Pastor's Letter / Carta del Pastor

Dear friends of the Cathedral,

Several of you have asked me: Father, what happened at the Parish Town Hall? While I can't capture the whole experience, I want to offer you a brief recap. The evening was centered on the mission of the Cathedral: to be a Catholic, Eucharistic community living in ongoing encounter with God through beauty, truth, and hospitality.

I began with a few remarks reflecting on what I've observed and learned about the Cathedral in my ten months here, sharing a few stories of conversion, welcome, and transformation. Then I invited our staff to share how the Cathedral is helping people to encounter God.

Joe Smaldino spoke about beauty, quoting the Second Vatican Council's teaching that the fine arts "by their very nature are oriented toward the infinite beauty of God," and invited us to the Wednesday Lunchtime Concerts and the upcoming "Pilgrimages" event in 2027.

Trevor Beach shared how the truth found in St. John's Gospel, especially Jesus' words, "when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all people to myself," serves as an inspirational guiding principle for the Cathedral.

Kate Shay told a beautiful story of how one person in the Open Door Cafe rediscovered her sense of worth and value, and reminded volunteers of their value, through the Café's ministry of Christian hospitality.

Renee Luhr, chair of the Finance Council, explained how we are facing the deficit budget with a four-year strategic plan: first, solidifying our identity and mission; second, strengthening our own parish commitment to that mission; third, engaging the broader community to join the mission; fourth, revise and improve.

After that, we took a pause for parishioners to write their questions and to commit to joining the mission through various volunteer opportunities. We took a quick break, and then received a message from Archbishop Grob, who told us about his dream for the Cathedral, and encouraged us to work to make this church the Mother Church in word and in deed – a model for the whole Archdiocese. Our Q&A period was excellent – lively but not bogged down by excessive detail. I still have the list of questions, which I will reflect on and continue to address as the months go on. Thank you to all who participated, and thank you all for continuing to make the Cathedral a place of encounter with God!

In Christ,

Fr Edward

Queridos amigos y amigas de la Catedral,

Varios de ustedes me han preguntado: "Padre, ¿qué ocurrió en la Asamblea Parroquial?". Aunque no puedo transmitir la experiencia completa, quiero ofrecerles un breve resumen. La reunión se centró en la misión de la Catedral: ser una comunidad Católica y Eucarística que vive un encuentro continuo con Dios a través de la belleza, la verdad y la hospitalidad.

Inicié compartiendo algunas reflexiones sobre lo que he observado y aprendido acerca de la Catedral en mis diez meses aquí, relatando historias de conversión, acogida y transformación. Luego, invité a nuestro personal a explicar cómo la Catedral ayuda a las personas a encontrarse con Dios.

Joe Smaldino habló sobre la belleza, citando la enseñanza del Concilio Vaticano II de que las bellas artes, "por su propia naturaleza, están orientadas hacia la belleza infinita de Dios", y nos invitó a asistir a los Conciertos de los Miércoles al Mediodía, así como al evento "Peregrinaciones" previsto para 2027.

Trevor Beach compartió cómo la verdad que se encuentra en el Evangelio de San Juan, especialmente en las palabras de Jesús: "cuando sea elevado sobre la tierra, atraeré a todos hacia mí", sirve como principio rector e inspirador para la Catedral.

Kate Shay relató una hermosa historia sobre cómo una persona, en el Open Door Café, redescubrió su propio valor y dignidad; además, recordó a los voluntarios y voluntarias el valor que ellos mismos poseen, gracias al ministerio de hospitalidad Cristiana que se lleva a cabo en el Café.

Renee Luhr, presidenta del Consejo de Finanzas, explicó cómo estamos abordando el déficit presupuestario mediante un plan estratégico a cuatro años: primero, consolidando nuestra identidad y misión; segundo, fortaleciendo nuestro compromiso parroquial con dicha misión; tercero, involucrando a la comunidad en general para que se una a esta misión; y cuarto, revisando y mejorando constantemente.

Posteriormente, hicimos una pausa para que los feligreses pudieran escribir sus preguntas y comprometerse a participar en la misión a través de diversas oportunidades de voluntariado. Tras un breve descanso, recibimos un mensaje del Arzobispo Grob, quien nos habló de su sueño para la Catedral y nos animó a trabajar para que esta iglesia sea, de palabra y de obra, una Iglesia Madre: un modelo para toda la Arquidiócesis. Nuestra Sesión de Preguntas y Respuestas fue excelente, dinámica, sin perderse en detalles excesivos. Aún tengo la lista de preguntas, reflexionaré sobre ellas y seguiré abordándolas a lo largo de los próximos meses. ¡Gracias a todos y todas quienes participaron, y gracias a todos y todas por seguir haciendo de la Catedral un lugar de encuentro con Dios!

En Cristo,

P. Edward
