“THIS IS THE
DAY THE LORD
HAS MADE;
LET US

rejoice and be glad.”

(PS 118:24)

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Happy Easter! When I think about Easter when I was a child, I admit that many of my memories are centered more around its symbolic trappings: Fannie Mae Easter eggs and peppermint ice cream, my grandma's table set just so, and unseasonably cold Easter egg hunts. While I may not have yet fully understood the theology of the Resurrection, being at Mass with my family and taking part in the celebratory activities engendered in me the disposition of which the psalmist speaks: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. Today's readings invite us to see both the secular and the sacred with new eyes. The fact that Jesus took on our humanity, died and rose again give us a glimpse of the joy that awaits. The simple pleasures we experience at Easter and throughout the year hint at what the Lord has in mind for all of us. In the meantime, we can turn to Jesus for encouragement, with the knowledge that God is present in the ordinary and extraordinary people and events in our daily lives.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

After Mary Magdalene discovers the empty tomb, Simon Peter and “the other disciple” (John) don't walk – but run to the tomb. I'm struck by the detailed account that follows. Peter “saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.” The words that follow seem contradictory: “Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.” Their understanding would grow in the hours and days that followed. These early witnesses would then share the Good News of Jesus' resurrection, often at the cost of their own lives, building up the Church that endures today. Like the disciples, we, too, are commissioned to witness to our faith in the risen Jesus, sharing this life-changing reality with others through our words and actions.

PRAY As this Easter season begins, we celebrate Christ's triumph over death, yet mourn that death still comes so violently for so many around the world. Make an extra effort – an extraordinary effort – this week to pray for peace in the world.

HAPPY EASTER FROM FR. BENNY

Dear sisters and brothers,

Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!
Happy Easter! I want to thank you for your presence and prayers as we celebrate together the glorious feast of Easter.

I extend a warm welcome to anyone who is visiting with us from other places or even other faith backgrounds. If you are with us today but do not worship with our parish community on a regular basis, I gladly welcome you home to our beautiful Annunciation Catholic Church and extend an invitation to visit with me or Deacon John McMullen or one of my staff to answer any questions you may have about the Catholic faith. We are here to guide and help you in the journey of the Catholic faith.

Let's welcome 11 new Catholics (Kaitlyn, Jason, Wanda, Xavier, Ximena, Parker R., Scarlet, Lola, Parker M., Hans and Matthew) into our parish family, who were baptized and confirmed during the Easter Vigil service. If you or a loved one would ever like more information about becoming Catholic, please feel free to contact the parish office. Christian Initiation is an ongoing process in our parish. We look forward to walking with you on this journey of faith.

May you and your family have a blessed Easter! Know that I will pray for you, your loved ones, and your intentions.

I thank you for your financial support of the parish. Your generosity helps the parish to meet its expenses. Thank you very much. May God bless you always!

I entrust you and your family into the hands of Our Blessed Mother.

Jesus loves you,
Fr. Benny

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS AND GUESTS!

If you are visiting and would like more information about Annunciation Parish, Annunciation Catholic School, or about joining our Parish family, please contact the Parish Office, 812-476-3061 or visit www.AnnunciationEVV.org.

CREATE A WILDFLOWER SANCTUARY

Setting aside a part of your lawn for a plot of wildflowers is a great way to help wildlife and add a unique kind of beauty to your home. It is relatively simple to do and Tri-State Creation will show you how as well as provide the seed. You have your choice of two workshops. Both are hybrid events. You can attend in person at All Saints Church (704 N. 1st Ave) on Thurs., April 28 at 6:30 pm, in person at the Downtown library in Browning Room A at 10 am on Sat., April 30, or attend either session on-line by emailing Tristate CC, tristate.creation.care@gmail.com, to receive a Zoom invite and get more information. This program is free and welcome to all.
