Pastor's Letter / Carta del Pastor

Dear friends of the Cathedral,

I have tried to capture something of the mission of the Cathedral with the words "beauty, truth, and hospitality." Here is how I think about those words:

Beauty: The experience of beauty draws us out of ourselves and leads us to behold the Transcendent. Through the beauty of the Cathedral architecture, the Cathedral Fine Arts, and parish fellowship, we are prepared to enter the transcendence of the Eucharistic Liturgy, enabled to recognize the radiance of Christ in the Eucharist, and empowered to see the beauty of every person. The Gospel and Letters of our patron, St. John the Evangelist, emphasize the "glory" of God, which is another way of saying God's beauty and radiance: "For we have seen his glory, the glory as of the Father's Only Son, full of grace and truth" (John 1:14).

Truth: Truth is a correspondence between mind and reality. Every discovery of the truth about the world, about ourselves, and about others is a discovery that brings our mind into greater unity with the mind of God. God's self-revelation in Jesus Christ reveals God's loving grace and mercy, reveals the dignity of the human person, and reveals our calling to live in fellowship with one another. The fullness of Truth is not a collection of propositions, but a Person, Jesus Christ. We seek to know the truths of this world as glimpses into the mind and heart of that Truth. Through learning the truths of the Catholic Faith, and through receiving and learning from one another, we grow in Truth and remain in encounter with God. "You will know the Truth, and the Truth will set you free" (John 8:32)

Hospitality: God welcomes us into his Trinitarian life through Baptism. God forms for us a home in the Church. God calls us to accept his hospitality through faith and through the Sacramental life in the Church community. God also calls us to welcome others into this new life and into this spiritual home. Like Lazarus, Martha and Mary (see Luke 10 and John 11), we find ourselves serving Jesus through hospitality to those in need. Through the service of the Open Door Café, through welcoming visitors to the Cathedral church, through ministry to our Sister Parish and other outreach programs, we show the hospitality to others that God has shown to us.

Each word is like a hanger on which we can hang many experiences and memories. May these words remind you of moments where you have encountered God, and stir up in your heart the desire to meet God again, today and every day.

God bless you!

Fr. Edward

Queridos amigos y amigas de la Catedral,

He intentado plasmar parte de la misión de la Catedral con las palabras "belleza, verdad y hospitalidad". Así es como concibo estos términos:

Belleza: La experiencia de la belleza nos saca de nosotros mismos y nos lleva a contemplar lo Trascendente. A través de la belleza de la arquitectura de la Catedral, de las Bellas Artes y de la comunión parroquial, nos preparamos para entrar en la trascendencia de la Liturgia Eucarística, nos capacitamos para reconocer el resplandor de Cristo en la Eucaristía y nos fortalecemos para ver la belleza de cada persona. El Evangelio y las Cartas de nuestro patrón, San Juan Evangelista, subrayan la "gloria" de Dios, otra forma de referirse a la belleza y el resplandor divinos: "Y hemos visto su gloria, la que recibe del Padre como Hijo único, lleno de gracia y verdad" (Juan 1:14).

Verdad: La verdad es una correspondencia entre la mente y la realidad. Todo descubrimiento de la verdad sobre el mundo, sobre nosotros mismos y sobre los demás es un hallazgo que acerca nuestra mente a una mayor unidad con la mente de Dios. La autorrevelación de Dios en Jesucristo manifiesta su gracia amorosa y su misericordia, revela la dignidad de la persona humana y nos muestra nuestra llamada a vivir en comunión los unos con los otros. La plenitud de la Verdad no es un conjunto de proposiciones, sino una Persona: Jesucristo. Buscamos conocer las verdades de este mundo como destellos de la mente y el corazón de esa Verdad. Al aprender las verdades de la Fe Católica, y al recibirnos y aprender unos de otros, crecemos en la Verdad y nos mantenemos en encuentro con Dios. "Y conocerán la verdad y la verdad los hará libres" (Juan 8:32).

Hospitalidad: Dios nos acoge en su vida Trinitaria a través del Bautismo. Dios nos prepara un hogar en la Iglesia. Dios nos llama a aceptar su hospitalidad mediante la fe y la vida Sacramental en la comunidad de la Iglesia. Asimismo, Dios nos llama a acoger a los demás en esta nueva vida y en este hogar espiritual. Al igual que Lázaro, Marta y María (véanse Lucas 10 y Juan 11), nos encontramos sirviendo a Jesús mediante la hospitalidad hacia los necesitados. A través del servicio del Open Door Café, de la acogida a los visitantes de la Catedral, del ministerio con nuestra Parroquia Hermana y de otros programas de proyección comunitaria, brindamos a los demás la misma hospitalidad que Dios nos ha mostrado a nosotros.

Cada palabra es como una percha donde podemos colgar muchas experiencias y recuerdos. Que estas palabras le recuerden aquellos momentos en los que se ha encontrado con Dios y despierten en su corazón el deseo de volver a encontrarse con Él, hoy y cada día.

¡Que Dios les bendiga!

P. Edward
