THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ." — Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear. ©LPi

Human Concerns

Prayers on this Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Baptized at St Paul in the last year, these children now BELONG to Christ. We welcome them to our community of faith and offer our prayers and support as they and their families find ways to love, live, and BELIEVE in our Savior. Pray for them as they join all of us in the lifelong journey to BECOME the persons God created us all to be.

Human Concerns

Generous Outreach

Two Human Concerns ministries to watch for in January: The Heavenly Babies ministry will have a display at Donut Sunday on January 16. Please stop by to learn more about this beautiful ministry and how you can help.

The Respect Life ministry will distribute envelopes the last two weekends in January to ask for your support of Life's Connection, a pro-life pregnancy resource center in Mukwonago and Waukesha, for women who choose life for their babies. Please pray for all the babies who are not here to light up our lives with their childlike wonder and joy. Pray, too, for all mothers to choose life and find the support they need from places like Life's Connection.

One more ministry at work behind the scenes...Like most months, the entrée and a side for St Ben's Community Meal will be provided by our St Paul ministry of beef stew preparers (happily bringing their own knives). Join this group once/month, 4th Thursday, 8-9am

Faith Formation

So I am writing this during the season of Advent... Long before you are reading it in this bulletin. The holiday season creates a unique opportunity for us to write articles way in advance so they are in a timely fashion for the upcoming bulletins (which have to go to print early due to the time of year). This, coupled with a time to go on vacation and spend time with my family, I had to work even further ahead.

As these words are being typed, I have a confession to make. Lately I have been exhausted. I have been trying very hard to be present to God and allow Him to fill me, but I still feel as though I am going on empty.

We hear a lot about self care in our world. Sometimes self-care is a lot of work. It means making it a priority to cook healthful meals, exercise, check your budget, etc. Spiritually speaking, it's the hard work of letting go. It means we need to let go of our plans and allow God to reveal His plan in our lives. We are called to open our hearts to Him and surrender. It means accepting God on His terms and not our own. And this is probably some of the hardest work we will ever do.

To do this, it's really a call to live out our baptismal call more fully. It means that we let the indwelling of the Holy Trinity, which made our heart and soul His home at baptism, be the all in all of our being. This goes against a society that is saturated in sports mania, politics and the busyness of life. We are actually limiting ourselves when we allow the things of this world to become our greatest priority/(ies). We were made for eternity. We are made for the things of heaven. They are so much more than a game or whatever division is currently giving people grief. The very life of the One who created the glorious expanse in which we live, whom the angels sing, who was recognized as the "well beloved Son," who died and ROSE from the dead, longs to live in and be one with you. It brings you to life.

So, I will continue to fight the good fight of surrendering my dreams for the dreams God has for me. They are grander and greater than anything I could ever imagine. And that says a lot. I have a pretty grand imagination! I will fight for moments where I lay down my defenses and go in silence before the Lord of lords. I will battle on. And I will look to Mary for an example and guide. She is my mother. And my Mother is a warrior! I will allow her to lead me to her Son, my Savior and the Lord of my life... Jesus. Karen Farrell—kfarrell@stpaulgenesee.net

GET AWAY ON RETREAT in 2022

The Redemptorist Retreat Center, located in Oconomowoc, set on beautiful, peaceful Crooked Lake, offers mens' and womens' silent weekend retreats each year. This year's theme is "Healing in a Wounded World." How do we return to the basic gospel values so as to bring a sense of healing not only to the world but to each of us? Our recent experience of isolation and separateness reminds us of the need for Jesus and encountering him through a community that reaches out to one another with care. It is our human interaction, based on gospel values, where we begin any healing process. This retreat will offer the values and possible ways to address this inner longing of our hearts. Read more and find dates: redemptoristretreat.org. There are other retreats offered, including Days of Reflection and Prayer. Or make a personal retreat: "Exploring Mindfulness Silent Retreat – Come to the Quiet," February 14-17. To register by phone call 262-567-6900. To register by email rrc@redemptoristretreat.org. Give yourself the gift of quiet time with our Savior in 2022.
