The Greatest Adventure of Your Life!

Can you imagine what that first Easter morning was like?

You started out totally devastated. You had thought Jesus was the Messiah – but He had been brutally crucified. Now you were so mixed up and confused. You were terrified that they might come and do the same thing to you. You didn't know what to do next.

And then it all happened! As was the custom, the women went at daybreak to anoint Jesus' body – and the stone had been rolled back from the tomb – and it was empty! JESUS WASN'T THERE!!

And this changed everything! Very soon you would understand that everything that God had promised to His people, starting way back with Abraham, had now been fulfilled! Very soon you would understand that everything that Jesus had said about Himself was true!

You had entered into the greatest adventure of your life that would bring hope and meaning to everything, and a joy that would never end! And this adventure has never ceased.

Many of us have experienced this same Easter joy as we set out to live out our faith at a deeper level and share it with others.

For the past three years, many of us have come to Bible Study and learned things about our faith that we never knew and have been drawn deeper into the treasure of our Catholic faith. Many have enjoyed Alpha as we shared our faith with each other.

Since September, our RCIA group has met faithfully (that is, when there wasn't a snow day) to study the basics of our Catholic faith. At first, the syllabus was rather overwhelming but soon we became like a little family and it was fun to get together on Wednesday nights.

Learning about our Catholic faith has been transforming, just like peering into that empty tomb on Easter morning. It's all true!

It is with great joy that we welcome our newest members: newly baptized Jeanette Greco; Steve Schmidt and Adam Kolmorgen; and confirmand Jess Dokey.

Everything that our Church has taught for the past 2,000 years is true! We are starting to understand!

We might not understand the fullness of its treasures, but already that Easter joy is bubbling up from deep within.

May the joy of the Risen Lord fill you and your family to overflowing!

God bless you,
Deacon Chuck
