Challenging Decisions

Each day we find ourselves faced with making decisions. Some decisions can be life changing. How do we decide on what to do?

In the fall of 2011, I was living in Fort Atkinson, WI and working at St. Patrick's Church in Whitewater. My dad and my husband both died and things were not going well at work. I was not in a good state of mind.

One day I got this thought in my head about moving from Fort Atkinson and moving somewhere up north near my children. I verbalized the thought to my daughter and before I realized I had a realtor and a list of homes to look at. I scheduled a time to visit my daughter and her family and some time to look at homes.

I ended up looking at the first house on the list and I knew it was the one. I made an offer on the house and it was accepted that very day. Everything fell into place. I was approved for a loan. I moved to Kewaunee on February 12, 2012. The weather was perfect – no snow on the ground, no rain so nothing got tracked in on the newly cleaned carpets. I think only one piece of glassware was broken. I was amazed at how smoothly things went.

I registered at Holy Rosary and as Kathy Zeman and I were talking she was telling me about a new position they were looking to fill (Parish Ministry Coordinator). I told her that I would be interested, and low and behold, I got the job.

I believe that the Holy Spirit guided me here to this wonderful community filled with amazing people. He has blessed me with a welcoming and loving parish family. In hindsight, I look back throughout my life and I can see how Holy Spirit has guided me and helped me. There have been many struggles and hardships, but these have made me stronger, and made my faith in God stronger. Sometimes God opens doors; sometimes He closes doors; and sometimes we just need to keep going despite the struggle and put our trust in God and be patient. He has a plan for each and every one of us.

God loves us despite our mistakes. We just need to reconcile with Him and he will forgive us.

Life in itself is such an amazing gift that has been given to us.
