On Fire...

We are on fire...and we need people! The 2018-19 Faith Formation year confronted us with challenges including weather, student discipline, and health issues, but it also overwhelmed us with the Holy Spirit. While the winds of winter howled outside, the Holy Spirit was twirling us around with the winds of inspiration in our homes as well as the Faith Formation office.

Every week our young people come to us after spending a full day in classrooms to sit another 75 minutes in a FF class. They are mostly restless and unplugged; at worst difficult and rebellious. It was inevitable that the winds of winter and inspiration would lead us to the winds of change.

Trust me when I say that we have an amazing group of catechists who know, practice, and love their Catholic Faith. They are different from each other, but they are all truly on fire and talking about next year already. They stand ready to implement more interactive lessons, projects, and possibly a field trip. To do this, however, we need people with all sorts of diverse gifts...tech aides, group facilitators, adult monitors, hospitality helpers, table movers, crafters, subs.

We are inviting parents and parishioners to join us in the Holy Spirit's phenomenal transformation of our FF youth. Anyone working with youth must take a Virtus Class and complete a Diocesan background check which is completed on a computer. We will be scheduling a Virtus class at Holy Rosary in late/summer early/fall. There are no fees for the class or background check. You can arrange to complete your background check in the FF office if you need computer help.

Please feel welcome to call me or arrange to meet with me to discuss your ideas or the possibilities for your gifts and talents or to volunteer. I'm looking forward to collaborating with you.
