Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away. ©LPi

Taking Time to Reframe Our Grief

WEEK OF PRAYER Christian Unity JANUARY 18-25

Eternal Father, We praise you for sending your Son to be one of us and to save us. Look upon your people with mercy, for we are divided in so many ways, and give us the Spirit of Jesus to make us one in love. We ask this gift, loving Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Human Concerns

January is PRO-LIFE month

Life's Connection is a pro-life pregnancy resource center with locations in Mukwonago and Waukesha. Each year Our Respect Life Ministry asks for your donations to help them help moms who CHOOSE LIFE. Pick up an envelope after mass on the weekends of January 23 and 30th. All donations will be mailed directly to Life's Connection. Please be as generous as you have been in the past - last year over $6500 was donated to Life's Connection! Please visit them at <https://lifesconnection.org/> to learn about all the support they provide to families. Include Life's Connection and the babies they are welcoming in your prayers.

SUNDAY of the WORD of GOD

A few years ago, Pope Francis marked the third Sunday in Ordinary Time with that title. The first reading from Nehemiah is a perfect connection to that! Opening the Word, spending time in Scripture is spending time with our Savior. Take the words of the prophet to heart: Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength! With all that is troublesome in the world, we can find peace, love, wisdom, and more in the Word. Based on Paul's letter to the Corinthians, let's take it one step further and ponder how opening the Word with others in the Body of Christ can be even better because we support each other in shared prayer and experience: so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another.

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ!" insisted St. Jerome - a strong exhortation from a Father and Doctor of the Catholic Church to Christians urging them to pay attention to serious Scripture study. There are a number of small groups meeting now, please see the parish website for the full listing and find one to try out for Lent this year.

GENEROUS OUTREACH

Several of our ministries accept donations anytime during the year. There are baskets in the coat room off the Gathering Space for you to share: Eyeglasses, canes, empty RX bottles for the St Clare Community in Païta, Peru

Baby clothes for Heavenly Babies – specifically sizes 0-3 and 3-6 months outfits, sleepers, onesies (gently used or new)

Travel size soaps, shampoos for Capuchin Community's free showers for the homeless.

Whether you are cleaning or using your Kohl's cash or some coupons, we thank you for thinking of our brothers and sisters served by these ministries.

Faith Formation

The Rosary never gets old. Ever.

We occasionally pray the Rosary as a staff (those of us who are available). The other day, I was feeling discouraged. I don't know exactly why that was the case... but I was. I had really been trying to lean into Jesus for strength, but I still had the feeling of discouragement.

Then came the Rosary.

The Rosary, described by Pope St. John Paul II, is a meditation on the life of Christ through the eyes of His mother. She is, after all, the disciple par excellence! She chose to allow Christ into her life regardless of what would happen to her. Seeing Jesus through the eyes of His mother has often helped me to grow closer to Jesus.

And so, on a cold January afternoon, three of us walked around the inside of the church, meditating on the Sorrowful Mysteries. And in this walk, I recognized something very real. Feelings are to be acknowledged, but we don't need to live by them. I thought of the way Jesus, in the Garden of Gethsemane, probably felt some form of discouragement as He told His disciples, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch" (Mark 14:34). Those words spoken are not words that evoke warm, fuzzy thoughts. Rather, they remind us of the weight of all that was upon Jesus as He agonized in the garden.

So, Jesus said yes. And the yes led to the crucifixion... in its gore and terribleness.

But it also led to the glory of His Resurrection... in all its awe, wonder and majesty.

And so, while we all face moments of discouragement, we don't have to give in to them. Feelings are not the be all and end all. This is often not realized in the greater culture where we must live by our feelings alone. Yet, we can make an act of the will to trust God... to pray the words, "not what I will but what you will," (Mark 14:36) just like Jesus.

Because, very often, in life, agony and struggle are the forerunners of glory.

Just like the agony of the garden and the crucifixion led to the glory of the resurrection.

May we all seek to lean into Jesus, regardless of the feeling. May the acts of our wills lead to the glory of small victories and resurrection in our hearts and lives.

ART TEACHER NEEDED!

St. Bruno Parish School seeks an art teacher for a full time equivalent in two Archdiocesan schools. Our school is a welcoming and supportive learning community that has recently won the Archdiocesan Exemplary Award in Mission and Catholic Identity. Art classes meet for 45-60 minutes per week, depending on grade level. The art standards of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee are the guide for teaching. St. Bruno Parish School has one class of each grade with some combined grades. St. Bruno has a kiln! Questions? Email Principal Mary MacDonald at mary.macdonald@stbrunoparishschool.com or call 262-965-2291.
