while respecting the dignity of the person. No one should feel that death is the only way to escape pain, loneliness, or fear. We know that suffering and death do not have the final word. Jesus Christ entered fully into human suffering and death, and through his Resurrection transformed them. In Christ, even the hour of death is illuminated by the promise of eternal life.

I encourage every Catholic to take time to learn more about assisted suicide and the Church's teaching on human dignity, compassionate care, and end-of-life decisions. Throughout October, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will offer information and opportunities for reflection, including presentations at parishes throughout the archdiocese. Watch our social media and your parish bulletin for details, and visit the archdiocese website to learn more.

Join me in praying for all who face serious illness, those who care for them, and those who mourn the loss of a loved one. May the Lord give us the courage and compassion to protect life, accompany those who suffer, and proclaim with confidence the hope of the Resurrection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Jeffrey S. Grob
Archbishop of Milwaukee

Our lives are gifts from God.

Assisted suicide, which denies the dignity of human life, is gaining influence in our world.

This Respect Life Month, we are reminded that intentionally causing the death of an innocent person is always wrong, regardless of the circumstances or a person's condition.

Throughout October, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee is providing opportunities to learn more, including presentations at parishes. Go to www.archmil.org/love-until-the-last-breath for details.

Carta del Arzobispo

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

En este Domingo de Respeto a la Vida, se nos invita a reflexionar sobre el carácter sagrado y la dignidad de cada vida humana. Este año, deseo llamar su atención sobre un tema que está cobrando fuerza en todo el mundo y aquí en los Estados Unidos: la legalización del suicidio asistido. El año pasado se aprobó en Illinois una legislación para legalizar el suicidio asistido y recientemente se ha propuesto aquí en Wisconsin. Es un tema que merece la atención de todos los católicos.

La Iglesia Católica enseña que causar intencionalmente la muerte de una persona inocente es siempre inaceptable, independientemente de las circunstancias o de la condición de la persona. Nuestras vidas son regalos de Dios, y nuestro valor no depende de nuestra salud, independencia, productividad o capacidad para evitar el sufrimiento. Seguimos siendo hijos e hijas amados de Dios cuando estamos gravemente enfermos, discapacitados, ancianos o nos acercamos a la muerte. Por esta razón, la Iglesia no puede respaldar el suicidio asistido. Al mismo tiempo, nuestra respuesta no puede limitarse a las leyes y políticas públicas. Debemos preguntarnos: ¿Cómo podemos acompañar mejor a las personas que sufren y apoyar a quienes las cuidan?

Cuando alguien se enfrenta a una enfermedad grave o terminal, esa persona necesita saber que no es una carga. Las familias necesitan apoyo. Los pacientes necesitan una atención médica compasiva, que incluya cuidados paliativos y de hospicio adecuados, que busque aliviar el sufrimiento respetando al mismo tiempo la dignidad de la persona. Nadie debería sentir que la muerte es la única forma de escapar del dolor, la soledad o el miedo. Sabemos que el sufrimiento y la muerte no tienen la última palabra. Jesucristo entró de lleno en el sufrimiento y la muerte humanos, y a través de su Resurrección los transformó. En Cristo, incluso la hora de la muerte está iluminada por la promesa de la vida eterna.

Animo a todos los católicos a tomarse el tiempo para aprender más sobre el suicidio asistido y la enseñanza de la Iglesia sobre la dignidad humana, la atención compasiva y las decisiones al final de la vida. A lo largo de octubre, la Arquidiócesis of Milwaukee ofrecerá información y oportunidades de reflexión, incluyendo presentaciones en parroquias por toda la archidiócesis. Estén atentos a nuestras redes sociales y al boletín de su parroquia para conocer los detalles, y visiten el sitio web de la archidiócesis para obtener más información.

Únanse a mí en oración por todos los que se enfrentan a una enfermedad grave, por quienes los cuidan y por quienes lloran la pérdida de un ser querido. Que el Señor nos dé el valor y la compasión para proteger la vida, acompañar a los que sufren y proclamar con confianza la esperanza de la Resurrección.

Fraternalmente en Cristo,

Most Reverend Jeffrey S. Grob
Arzobispo de Milwaukee

Nuestras vidas son regalos de Dios.

El suicidio asistido, una práctica que niega la dignidad de la vida humana, está cobrando cada vez más fuerza en el mundo actual. En este Mes de Respeto a la Vida, se nos recuerda que causar intencionalmente la muerte de una persona inocente es siempre inaceptable, independientemente de las circunstancias o de la condición de la persona.

A lo largo de octubre, la Arquidiócesis of Milwaukee brindará oportunidades para aprender más, incluyendo presentaciones en parroquias. Visite www.archmil.org/love-until-the-last-breath para más detalles.
