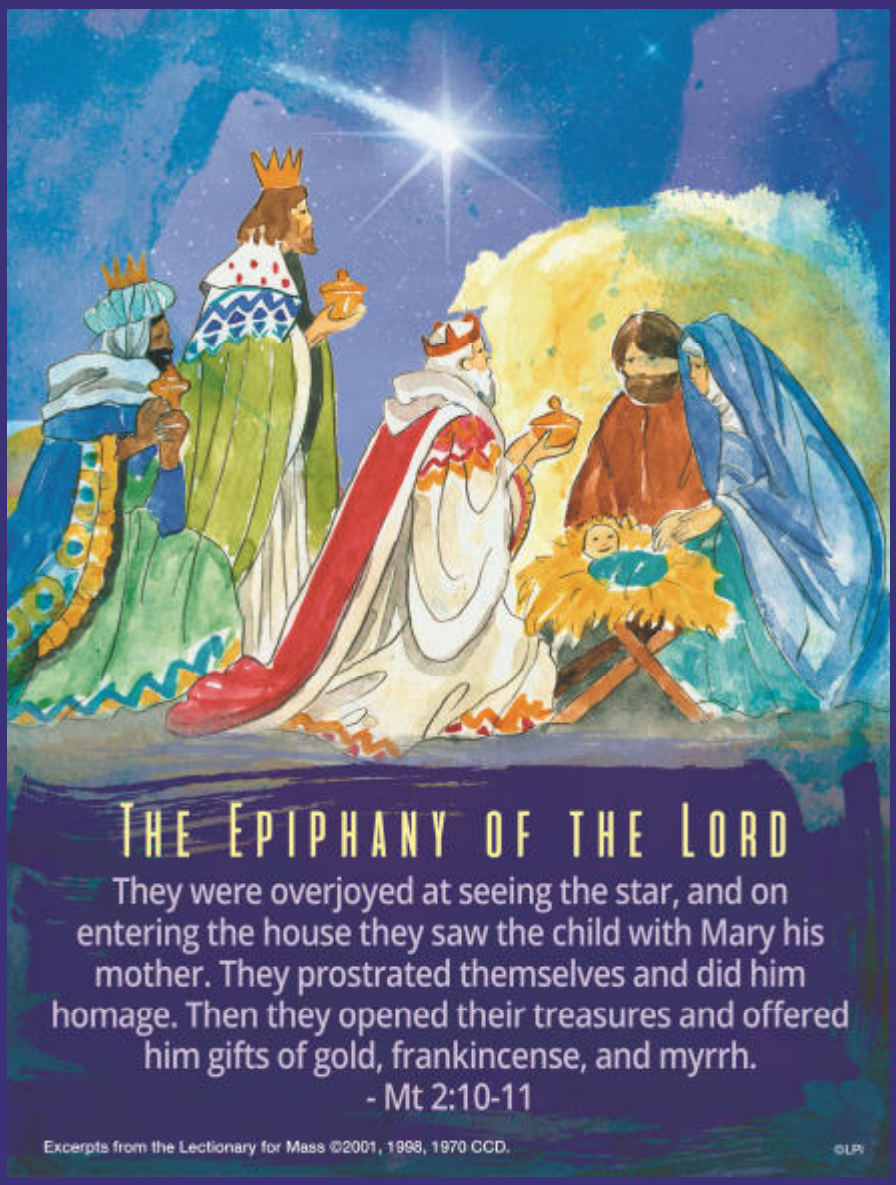
Come Let Us Adore Him Christ the Lord



My Hopes and Prayers for 2021

2020 has come to an end….finally! I think all of us are clapping at that statement. Speaking for myself (though I am sure many would agree) this has been the toughest year of my life. Never would I have imagined all of what transpired this year. I figured that 2020 would prove tougher than most years because moving parishes is always difficult, but I never imagined making a move under such circumstances. I never thought Masses would not happen in public. I never thought that the world would shut-down like it did last spring. I never thought that I would have to learn how to be a priest and pastor without being in regular close contact with my people. I never thought I would learn how to live-stream anything. But all of that happened and I will never forget 2020! I make those statements grateful that I have not lost someone in my family to Covid like some in our parish have. I am grateful that I am employed.

I have never been one for New Year resolutions and I am not going start now. Rather, I want to share with you my hopes for 2021 as we head into this new year. I would imagine that you will find that most of them are pretty similar to your wishes for this new year.

1. It all begins with the simple prayer that this pandemic ends soon. The sooner it ends, the fewer people will die of this disease, the sooner the economy can stabilize and more people can find jobs. One of my prayers then is that the vaccination program goes efficiently and as quickly as possible.

2. I hope and pray for an easing of the anxiety that this pandemic has caused. That way we can associate and go about our normal activities with less concern that we might pass along the virus to someone else.

3. My biggest personal hope and prayer is that soon the masks can come off our faces and we can have big events again. Then I feel that I can really begin to get to know all of you and spend time with you. It is hard pastoring a community where I can't see everyone's face and can't really spend time casually with you. That has been tough. It will be a great day when all of us can be at Mass together!

I think that whenever the pandemic ends, whether that's in the summer or the fall, we should have a parish-wide cook out to spend time with each other once again!!

Prayers for a hope-filled and easier 2021!

Fr. Kevin McManaman

"In Her Own Words"

On December 12, longtime St. Alphonsus' parishioner, Rosemary McKenney, died peacefully at age 97. Her story is worth sharing. She wrote, "I have been at St. Al's for 57 years, more than 2/3 of my life. It is here that I raised five children and buried my husband. Saint Al's has offered many experiences and much spiritual guidance. It has provided many opportunities to grow in faith and to be of service where needed. There have been seven Pastors and many Associate priests…each one offering their own talents, personalities, spiritual qualities, and leaving their own legacy. They have all made St. Al's what it is. We continue as a faith community, promoting opportunities to develop spiritually and providing service to do God's work with guidance. The parish has been and continues to be a large part of my life." Rosemary lived a life of faith and service. May she rest in peace. For her detailed obituary, please visit www.maxsass.com.

National Migration Week January 3-9

For nearly a half century, the Catholic Church in the United States has celebrated National Migration Week, which is an opportunity for the Church to reflect on the circumstances confronting migrants, including immigrants, refugees, children, and victims and survivors of human trafficking. The theme for National Migration Week 2020, "Promoting a Church and a World for All" drew attention to the fact that each of our families have a migration story, some recent and others in the distant past. Regardless of where we are and where we came from, we remain part of the human family and are called to live in solidarity with one another.

This year, National Migration Week has been moved to September 20-26, 2021.

Epiphany Home Blessing With Chalk

Epiphany (also known as Twelfth Night, Theophany, or Three Day) marks the occasion of a time-honored Christian tradition of "chalking the doors." It has been a tradition in the Catholic Church to hand out blessed chalk at the Masses for Epiphany, and then use the blessed chalk as part of blessing one's home in the New Year.

The home blessing can be done as follows: Use the blessed chalk to write: 20+C+M+B+XX above the doorways: 20XX for the year; C, M, B for the 3 Magi – Casper, Melchior, and Balthasar – and for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for "May Christ Bless this House." As you are writing, pray the following prayer:

Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only-begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our concern for others may reflect your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please pray for these babies who were recently baptized and for their families:

A Hearty Thank You

After truly enjoying a prayerful Advent Season, I feel a thank you is in order to all who make our Parish of St. Alphonsus the wonderful Parish it is.

We are coming to the end of a year that has brought many unknowns to our world, our country, our state, our community and our families. This pandemic that has fallen upon us has been very troubling with very many unknowns. However, our Parish has stepped up to the task to do our best to continue our Liturgical celebrations. So I write this article to say THANK YOU to ALL who make this parish so wonderful.

We are very privileged to have two wonderful Priests in Fr. Kevin and Fr. Patrick, who came aboard when Fr. Aaron and Fr. Britto left. We are so grateful that they are with us. But rightfully so, they depend on many of you to help them run this parish, for they can't do it all themselves. When I sit back and look at the commitment that so many of you have made as we try to deal with Covid, I am very grateful to all of you who have come forward. Each Mass, we need eucharistic ministers, lectors, ushers, cross bearers, sacristans, greeters, cantors, musicians, those who prepare the liturgy, and our live-stream computer operators.

Then, after EACH AND EVERY MASS, wonderful people step in to sanitize the church, wipe down the pews, clean the restrooms, and even to the point of wiping down the Gospel Book, Roman Missal, and Lectionary. YES, this is being done after each and every Mass to make our space clean and safe, making it ready for the next Mass. Just think of this Christmas itself; we had eight Masses.

We need to thank those who decorate the church for all the Liturgical seasons with banners, altar cloths, and inside and outside decor. Then, as I see in the Sacristy, wonderful ladies who take home and launder and fold Altar linens, such as purificators. Of course we can't forget all the other volunteers who work to keep our school alive, along with our religious education program, catechists, pastoral council and various committees — the list goes on and on. Thanks to all of you who give of yourself. The gift of your time is truly a blessing to this parish.

We have lost so many of our past volunteers due to their own health concerns, which is most understandable. So let me end with an invitation to those of you who would like to be a part of the many volunteers who help make this parish what it is. We can always use more of you to give of your time and talents in any area that may interest you. WE TRULY NEED YOU. I invite you to prayerfully give some thought as to how YOU could use your God-given talents to be a part of what makes this parish thrive. You may be truly surprised at how self-fulfilling you find it to be.

Blessings to all of you. I hope you had a wonderful Christmas and have a happy and safe New Year. Together with the help of GOD, we can get through this.

— Deacon James Leggett

The Epiphany of the Lord

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God's healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

REFLECT

FIRST READING
In late 6th century BC, the prophet Isaiah proclaimed an unimaginable future of glory for Israel in the wake of their return from seventy years of captivity in Babylon. What message of hope does our nation need today?

SECOND READING
Paul speaks of God's "revelation" to include Gentiles as "coheirs" and "copartners" with Jews in the divine promise fulfilled in Christ Jesus. How welcoming are you to those you consider outsiders?

GOSPEL READING
The magi's visit to discover the "newborn king of the Jews" caused great anxiety for the religious leaders of Jerusalem, including King Herod. Why do you think some people are not open to the good news of Jesus Christ?

Men See God In The Simple Things

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi
