Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we respond in faith to god's call, our way becomes less our own and more of one united to his love. Jesus invites us to follow him, and when our spiritual blindness interferes with our ability to do so, Jesus heals and redeems us through his compassionate loves. Jesus guides his disciples and they support one another.

St. Boniface School Spotlight

This weekend is truly a testament of the spirit of the parish of St. Boniface. When I came to STB five years ago, the "Leave your Legacy" campaign was just getting underway. To have gone from renderings and architectural drawings to where we are today has been truly amazing to watch.

Thank you to all of our families and parishioners who have sacrificed their time, talent, and treasure to make Legacy Hall a reality. Our students will use this space for decades to come to develop academically, physically, and spiritually!

We are truly blessed!

Living the Bluejay Way!

When we do good deeds for others, spread the good news of the gospel, and work for peace and justice, we are living the Bluejay Way! Check out the kids this week who were caught living out our school year theme and were recognized as having the Bluejay Spirit!

- Leo S. and Will F. (Kindergarten) stacked chairs that friends forgot.
- Morgann M. (fourth) put up classmates' chairs that were left down at the end of the day.
- Second graders picked up strands left over from our spirit shakers at the pep rally!

Don't forget to visit the Children's Stewardship Boat in the plaza lobby to pick up the following:

- Lectionary Worksheets - updated weekly
- Children's Envelopes
- Children's Offertory Banks
- Fish Display - fill out cards to display your sharing of gifts through prayer, serving, & giving whose love is enduring.

1. Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth!
Praise the name above all names!
Say to God, "How wondrous your works,
how glorious your name!"

Praise the glory of your name!
Come and see the deeds of the Lord;
bless God's holy name!

Help me to see.

2. Open my ears, Lord.
Help me to hear your voice.
Open my ears, Lord.
Help me to hear.

3. Open my heart, Lord.
Help me to love like you.
Open my heart, Lord.
Help me to love.

Bridge

and our eyes are opened,
and we'll hear like never before.
And we'll speak in new ways,
and we'll see God's face

Deep in your heart, O Love.
I live within you.
Rest now in me.

GO IN PEACE TO LOVE AND SERVE THE LORD
Paul Inwood

1. Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
Go in peace: become the living Word!
Christ on our lips and Christ in our hearts,
may we show God's love to the world, to the world,
may we show God's love to the world.

2. Be Christ's hands, now reaching out to all.
Be Christ's voice, inviting with his call.
Filled with his joy, empow'red with his strength,
may we spread God's grace through the world, through the world,
may we spread God's grace through the world.

UNLESS A GRAIN OF WHEAT
Bernadette Farrell

Refrain
Unless a grain of wheat shall fall
upon the ground and die,
it remains but a single grain
with no life.

1. If we have died with him,
then we shall live with him;
if we hold firm,
we shall reign with him.

2. If anyone serves me,
then they must follow me;
wherever I am,
my servants will be.

3. Make your home in me
as I make mine in you;
those who remain in me
bear much fruit.

4. If you remain in me
and my word lives in you,
then you will be my disciples.

5. Those who love me
are loved by my Father;
we shall be with them
and dwell in them.

6. Peace I leave with you,
my peace I give to you;
peace which the world
cannot give is my gift.

BONA-COUNTERS
for Monday, October 25
Celeste Korte & Jan Boyer

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

World Mission Sunday - the annual, worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church- will be on October 24 this year. World Mission Sunday joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At Mass that Sunday, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation, through Baptism to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Pope Francis's message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20). He reminds us that, "as Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves," as we "recall with gratitude all those men and women who by their testimony of life help us to renew our baptismal commitment to be generous and joyful apostles of the Gospel." On World Mission Sunday, we join our Holy Father in supporting his missions. As we pray and respond here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish and school throughout the world. Together, through our prayers and financial support, we bring the Lord's mercy and concrete help to the most vulnerable communities in the Pope's missions. In a world where so many things divide us, World Mission Sunday rejoices in our unity as missionaries by our Baptism, as it offers each one of us an opportunity to support the life-giving presence of the Church among the poor and marginalized in more than 1,111 mission dioceses.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki

PHASE III CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

It was a great weekend with the blessing and opening of the new Legacy Hall. It was good to see so many come out to see the results of a lot of hard work and support from the Parish. There are still some final items that we will be working on in the Legacy Hall, but most of our attention now will be on the new classrooms. We are aiming for classes to begin in the new classrooms on Monday, November 1. The electrical work will be completed this week, and Michael and Bill will be installing the library wall of doors. This will be a very nice feature in using the old doors from the church to create a unique and stunning wall between the library and the cafeteria. We will be doing a lot of painting, cleaning, and organizing in preparation for the move of the classrooms. These new classrooms will be outstanding!
