Dear parishioners,

What is the purpose of the Cathedral? Much more than a building, this church is a living symbol: a symbol of the city of Milwaukee and of southeastern Wisconsin, a sign of the 2,000-year-old community of Catholic disciples, a representation of the human offering of praise and thanksgiving to God. Above all, this church is a place of encounter with God. As I think about the rich history of this Cathedral, here are just a few illustrations:

1. In the 1980s and 90s, Fr. Mike Hammer and the Cathedral community supported, prayed for, and welcomed individuals who were suffering with HIV/AIDS. They found Jesus in these suffering neighbors, and people who felt dismissed and marginalized found the hospitality of God. Hospitality is an essential part of the mission and history of the Cathedral.

2. In January 1891, Elizabeth Black, a parishioner of the Cathedral, died. Her husband, John, wanting to honor her life and to leave a lasting legacy, pledged the equivalent of $300,000 for the rebuilding of the Cathedral Tower. Since the 1890s, "Elizabeth's Tower" has honored her life and offered architectural beauty to each passerby. The beauty of this Cathedral – architectural, musical, and liturgical – has lifted people's eyes and lifted their spirits for over a century.

3. In 1842, even before this Cathedral was built, Fr. Martin Kundig organized catechism and instruction classes in the basement of Old St. Peter's, the initial temporary cathedral. Here at St. John's, a girls' school and boys' school would follow, as well as Cathedral High School, which has left a strong legacy of alumni across the city. Since the beginning, people hungry for education and mentorship have found the truth of God at this Cathedral.

With this, I offer the following as the essence of the Cathedral mission: "a place of encounter with God through beauty, truth, and hospitality." For me, this sums up what the Cathedral has been and what the Cathedral is called to be.

I invite you to reflect on how you have seen this mission lived out yourself, and to come to our Town Hall Meeting on Monday, October 19, at 6:30 PM in the Atrium, as we look to the future and discuss what living this mission will look like in the year to come.

May God bless you,

Fr. Edward

Queridos parroquianos y parroquianas,

¿Cuál es el propósito de la Catedral? Mucho más que un edificio, esta iglesia es un símbolo vivo: un símbolo de la ciudad de Milwaukee y del sureste de Wisconsin, un signo de la comunidad de discípulos Católicos con dos mil años de historia, una representación de la ofrenda humana de alabanza y acción de gracias a Dios. Sobre todo, esta iglesia es un lugar de encuentro con Dios. Al reflexionar sobre la rica historia de esta Catedral, presento algunos ejemplos:

1. En las décadas de 1980 y 1990, el Padre Mike Hammer y la comunidad de la Catedral apoyaron, oraron y acogieron a personas que sufrían de VIH/SIDA. Encontraron a Jesús en estos prójimos que sufrían, y aquellas personas que se sentían rechazadas y marginadas hallaron la hospitalidad de Dios. La hospitalidad es una parte esencial de la misión y la historia de la Catedral.

2. En enero de 1891 falleció Elizabeth Black, feligresa de la Catedral. Su esposo, John, deseando honrar la vida de ella y dejar un legado duradero, donó una suma equivalente a 300.000 dólares para la reconstrucción de la Torre de la Catedral. Desde la década de 1890, la "Torre de Elizabeth" ha honrado su memoria y ha ofrecido belleza arquitectónica a los transeúntes. La belleza de esta Catedral, arquitectónica, musical y litúrgica, ha elevado la mirada y el espíritu de las personas durante más de un siglo.

3. En 1842, incluso antes de que se construyera esta Catedral, el P. Martin Kundig organizó clases de catecismo e instrucción en el sótano de la antigua iglesia de San Pedro, Old St. Peter's, que servía como catedral provisional. Aquí, en San Juan Evangelista, se establecieron posteriormente escuelas para niñas y niños, así como la Cathedral High School, institución que ha dejado un importante legado de exalumnos en toda la ciudad. Desde el principio, personas ávidas de educación y orientación han encontrado la verdad de Dios en esta Catedral.

Por todo ello, defino la esencia de la misión de la Catedral de la siguiente manera: "un lugar de encuentro con Dios a través de la belleza, la verdad y la hospitalidad". Para mí, esto resume lo que la Catedral ha sido y lo que está llamada a ser.

Les invito a reflexionar sobre cómo ustedes han visto esta misión en la práctica, y a asistir a nuestra Asamblea Parroquial, el lunes 19 de octubre a las 6:30 PM en el Atrio, para mirar hacia el futuro y conversar sobre cómo viviremos esta misión en el año venidero.

Que Dios les bendiga,

P. Edward
